Local Events.

W. F. Hazenburgh of Mt. Tabor was a Newberg visitor over Sunday.

Miss Ella Macy, who is teaching school near Middleton, spent Sunday in Newberg.

morning, to join his father at Wolseley, Assiniboia, Canada.

Mrs. Rebecca Marr was the recipient recently of a fine box of oranges sent by her sister, Mrs.
E. W. Pierson, from Redlands, California.

Mrs. G. W. Cutts entertained delightfully about twenty of her friends at afternoon tea Friday, all present enjoying a very pleasant social hour.

Prof. C. T. Whittlesey, a member of the Dallas College faculty, was down Saturday looking after his orchard in the Springbrook neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crumley, whose arrival from Colorado was mentioned last week, have rented rooms over the Bank of Newberg as a temporary residence.

Mrs. Catharine Fairstone, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Julia, came up from the city Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her brother, A. R.
Moomaw and family.

Wm. Wilson writes from San Diego, California, that they watch for the Graphic as for a letter from home. He encloses a neat card showing that he is proprietor of The Tremont, a rooming house centrally located on Third street.

Mrs. Myrtle Hemphill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Skelton of this place, accompanied by her little girl, left last Friday morning for Pendleton, where on the following evening she was united in marriage with Mr. Stephen Doane.

Miss Hazel Perkins who has been working in Portland came home sick last week and was dangerously ill for several days, the eldest sister Miss Cora, being sent for from Washington.
Miss Olive went down to Portland Monday to take her sister's place.

Fred Clemmens, who holds down a good position as agent for the Columbia river boats at Lyle, Washington, had a layoff last week by reason of the river freezing over, and spent a few days in Newberg with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clemmens.

Arrangements have been made with Ernest Hofer for delivering the children out west of town to and from school, delivery to begin as soon as the directors make purchase of a hack for the purpose. Mr. Hofer is to receive $1.75 per day for his services, he to furnish his own team.

The pupils of the Newberg public school will give public entertainments in Crater's hall on Friday and Saturday evenings of next week, the programs of which promise to be varied and interesting. A general admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged, children ten cents.

Mr. Clarence Edwards was very unceremoniously reminded of his birthday anniversary last Friday night, Mrs. Edwards having invited a few of their friends to the home of his brother Oran, when the latter in-veigled him into coming in to talk business for a while. On arriving and being ushered into the presence of the guests, Mr.
Edwards evidently felt quite unbusinesslike, but soon regained his composure and welcomed his friends in a most cordial manner. A pleasant evening was passed socially and at playing games. Refreshments were served and the company dispersed wishing their host many returns of the day.

A patient and expectant audience was disappointed at the city hall Saturday forenoon when, after considerable delay, Attorney Clarence Butt, on behalf of the city, moved to dismiss the case against A. T. Mc-Nay and A. A. Clayson who were charged with abusing and misusing one of their horses.
Mr. Butt held that the evidence was insufficient to show more than the mere fact that the horse was not fit for work on the streets, and on the advice of the judiciary committee, he concluded it was not best to put the city to the expense of prosecution. John Bristow, who had preferred the charge, expressed very forcibly the conviction that to work such an animal was a disgrace to the city and was evidently disgusted with the turn events had taken. Irrespective of the merits of this particular case, it is never a discredit to champion the cause of the dumb animal.

Jesse Hobson came up from Portland Saturday evening and visited relatives over Sunday.

Albert Wilson, who is in the jewelry business in St. Johns, visited in Newberg over Sunday.

Levi Welty, a former resident of this vicinity, came over from Hubbard on business the first of the week.

Miss Hazel Crozer of Rosedale is visiting here with her sister, Miss Verda, at the home of President and Mrs. McGrew.

Eli Seese, who has been in poor health for some time from kidney trouble, has been seriously ill for several days.

Wm. Carter of West Chehalis made a flying trip to Eastern Oregon last week. He contemplates locating in that part of the state.

Mrs. Vina Yergen's public sale of household effects will take place Monday afternoon, preparatory to her departure for California.

Revival meetings will begin at the Brethren church March 19th, conducted by Elder J. H. Graybill, of Nampa, Idaho. G. C.
Carl, Pastor.

The physics class of the college made a thorough inspection of Newberg's completely equipped and up-to-date ice manufactory Tuesday afternoon.

N. C. Maris, who has been spending several months in Eastern Washington and Idaho in the interests of the Rural Spirit, arrived home Saturday evening for a short visit.

Chehalis Council, Order of Pendo, gave a social function in Masonic hall Tuesday evening, at which a program was given and refreshments served. The head organizer was present and addressed the order.

E. M. Hodson has sold his home place in East Newberg to Mrs. Mary Jane Everest. For some time he has had his eyes turned toward Oklahoma for which state he and his family will leave ere many days.

An elegant lithograph put up in the postoffice a few days ago, presenting a birds-eye view of the Lewis and Clark Centennial, has attracted a good deal of attention and interest. It gives a good idea of the buildings, grounds, geographical setting, and general scope of the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Osborn, Mrs. S. L. Hanson, Mrs. Mote, Mrs. Calva Martin, Miss Myrtle Newby, Miss Ella Mills, President McGrew, Mr. Harvey Crumley, M. P. Elliott, Walter Miles and Earl Kenworthy went from this vicinity to Salem last Friday to attend Friends quarterly meeting, returning Monday.

Albert M. Hadley who left Newberg nine years ago, and who is now in Portland, came up Saturday evening and visited Hoosier friends until the middle of the week. Though he found Newberg practically another town than the one he knew, yet he declares it is more like home to him than any other place.

The big meeting of the Woodmen which was to have taken place in Portland this week has been postponed until the latter part of March on account of the death of F. A. Falkenberg, one of the founders of Woodcraft.
This means another month of practice for the Newberg team in which to prepare for that big competitive drill.

"A dog poisoning fiend is at large," bemoans the Independence Enterprise, "and some of the most valuable dogs in town are falling victims to his inexplicable designs." Catch the fiend and send him down to Newberg where our "most valuable" dogs are mostly curs.
At least there are very few canines in town upon which tax is paid and non-taxpaying dogs should be considered as fit subjects for translation. A few of the latter have lately fallen a prey to the "inexplicable design" of members of the science department of the college.

The school directors at a meeting last night determined upon plans for Newberg's new and remodeled school building, accepting those presented by Architect W. D. Pugh of Salem. According to these plans eight rooms will be added to the building as it now stands, four on the east and four on the west, the new additions to project on the north and south beyond the old building. The structure will be intersected throughout both above and below by adequate hall-ways, and will have an entrance or front on each side. The board will not find it necessary to finish up more than four of the new rooms for next year. The plans look well on paper and indicate that Newberg is to have a school building which will do her credit.

Miss Nora Davis of Jefferson is visiting Newberg relatives in the persons of the family of A. H.
PHELPS.

The rural mail carriers enjoyed a deserved holiday Wednesday, for which they are duly grateful to the Father of his Country.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keeney's little daughter, who was operated on for appendicitis in Portland last week, stood the ordeal well and it is thought will get along nicely.

There being no school yesterday, Miss Etta McCoy gave the pupils of her room a holiday in fact as well as in name, taking them to the river and canyons south of town for a jolly picnic.

City Recorder W. W. Nelson went down to the city the first of the week where he was fitted out with an artificial foot.
After a little time he will be able to get around very much as of yore.

Contractor Crantford is putting up a five room cottage for Riley Smith on the latter's lots west of the Baptist church. He predicts a great deal of building activity for Newberg the coming season.

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Hinshaw drove down from Marion the first of the week for a few days' visit with their daughter, Mrs.
S. L. Hanson. From here they go to Hillsboro to visit their son and his family.

A company of her little friends assisted five year old Miss Dorothy Hodson in celebrating hers and George Washington's birthdays yesterday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hodson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bales arrived home yesterday from their trip to California. On arriving at Hollister they found their daughter in a very critical state but had the satisfaction before leaving of seeing her on the road to recovery.

Wesley Hollingsworth's son Eliza writes that he is firing on a railroad engine down in old Mexico, and while he has not been in that country long enough to express an opinion respecting conditions he is satisfied with his salary which is $180 a month.

Last Saturday evening, young people to the number of twenty six gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dix of West Chehalis. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games, after which all were served with oyster soup. The guests departed feeling that they had been highly entertained.

The Womens' Relief Corps gave a Martha Washington supper at Crater's hall Wednesday evening which received liberal patronage and furnished a very pleasant evening's entertainment. The ladies wore white caps and aprons and Wm. Clemmens and Mrs. Vina Yergen played the role of George and Martha Washington, respectively.

Mrs. Jesse Edwards conducted on Tuesday the funeral of Mrs.
John Parrott, near Butteville, who died of pneumonia Sunday morning. The deceased, aged seventeen years, was formerly Miss Pearl St. Clair and was married two months ago. She was a popular young lady who will be greatly missed not only by her immediate relatives but also by a wide circle of friends.

J. B. Wirt of Lebanon is in this vicinity this week representing the Pacific Nursery Company of Tangent, Linn county. He is especially interested in French walnut culture, and has trees of his own raising for sale. He says the contribution of J. H.
Rees on the subject as published in last week's Graphic is sound and worthy of attention. Mr.
Wirt has with him samples of walnuts from his trees which certainly cannot be beat anywhere.

Prompt work on the part of the city fire department prevented Crater's hall and Porter & Larkin's general merchandise stock from going up in flames at about three thirty o'clock Tuesday morning. The sound of crackling flames aroused Maynard Redmond, who sleeps in the bank building across the street, and on looking out saw the flames going up the east side of the building near the stairway. He shouted the alarm and ran down the street to the city hall and rang the fire bell which soon brought rescue. But none too soon for the fire was rapidly gaining headway, had burned through the wall and would soon have reached the on-tanks in the rear of the storeroom. The origin of the fire was found in a box of fresh ashes which had been thoughtlessly set outside too near the side of the building.
