Local Events.

Mrs. A. W. Rees and daughter Miss Georgia of Portland are visiting relatives in Newberg.

Mrs. H. N. Aldrich of Bridal Veil is visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larsen.

The Pacific College catalogues are out, and for the present copies may be had at the Graphic office.

Russell Comer and Shurl Pearson left Wednesday for Eastern Washington where they expect to spend the summer canvassing for stereoscopic views.

A mortised screen door will outlast two doweled or blind mortised doors. We make them. Newberg Sash and Door Factory. 33

Rain is so badly needed that a regular downpour on July 4th would be received without a murmur. Crops are withering and if water doesn't come very soon it will be too late to effect much good.

After attending the state pioneer meeting in Portland last week, J. C. Nelson took a trip up the Columbia to Collins, Washington, where his son-in-law Tom Belcher is managing a hot springs sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buchanan left last evening for the western part of the county, where he has a good job for the summer, patrolling Southern Pacific timber lands as a safeguard against fire. The work is light and the pay good.

On the run up from Portland Monday evening a door in one of the coaches was jarred off its hinges and fell with a crash to the floor! By one of those strange freaks of fortune however none of the passengers were lost before the door could be put in place again. It's about time for further assurance from Uncle Koehler that the road is in "good condition."

The moving of the water tank to Whiteson would indicate that the Southern Pacific had laid the matter of building the La Fayette-St. Joe cut-off on the table. But, after all, it is folly to wait for them to build. McMinnville and the east end of the county should have means of direct communication. The people want it and the business interests demand it. The best way to secure it, then, is to build a trolley line connecting McMinnville, La Fayette, Dayton and Newberg with Portland. It will be done some day, and without attempting to flatter the energy of the people of Newberg, we were about to add that it could and would be done quickly if Newberg took hold of it.—Reporter.

Paul Maris has gone up to Heppner near where he will spend the summer working in the harvest fields.

While at work in the handle factory Wednesday, Horace Nelson was struck in the eye by a flying chip. The wound was a serious one and came near meaning the loss of the eye altogether.

W. P. Heacock & Sons, of the Newberg Sash and Door Factory, have a contract with a Portland wholesale house for a lot of mill work, and will put in more machinery and employ a larger crew in a short time.

The first regular session of the Oregon Yearly Meeting of the Friends church takes place next Tuesday morning at the hour of ten o'clock, the sessions continuing throughout the week. Resident members should attend as far as possible.

The pulpit of the Friends church will be occupied Sunday morning by the native Hindu woman, the child widow, who has been speaking in Portland and vicinity for some time. She is said to give a graphic story of her life and conversion to the Christian faith.

Newberg has quite an Italian colony at present which is engaged on the railroad and whose bunk cars are on the switch near the handle factory. The balmy, zephyr-laden moonlight nights evidently bring home to the swarthy laborers the memory of fair Italia, for they have been indulging in regular evening concerts made up of Italian airs and folk songs. Their choruses have a distinctive and peculiar melody which floats out on the evening air with a rather weird effect.

The committee in charge announces that arrangements for the celebration Monday are about complete. After the parade in the morning, the program of the day in the way of speaking, music, etc., will be given in the Edwards fine oak grove. In the afternoon the ball game, between Newberg and McMinnville probably, will be played on the grounds just west of the Friends church. The day will be rounded off with fireworks in the evening. The personage of the goddess of liberty will be decided Friday evening when the votes will be counted for the last time. At present the three leading candidates for the honor are Misses Grace Butler, Celina Brouillette and Olive Stratton.

J. C. McCrea has handed in his resignation as public school director, and at a meeting of the Board held last night the vacancy was filled by the election of J. C. Colcord. Prof. R. W. Kirk had handed in his resignation as principal, but the directors declined to accept it and have made arrangements satisfactory to him and he will remain at the head of the school. Miss Etta McCoy of Oskaloosa, Iowa, Miss Jo Beyers of Roseburg and Mrs. F. H. Buchanan have been elected to positions in the school. The teaching force is now complete and will be arranged in the following order: Principal R. W. Kirk, F. H. Buchanan, Mrs. Martin, Miss McCoy, Mrs. H. R. Morris, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Buchanan, Miss Beyers and Miss Inglis.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
