Miss Nora Parker visited friends in Portland the latter part of last week.

Attorneys D. P. and O. L. Price and wives of Portland spent New Years with Newberg relatives.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore was the scene of a pleasant social gathering last Friday evening.

Mrs. Allen Craven and son-in-law James McPoland of Middleton visited in Newberg over Sunday with relatives.

A company of young people were the guests of Miss Mary Minthorn Saturday evening and saw the birth of 1905.

Hiram Smith and sister Miss Eva arrived home Tuesday morning after having spent the holidays with relatives at Philomath.

A. M. Hoskins, who has been in poor health of late, had a dangerous and wellnigh fatal attack of heart trouble Sunday night.

School Superintendent L. R. Alderman came down from McMinnville Tuesday morning on school matters pertaining to this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lineback of Silverton came over the first of the week to attend the funeral of E. W. Lindsay, Mrs. Lineback being a sister of the deceased.

The entertainment to be given here by the veteran male octet of Portland, of which mention was made last week, will be postponed on account of the recent death of the mother of the accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Grames drove up to McMinnville Sunday to attend the marriage of Miss Lula Burch to Bernard McCamish, the bride being their niece. The young people are spending their honeymoon at Portland and Grants Pass.

R. M. Wallace and family have removed to Southern California, Mr. Wallace and older children leaving last week and Mrs. Wallace and the little folks following the first of this. They will locate at a small place called Hermon, close to Los Angeles.

The Methodists ushered in the New Year together Saturday with a big dinner in Crater's hall which was followed by a pleasant afternoon of social intercourse. In connection with their annual roll call and business meeting the Baptists enjoyed a supper together in the evening.

L. S. Otis has been trying to get some of his place cleared up out beyond the old fish pond, and having had a lot of trouble keeping white men on the job, has let the contract at greatly reduced figures, it is reported, to a gang of Chinamen who are wielding the mattock in the slow but persevering manner as of yore in this section. It had been supposed that the grubbing days of the Celestial had passed hereabouts, but the difficulties which farmers have met in getting land cleared and the high rates they have had to pay, may yet call back the cheap and willing labor of the Chinaman.

On his way home from McCoy, near where he had been working, to make a visit, Edward W. Lindsay stopped at LaFayette Sunday evening, expecting to come on down to Newberg on the train Monday morning. After finishing his supper he pushed his chair back from the table and suddenly dropped dead from heart failure. A letter in his pocket revealed his identity and relatives here were communicated with who brought the remains to Newberg Monday. The funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning at the Brethren church by Elder G. C. Carl. The deceased leaves here a mother, Mrs. S. Lindsay, a daughter, Miss Alice, and sister, Mrs. Abe Cooke, for whom much sympathy is felt in their sudden bereavement.

Dr. H. D. Bowers and wife, the local osteopaths, visited in McMinnville Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilkins.

L. M. Grames who had been spending the holidays here with his family returned to his work in Portland Tuesday morning.

Friends of the bride and groom called upon Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hollingsworth New Year's eve and passed a pleasant social time.

J. E. Pressnall has been busily at work the last few days on a mammoth sign for the Spaulding Logging Company's store on First street.

Wm. Slater, the new Main street harness maker, has opened up for business and speaks to Graphic readers in the advertising columns.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott entertained a few young ladies last Thursday evening in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Mayne Elliott, of Illinois.

The Amity Advance tells of eleven potatoes grown in that vicinity weighing forty pounds in the aggregate. Save 'em for the 1905 fair exhibit.

Mrs. Leah Paulin, mother of Mrs. Eli Seese, arrived the first of the week from her home at Newton, Kansas, and will make an extended visit in Newberg.

A game of basket ball is scheduled for Friday night at the college gymnasium between the Dayton Prairie High School and the second team of Pacific College.

Lewis Reed of Corbett, a former student of Pacific College, visited here the first of the week with the Saunders boys. He suffered a stroke of paralysis some months ago but is almost well again.

Prof. and Mrs. C. W. Kantner, after an enjoyable holiday vacation spent at Salem and Dallas, returned Tuesday morning. The pupils of the music department are rallying to their work and the department is enjoying unprecedented success. Many who have been contemplating the study of music are taking up the work with excellent results.

Several Newberg people took a holiday Monday and went down to Portland to see the big Multnomah-Seattle football game. They saw a fierce contest and came home happy as the Portland men won with a score of 6 to 0, scoring one point more against their opponents than Seattle scored against them in the game of December 17th.

The ladies of the Lewis and Clark club and all others interested are earnestly requested to meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Odd Fellows' hall. Matters of great importance relative to preparations for the Centennial will be considered, in which all should be concerned. The honor of Newberg and the county is at stake. Let there be a good attendance.

As a result of ill health which he has been experiencing for a year past, H. C. Johnson of Chehalem Center has been suffering gradual mental derangement. On the advice of physicians he was taken to the asylum at Salem the first of the week where with proper care and treatment it is hoped and believed that both physical and mental powers will be restored.

The evangelistic meetings conducted by Rev. H. Wyse Jones at the Baptist church are progressing favorably. Large congregations are gathering each night and giving respectful attention to the earnest, forceful messages of the evangelist. Several have already professed conversion and others are seriously considering the question. The hours of meeting are 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Services on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. At 3 p. m. on Sunday a meeting especially for men will be held. The meetings will continue without interruption through next week. All invited. F. C. Standard, pastor.

W. E. Terrell and family went to Portland this morning for a few days' visit with relatives.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Friends church will be at the residence of C. J. Edwards next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies of the church are earnestly requested to be present.

The annual meeting of the Springbrook Canning Company was held Saturday afternoon when the following directors were elected for the coming year: W. M. Kincaid, J. H. Rees, J. I. Hadley, A. R. Mills, C. E. Newhouse, J. L. Hoskins and Albert Heater. The report of Manager Kincaid showed the affairs of the company to be in a very satisfactory condition with a promising outlook for future operations. During its first season's run the company put up about six thousand cases of various kinds of fruit, for which it paid $4040.81. Practically all this amount and $1959.20, which was paid for labor, went to the residents of the immediate community, which proves the canner to be an institution of great importance to the prosperity of the neighborhood.
