Local Events.

The deal spoken of last week relative to the sale of the Purdy hotel fell through, and Landlord Olds is still at the helm.

Miss C. McCorker, state Y. W. C. A. secretary, has been spending a part of the week here with the girls of the college association.

The Misses Lucy Gause, Bertha Nicholson and Sibyl and Bernice Woodward were in Portland Friday and Saturday attending the Chapman meetings.

Miss M. E. McDowell left Friday morning for Southern California to take charge of her two orange orchards for which she traded her farm northwest of Newberg.

Street Commissioner Wm. Clemmens announces that property owners who owe the city for street grading recently done may call at the office of Recorder W. W. Nelson and pay their assessments.

Elmer Hollingsworth is the last unfortunate man to suffer injuries at the sawmill. On Monday forenoon he tried to stay the progress of a descending piece of timber with a peavie, the result being a broken arm and some bad scratches and bruises. A strange fatality seems to be pursuing the hands at the big new mill, he being said to be the sixth victim of accidents, one of which resulted in death.

A lady who had traveled much was on what was evidently her first trip over the Yamhill division of the S. P. Saturday evening. On arriving in sight of Newberg she began to sit up and take notice, exclaiming that it must be a very progressive place judging from the clean appearance of the freshly painted houses. Newberg has been using lots of paint in the last few years and finds it a good advertiser.

A reception was tendered Prof. and Mrs. G. N. Hartley by Mrs. J. C. Hodson at her home yesterday afternoon.

A. P. Oliver is putting up a store room between the telephone office and A. M. Hoskins' shop which is to be occupied by J. E. Pressnall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Scotts Mills came down to Newberg last week to attend the revival meetings at the Friends church and visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Vantress.

The Mutual telephone company has ordered a new two hundred and fifty dollar double switchboard, with a capacity of one hundred and sixty lines or about eight hundred phones.

Mrs. L. D. Barr and daughters arrived Friday evening from Los Angeles. They will probably remain here through the summer until the Friends church parsonage in Los Angeles is ready for their occupancy, they having sold their home.

Mrs. A. H. Phelps and children left last evening for Airle, and go from thence south into Benton county, where they will spend the summer on their claim with Mr. Phelps, who is engaged near by in the camp of the Spaulding Logging Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Terrell and Robert J. Cooper went down to Portland yesterday morning and left in the evening with the Woodmen excursionists to attend the big W. O. W. meeting in Los Angeles, to which Mrs. Terrell and Mr. Cooper are delegates. The party will make stops on the way at Oakland and Santa Cruz.

In Sunday's Oregonian there appeared an article headed, "Consolidation of rural schools—an object lesson of interest to every section of Oregon." There followed an account of the action taken toward district consolidation at Newberg, and a contribution by County Superintendent Alderman in which he explains and advocates the new system and praises the people of this place for the progressive step taken. Accompanying the writeup is a picture showing the harkload of children ready to start home at the close of the day's work in school, the directors, Principal Kirk and W. H. Hubbard being shown in the group.

In the published story of the life of F. J. Heney, who has won national fame in the prosecution of the Oregon land frauds, Henry McGuire says he has found trace of a man of whom he had known nothing for eighteen years—Dr. J. C. Handy, who was shot and killed by Heney on the streets of Tucson, Arizona, about sixteen years ago. Henry says that as a teamster in that state in the early days, he knew Dr. Handy well, and new him as a dangerous man.

E. A. Soper made his third real estate deal the first of the week when he traded the Porter Skinner place, including house furnishings and everything, to Geo. E. Weber of Ashland, for residence property in the Southern Oregon town. The change of ownership will be made soon. Mr. Weber remarks that away down in Ashland they are using a great deal of Newberg pressed brick in the erection of business blocks, while here in Newberg, where the material is manufactured, wooden business buildings are going up. He has indicated that he might become interested in erecting a brick building here.—Later. It is hard to keep up with Mr. Soper. It is learned that the above deal is off and that the Skinner place has been sold to Dr. Lyman of Portland who owns property adjoining on the side of the mountain.

Won a Name of Fame.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, gripe or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co.

"What does young Shortleigh do for a livelihood?" asked the pretty girl.
"His friends, mostly," answered her brother, who knew whereof he spoke.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.
"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be produced for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

Sentimental He—My dear, you actually look sweet enough to eat.
Practical She—Of course; and that's just what I do three or four times daily.

About Rheumatism.
There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

The Lady—Now that I have given you a dinner, are you equal to the task of sawing some wood?
The Hobo—Equal is not the proper word, madam; I'm superior to it.

"I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as one of the very best remedies for bowel troubles," says Mr. J. W. Hanlon, editor of the Despatch, Ocala, Georgia. "I make this statement after having used the medicine in my family for several years. I am never without it." No family can afford to be without a bottle of this remedy in the house. It is certain to be needed sooner or later. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.
Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Shullsburg, Wisconsin, writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.
