Local Events.

Ola Martin is putting up a cottage for C. R. Williams on Center street west of the M. Terrell property.

Rev. Elwood Knight and daughter, Miss Sarah, went to Salem Saturday to see the elder daughter of the family who is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

The state prohibition oratorical contest, in which six colleges take part, will be held in McMinnville on Friday evening of this week. Lewis Saunders will represent Pacific College.

Prof. and Mrs. H. N. Wright took a trip up the Columbia the first of the week to view the scenic grandeur of Oregon's great waterway before leaving for California.

F. H. Caldwell went down to Portland Tuesday and on the following day left with the big delegation of Woodmen for Southern California on a trip of pleasure and recreation.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson and son, Jo, returned home Tuesday morning from a visit at McMinnville, where she had been helping her father, Rev. Jos. Hoberg, celebrate his birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dubre arrived from Montana Monday and are visiting the Mills families in this vicinity. Mrs. Dubre and Mrs. Henry Mills being sisters. They intend to locate somewhere in the valley.

The funeral services of John Farr, held Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church, were largely attended, many not being able to get into the church. The sermon was preached by Rev. T. Brouillette.

Geo. Sykes arrived home Monday evening from his trip to Michigan. He says many lumbermen and timber dealers of the Wolverine state are looking toward Oregon as the scene of future operations.

R. J. Cooper, who has been working for a few weeks on the government buildings at the Lewis and Clark fair, came up home Monday evening to get ready for the California trip upon which he started yesterday.

Prof. C. W. Kantner went to Salem last week and on Sunday took part in the services attending the dedication of the fifteen thousand dollar Congregational church of which his father, Rev. W. C. Kantner, is pastor. The dedicatory hymn and one of the anthems sung by the choir were composed for the occasion by Prof. Kantner.

A debate between the McMinnville and Newberg public schools has been arranged to take place in two weeks. The question to be discussed reads:

"Resolved, that the cabinet system of the British Government is superior to that of the United States." The Newberg students will hold a tryout to tomorrow evening when the team will be chosen.

T. H. Gardner was the victim of an accident at the sawmill Saturday afternoon. He was standing at the head of the long incline up which a log was being drawn. As the big piece of timber reached the top it rolled over against Mr. Gardner, knocking him off the flooring to the ground, several feet below. He fell on his head and shoulders, bruising him up so severely as to render him unconscious for some time, and breaking both bones of one wrist.

The revival services which had been in progress at the Friends church under the leadership of Evangelist Chas. F. Weigle, closed with a memorable meeting Tuesday night, when even the aisles and gallery stairs were packed with people. Rev. Weigle has had unusual success here and the church has been greatly strengthened by his work. A large company of young people were at the train yesterday morning to bid Rev. and Mrs. Weigle farewell as they left for the East.

Mrs. W. B. Sims of Portland visited in town with Mr. Sims the fore part of the week.

The Methodists are bringing up the rear with a series of revival services which began last evening.

The families of Levi Lewis and Seth Mills are riding about in new rolling stock in the way of brand new carriages.

The public school and town boys have been playing some interesting baseball games the past week, honors being about even.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Board of Trade will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Butt, Saturday at 2:30 p. m. A large attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hall, Mrs. Clarence Butt and Herman Smith went down to Portland yesterday to attend the funeral of Charlie Fogg.

John Boyes, brother of Wesley Boyes, whom he had not seen for years, arrived with his family Monday from North Dakota. He is well pleased with what he sees here and thinks of locating.

Eli Seese, who underwent a surgical operation at the hospital in Portland the first of last week is still very low, though some hopes for his recovery are entertained.

Lewis Youells, son of Mrs. B. R. Bass, started back to his old Minnesota home Monday, where he will remain for the summer at least. He was accompanied by his little daughter.

Charlie Fogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fogg of Mt. Tabor, former well known residents of this place, died Saturday morning after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. The deceased, who held a civil service position in the Portland post office, was an exemplary young man—one whose loss will be felt by all with whom he came in contact.

Roy Hoard went to work Friday noon at the new sash and door factory and within an hour or two, when working at the rip saw, brought his hand in contact with the saw and lost his little finger, the other three fingers being also severely cut. Though warned by his employers to be careful, the work was new to him, and he relaxed his vigilance.

A school meeting is called to take place next Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse at three o'clock. It is called for the purpose of authorizing the directors to proceed with the proposed additions and improvements on the building to the amount of ten thousand dollars, and to authorize them to issue interest bearing warrants for the stated amount.

Prof. and Mrs. G. N. Hartley of Indiana, arrived here Friday after an absence of thirteen years, and are visiting with the latter's niece, Mrs. J. C. Hodson and family, at the picturesque home they themselves made while residents of this community. They were both instructors in the Friends Pacific Academy at that time, and thus engaged, wielded such an influence for good in the neighborhood, especially with the young people, as few have done, and which is signified in the hearty welcome with which they have been received again. For the past several years they have had charge of the Indian work in Oklahoma under the supervision of the Friends church, but have given it up with the desire to go back to their old home at Fountain City, which they have owned for thirty years and occupied but seven of which. Last year they made a trip to Palestine which they enjoyed in the extreme, and they have prepared an interesting and instructive illustrated lecture upon the Holy Land, which they have been giving since their return. The lecture will be given here before the departure of Prof. and Mrs. Hartley, and is awaited with much pleasurable anticipation.
