Local Events.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burlingame, January 5, a daughter.

Mrs. W. G. Allen of Eugene arrived Monday evening and is visiting Newberg relatives.

C. B. Wilson has been in the capital city this week in attendance at the legislature as a spectator.

Mrs. W. H. Whitten of Newport is visiting in Newberg with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. Brouillette.

The brilliant, clear winter weather of the past week was succeeded this morning by a little flurry of snow—the first of the season.

Mrs. Mary Baldwin is very low with lung trouble. Her brother, Dr. J. B. Moore, of Lents, was up to see her the latter part of last week.

A company of their former college mates drove out to Springbrook Monday night and serenaded Mr. and Mrs. John B. Weed, with whom they spent a pleasant social hour.

Brakeman Morris who runs through here on the freight train met with an accident Monday which will probably mean the loss of an arm. He was taken to the hospital in Portland on a special in the evening.

The W. C. T. U. is preparing a box to send to the Florence Crittenden Home, Portland. Any one having donations for the same will please leave them at the home of Mrs. Maria Bowerman before January 25. Anything useful in the home will be acceptable. Committee.

A. B. Parker, who has been here for some weeks, and Miss Nervia Wright left Tuesday morning for Spokane, Washington, the former's home, and on the following day were united in marriage. The bride, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright, is a talented and deserving young lady, who is worthy of all the happiness and good things in life which her many friends hope may be her portion.

Sympathizers with Rev. R. Pettyjohn in his troubles as recorded in last week's Graphic, passed a subscription paper around and raised money to pay his fine and costs. Mr. Pettyjohn hands in a card or letter of thanks, rather too extended for publication, the gist of which is that he appreciates a ten cent piece now more than he would a hundred dollar coffin for his body to moulder in. Here's hoping he may have both—each in its allotted time.

At the caucus of last Thursday night a motion was made that the meeting by vote should encourage the new city council to grade and improve First street. The difference of opinion thus called forth, causing a little whirlwind, created a laughable diversion, but at the same time plainly indicated to what extent the city council is up against it in trying at the same time to do its duty and please the people. As a matter of information, the motion, amended to include Main street, was passed.

Prof. R. W. Kirk received a telegram yesterday afternoon bringing the sad news of the death of his brother Arthur at 10:30 in the morning at Phoenix, Arizona, whither his parents had taken him last fall in the hopes that the southern clime would relieve his lung trouble from which he had long been suffering. It is particularly saddening to see an ambitious, admirable young man stricken down just as life's activities are opening up, and it is a great disappointment not only to his relatives but to the many friends who have watched his struggle for life, that the southern trip did not bring the benefit which was fondly hoped. The father, N. G. Kirk, has been ill with pneumonia, but the last word received indicated that he was improving.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lapp is ill with pneumonia.

Frank J. Deach made a business trip to Camas, Washington, last Saturday, returning the first of the week.

Mrs. Ruth Heston left yesterday for a four months' visit in Southern California with relatives. She has a sister living at Redlands and a brother at Long Beach.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the Free Methodist church January 20-22. Rev. W. N. Coffee will be present. All are cordially invited to attend. H. Bowman, pastor.

On the convening of the biennial session of the state legislature Monday, B. C. Miles received honorable recognition by being elected temporary chairman of the lower house.

Mrs. Jesse Cook went by boat to Salem Monday to see her sister, Mrs. Roger St. Helens, who was taken dangerously ill while visiting at the capital city with her married daughter.

The new residence of Charles Larkin which is nearing completion on the site of the old white schoolhouse north of the depot adds greatly to the appearance of that part of town.

Mr. Van Mead, an old time newspaper man who is now editing the Grants Pass Courier, visited in Newberg the latter part of last week. Mr. Mead's wife is a daughter of Mrs. P. M. Edwards and sister of Mrs. M. McDonald.

Miss Pearl Range, daughter of G. W. Range, was married at St. Paul on Monday of this week to Mr. Joseph Kricter. The young couple, after a days' visit in Newberg, left for Portland to spend their honeymoon. They will make their home at St. Paul.

T. W. Hester of Portland spent the first of the week in town with his sister, Mrs. Seth Mills, and family. Tom finishes the course in the state medical college in April and after a little skirmish with the state board of examiners hopes to write M. D. after his name.

Representative F. H. Caldwell, who went to Salem Saturday to begin his legislative duties, was called home Sunday by the dangerous illness, from bronchial pneumonia, of their baby son. It is thought that the little fellow is improving slowly but Mr. Caldwell does not know just when he will be able to return to Salem.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson departed yesterday to make an extended visit at Pasadena, California, where a son of hers resides. Douglas Taylor accompanies her as far as Ashland, where he will stop and see his sister, Mrs. J. R. McKillop, and husband. A little later he will go on to Southern California and visit at Long Beach with his grandparents, Rev. John Henry Douglas and wife.

Walter B. Hadley, a graduate of Pacific College, and later of Yale University, who is in the employ of the Government Forestry Bureau, is visiting at his home at Dayton. His work takes him all over the United States, he having been stationed in the pine forests of Maine and in the barren tracts of Southern California. He came down to Newberg yesterday for a visit with relatives and will leave next week for Washington, D. C.

At its regular meeting last week the county court appointed Robert W. Jones as county surveyor, H. L. Maloney not having qualified. The new officer, a graduate of Pacific College and a member of its faculty last year, is thoroughly qualified for his duties as surveyor, and his many Newberg friends are glad to see him honored with this position of responsibility. He is working in this vicinity this week and says he has two months' work piled up ahead of him.

Curtis Parker is visiting at La Grande with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill.

Mrs. C. C. Jacobs gave a birthday dinner on Wednesday, in honor of Mr. Hervey Hoskins.—Telephone Register.

Little Miss Berta Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kirk of Spokane, Washington, is visiting relatives in Newberg.

Hervey Hoskins is down from McMinnville attending the poultry show and visiting the home folks. Merle Nelson came down with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargent of Perrydale visited in town the first of the week with their daughter, Mrs. O. K. Edwards, and family.

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Bowers attended the annual meeting of the Oregon Osteopathic Association in Portland Saturday and report an interesting session.

Atkinson Bros. have this week installed a new machine known as the Pasteurizer in their creamery, the function of which is to put the cream through a process just before churning, which renders it absolutely free of all impurities. It is an important addition to their equipment.

According to present arrangements, the Mozart Symphony club of Brooklyn, New York, to which Newberg people have been looking forward with much expectation, will be the third attraction of the course of the Newberg Lyceum Association, appearing here January 31st.

The Pacific College second basketball team won an easy victory over the Dayton Prairie high school boys last Friday evening, the score standing 34 to 5. The Newberg players were Paul Maris, Roscoe Cahill, Cecil Hoskins, Walter Spaulding and Orville Johnson. The first team is scheduled to play Willamette University at Salem tomorrow evening.

Dr. E. J. McAllister of Portland, attorney of the Anti-Saloon League, will speak next Sunday at the Friends church at both morning and evening services, and at 3:30 in the afternoon will address a mass meeting in Crater's hall. He will give a lawyer's view of the great American issue. Bring your friends and learn the latest phase of this movement.
