Local Events.

A. T. Hill of La Grande visited Newberg relatives over Sunday.

Gord Worden is putting up a house for rental purposes just north of the depot.

Rev. and Mrs. Martin Cook returned home Wednesday evening from a week's visit in Portland.

Grand Master Mills and E. E. Sharon, grand secretary, will make the local Odd Fellows a fraternal visit this evening.

Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Kirk and E. H. Buchanan attended the teachers' institute in McMinnville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair and Mrs. N. C. Maris drove down to Middleton Friday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Craven.

Mrs. Milton Newlin went down to Portland Monday to attend for a few days the revival services which are being held in the Friends church.

Hervey Hoskins, who had been suffering from an attack of grip, came down from McMinnville Monday morning to spend a few days at home recuperating.

The college basket ball team went up to Monmouth last Friday evening and engaged the state normal boys in contest. The latter won the game by a score of 22 to 11.

Charlie Morris, in company with G. W. Baker, left Saturday night for his "home" out in Tillamook county. After a residence of two nights and a day on his homestead claim he returns to college.

Miss Belcher of La Fayette assisted the Rebekahs in installing the following officers Tuesday evening: Mrs. C. F. Moore, N. G.; Mrs. E. L. Evans, V. G.; Mrs. J. B. Mount, secretary; Mrs. M. McDonald, financial secretary; Mrs. Wm. Rich, treasurer.

On Thursday of last week in the parlors of the Hotel Yamhill at McMinnville, Miss Sophia Hibbs of this place was united in marriage to county commissioner R. L. Booth of Willamina, Judge B. F. Rhodes officiating. Bob knows in which end of the county the good housekeepers are found.

When on her way to the Friends church Sunday Morning Mrs. Wm. Stratton slipped and fell on the walk in front of the residence of Dr. E. A. Romig, breaking a bone above the wrist of her left arm. The break is not particularly serious and will cause her only a few weeks inconvenience.

Joseph Hall has just received a Buff Orpington cock which was selected by Mr. Downs, who was judge at the poultry show, for mating with his prize Orpington pullets. He is a fine bird and Mr. Hall is already figuring on the number of premiums he will receive at the next poultry show.

In their respective capacities of mayor of Newberg and president of the Newberg Board of Trade, Jesse and C. J. Edwards went to McMinnville Saturday and attended the executive committee meeting of the Yamhill County Board of Exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. The Board decided, and wisely the Graphic thinks, to put in the hands of J. C. Cooper the work of supervising and arranging the Yamhill display.

The festive sate cracker who has been going the rounds of the Oregon postoffices during the past year showed up at Sheridan a few nights ago, and had not the barking of a faithful dog in an adjoining room alarmed the burglar he would no doubt have accomplished the object of his visit. He had entered the building and had the preliminaries made for operations on the safe when "Towser" gave the alarm and fearing detection he made a hasty retreat. According to his usual custom he rode into town on a railroad bicycle.

John Glass, the owner of the Purdy hotel, was down from Dayton the first of the week.

H. E. Lounsbury was in town Wednesday looking after the interests of the Southern Pacific.

A. M. Hoskins was up town Tuesday after having been housed up for some time by sickness.

Notice change of date. The Mozart Symphony club next Monday night instead of Tuesday night. Crater's hall.

Frank Taylor left for Southern California Tuesday where he intends spending a month or more visiting with relatives and friends.

E. E. Fleishauer lost one of his fine black mares this week which will place figures amounting to nearly $300 on the wrong side of the balance sheet.

Richmond Lawer, a younger brother of H. C. Lawer, arrived here last week from Mapes, North Dakota. He has taken a place in the shop and will learn the harness makers trade.

To everybody interested in schools the invitation is extended to attend the school officers' meeting to be held at the public school next Saturday afternoon. The program is given elsewhere in this issue.

Prof. R. W. Kirk received a letter a few days ago announcing the death of his grandfather, Evan Shreve, at his home in Ohio. The deceased spent several months visiting here about three years ago.

Rev. John F. Hanson, a minister of the Friends church, will preach in the Friends church next Sunday, both morning and evening. In the evening he will present the Friends belief on the ordinance question. H. T. Cash.

J. L. Hoskins returned from Albany loaded down with silverware taken in as premiums on his chickens at the poultry show. He says it was the best poultry show he ever attended in Oregon and as for results he never came out of a show with more ribbons.

Miss Gertrude Lamb of Heppner, who, as the representative of Morrow county has been in Portland this week in the interests of that county's educational exhibit at the 1905 fair, is expected up here this evening to visit over night with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Wight.

Fred Hoover, of Portland, a man past fifty years of age, was the victim of a fatal accident which occurred on the J. D. Gordon farm near Dundee Tuesday. A tree which he was cutting, fell in a direction opposite to what was expected and striking the unfortunate man killed him instantly.

On next Thursday evening in the college chapel a public debate will be held among six college boys, the three winners of which will constitute the college team. The debaters are Cecil Hoskins, Ralph Rees, Ferris Strait, Walter Miles, Dollon Kenworthy and Lewis Saunders. All are invited to attend.

W. E. Purdy will retire from the hotel business next week and return to his farm on Chehalis Mountain, he having closed out the business to J. D. Carter of Baker City. Mr. Carter is well known here as he was in the merchandising business in Newberg for several years. Since the above was written it is claimed that the deal has not been fully consummated.

Claud Ferguson was on the streets Wednesday chained to a couple of promising looking fox hounds and on inquiry he stated that he was planning for a free for all fox hunt back in the Dundee hills Thursday morning. The canyons over toward La Fayette are said to be fairly alive with foxes, and the farmers say they are fattening on China pheasants. Several have already been killed but there are enough remaining to furnish sport for those who enjoy the music of bellowing fox hounds.

Alva P. Macy was down from Dayton Monday.

E. C. Ward left for a business trip to Douglas county Tuesday.

Mrs. Nettie Burlingame and little daughter have gone to Rainier for a visit with relatives.

A. E. Moore who was sick for two weeks after his arrival home from Chico, California, is out again.

E. S. Craven returned from Salem Wednesday where he went to look in on the law makers.

J. B. Parker left Wednesday morning for a short trip on the road in the interest of the handle factory.

Miss Leora V. Parker, of Portland, visited with her former schoolmate, Miss Clara Vanghan, Sunday.

Hon. B. C. Miles returned from Salem last Friday and was introduced to a new born son who appeared in his home at an early hour Thursday morning.

The star number of the Newberg Lyceum Association—the Mozart Symphony Club of New York. Monday night, January 30th, Crater's hall. Seats on sale at drug stores.

With the arrival of a new engine, which is expected to arrive from Ohio this week, Heacock & Sons will soon be ready to make the wheels go round in their new sash and door factory.

A. B. Cooper has sold his bakery, including the building, to a couple of Portland men who will continue the business. For the present Mr. Cooper is working for the Newberg Meat company.

Jo Woods returned from Salem Wednesday where he went to conduct Miss Myrtle Hagey, daughter of Drew Hagey, of Dundee, to the asylum for the insane. This is the second time she has been committed to this institution yet those who are familiar with the circumstances think such a course might have been avoided.

If you care to look at one of the best draft horses on the coast, you will find him at the Commercial stables during this week in care of W. L. Skipton, representing McLaughlin Bros. of Columbus, Ohio. Tarquin No. 40068 is a Percheron imported from France, coal black, four years old and valued at $4000. This is no doubt the animal that Richard III. had in mind when he exclaimed, "My kingdom for a horse!"

On Friday evening the local contest will be held in the Friends church, when it will be determined who shall represent Pacific College in the State Oratorical Contest which will be held in Newberg this year. On account of the contest being held here it falls to the lot of the local association to put up the money to pay all expenses, including the cost of the banquet, and it is hoped that the public will give them a good house at this their first public meeting.

Carl Nelson went home from his shop Tuesday evening long after the supper hour expecting to gnaw a cold bone and roll into bed, when to his surprise he found that his Sunday school class, remembering that it was his birthday anniversary, had taken charge of the dining room and loaded the table with good things even up to the scriptural measure. It is needless to say that he loosened the throatlatch and did his best to show his appreciation to the class for their kindness.

Date Changed.

The Mozart Symphony club of New York will appear in Newberg on Monday night, January 30th, in place of Tuesday night, January 31st, as previously announced, in Crater's hall. Seats on sale at both drug stores.
