Wanted—a few more telephone poles upon which to tack up dance bills.

Mrs. Oliver Cash left Tuesday morning to join her husband at Los Angeles, California.

Rev. F. C. Stanard left Monday morning for Corbett where he will conduct special services for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carter who have been living at Warrenton are visiting relatives in Newberg and at Chehalem Center.

N. C. Maris, field editor of the Rural Spirit, took a trip of indefinite length up into northern Idaho the first of the week.

The city election with its attendant heart burnings is but about a month off. The competition for the posts of honor is not noticeably brisk.

B. F. Halladay, a former resident of the Springbrook neighborhood, has purchased of R. B.
Farr what is known as the fish pond place three miles east of town on the Portland road.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith and two grown sons of Nebraska, who have been spending a few weeks in Oregon, visited here last week with the former's uncle, Allen Smith and family.
They left on Monday.

It is reported that a commercial hotel remarked in a New-berg hotel the other day that that town was rated by Bradstreet higher than any other town its size in Oregon.—Amity Advance. And no saloons to help make business!

Nelson & Hanson, the new bicycle dealers, successors to Ullery & Son, speak to the public through the advertising, columns of the Graphic. Both are men well known here for their integrity and industry, and they will have the entire confidence of their patrons.

A very pleasant social affair took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Clough Tuesday evening, the occasion being the latter's birthday anniversary.
Gathering at the postoffice and proceeding to the scene of operations in a body, the guests took the household completely by surprise. A very pleasant evening of amusements and social intercourse followed, and many happy returns were bespoken for Mrs. Clough.

B. C. Miles, who had been spending a few days in the logging camp up country, hobbled off the train with the aid of a pair of rustic crutches Monday morning, as a result of a badly sprained ankle. He was doing a spectacular stunt on some floating logs and attempted too big a leap, the result being a ducking and the aforementioned wound. For a time, at least, B. C. will give more attention to office work and spend less time following "the blazed trail."

A dispatch from Richmond, Indiana, appeared in Saturday's Oregonian, saying that J. Aubrey Kramien of this place, had won the Senior class oratorical contest in Earlham College, and stood a fair chance of winning the college contest and representing Earlham at Indianapolis in the state. Aubrey reflects credit upon Pacific College, and his friends are pleased with the success he has already won and are hopeful that other honors are in store for him. He is also playing on the college basket ball team.

The Newberg Pressed Brick Company has employed an architect to draw some plans for a display of their bricks at the Lewis and Clark fair and the best brick layer in Portland has been engaged to do the work. This insures a good beginning for a Newberg display and it ought to be followed up by all our other manufacturers.
It seems that little is being done for a county exhibit and our people ought to be looking out for their own interests by arranging for an excellent exhibit of Newberg's resources.

Miss Metta Morris of Portland is visiting relatives in town.

L. E. Brown, merchant tailor, has located in Newberg for business, having rented rooms in the creamery building.

The elegant horsehair bridle, of which notice was given last week, was won with a seventeen cent ticket by Lewis Jones.

To-morrow morning at eight o'clock the reserved seat plats for the Elko Quartette entertainment will be opened at the drug stores.

Phin Vantress, who holds down a good position at Hob-sonville, Tillamook county, has been visiting in Newberg this week with the home folks.

A company of relatives and friends went in on W. J. Vestal at his home on River street Saturday evening and gave him a pleasant surprise party, the day marking his twenty-seventh birthday anniversary.

J. F. Durst, a recent arrival who is occupying the Hutchens cottage on North Meridian street, has purchased a couple of lots just north of the public school grounds, upon which he will erect a neat residence. The sale was made by the Newberg Land Co.

C. J. Edwards, who recently sold his residence property to C.
Cady, is this week moving his family into the new house built by Amos Kenworthy north of the Friends church. He expects to build in the spring, probably on a site in the Edward's orchard back of the church.

Wm. Slater of Sherwood, harness maker, has bought a lot on Main street of G. C. Carl, next to W. R. Hardman's new confectionery store, and Contractor Crantford is handing a rush order in the way of a new building which Mr. Slater will soon use as a harness shop. He will move his family to New-berg in a few days.

It is safe to say that there has been made about town no improvement which so enhances the appearance of surroundings as the remodeling and working over of the old Evangelical parsonage into an attractive looking residence, by C. B. Wilson.
The old parsonage, done in yellow ochre, was for years an eye sore to that part of town, and the modern appearing, freshly painted dwelling which has taken its place, has greatly altered the appearance of the whole street.

Marion George of Middleton who advertised in the Graphic for wood cutters was in the office the other day to say that the ad had supplied his wants.
He is preparing to open up the stone quarry on his place and put the stone on the market.
Portland contractors have assured him that it will make excellent building material and he has already made a contract with one of them for developing the quarry. Fortunately the stone is almost on the railroad, and after the short spur is put in which Marion will build, the transportation problem will have been solved.

A movement has been started toward organizing a city Y. M.
C. A. in Newberg. A few fellows met Monday night to discuss the proposition, and another meeting of those interested has been called for to-night at the Chehalem Valley Bank building for the purpose of considering plans and ways and means.
With the hearty co-operation and support promised by the business men of the town, it is probable that a building will be erected, with gymnasium, reading room etc., unless adequate quarters, not now available, can be rented. The time has come in the development of New-berg when some such resort should be open for young men and we believe the proper auspices for such an institution would be found in the Y. M.
C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Florin Fuchs of North Yamhill visited in town the first of the week with Henry Nierendorfs. Mr.
Fuchs was formerly proprietor of the Newberg Flouring Mill.

Louie Adolf was in town early this morning and reported that Adam Weber, who owns the Anderson Hodgson place east of Newberg, lost his fruit dryer by fire last night. Some meat which he was smoking in it dropped into the fire and started the blaze.

The German department of the college, under the leadership of Mrs. Douglas, is preparing to give a public entertainment on Thursday evening preceding Christmas. It will be given in German, but with free translations in Uncle Sam, so that it will be appreciated by all.
