B. F. Terry will go to Salem the fore part of the week and bring home their seven year old son, who has been attending the school for the deaf and dumb. The boy will spend the summer vacation of three and a half months at home.

Prof. Oliver Mendenhall, a member of the faculty of Wilmington College, Ohio, who was recently called west by the serious illness of his mother, who is visiting in the Champoeg neighborhood, came across the river to Newberg Monday for a short visit with the family of President McGrew.

The seven cent social to be given by the Ladies' Auxiliary will take place to-morrow evening at Crater's hall. Admission seven cents, all over seventy and under seven years of age admitted free, also every seventh person. Ice cream seven cents, coffee and sandwich seven cents, everything seven cents. A good musical program has been prepared.

It has been decided to hold the thirteenth annual reunion of the Yamhill county Pioneer Association at Sheridan on Wednesday, June 7. The annual address will be delivered by Senator R. A. Booth of Eugene, while the early history of the county will be recounted by Geo. H. Himes of Portland. Several Yamhill county pioneers will appear on the program, among them being Hon. J. C. Nelson of this place.

Business is unusually good in Portland with the florists this season and W. B. Sims is a busy man these days in doing his share to supply the demand for Oregon's beautiful flowers. He has been shipping a thousand carnations per week to the city and none finer go to market, some of them being four feet high. The season is now opening for sweet peas. Mr. Sims is just now preparing to set out 15,000 asters.

A sound emanated from the electric light plant Monday evening which almost led suspicious ones to fear that the lid had been lifted a little from the noisome pit, but it was soon learned that Newberg's new fire whistle, purchased by public subscription, was being tried. There is no discount on the startling quality of the whistle, but the firemen consider that it is scarcely up to the desired mark in quantity and will exchange it for another.

Fred Barrell and Charlie Hubbard returned the first of the week from a fishing trip to Meadow Lake.

Mrs. F. H. Buchanan, who is afflicted with a severe abscess in the ear, is out of the public school this week, her place being taken by Mrs. R. W. Kirk.

Elwood Minchin of Dundee, who represented Whittier College in the prohibition oratorical contest of the inter-collegiate league of Southern California on May 9th was awarded second honors, giving the winner a close race.

J. T. Boothby has bills out advertising a public sale of his household effects and personal property, to be held at his place northeast of town on the afternoon of May 27. He will move his family from Newberg, and though he has not decided on a definite location, will probably go back to Eastern Oregon.

Paul Maris discontinued college work this week and left yesterday morning for Spokane, Washington, near where he has a good position on a fine stock ranch. He will assist in putting a herd of Short Horns in condition for the big stock show at the Lewis and Clark fair, which will come off in September.

Local officers of the Circle were elected Monday night as follows: Mrs. W. O. Robertson, Guardian Neighbor; Mrs. Josie Bradley, advisor; Mrs. Ernest Heater, magician; Miss Amy Heater, attendant; Miss Lulu Ryan, inside sentinel; D. J. Gilbert, outside sentinel; Mrs. T. B. Cummings and Mrs. F. H. Caldwell, managers.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Pedgett of Detroit, Michigan, visited here over Sunday with relatives. Mrs. Pedgett being a niece of Mrs. S. A. Lindsay. He is a conductor on a Michigan road, and with his wife, has been attending the national meeting of conductors in Portland. He is so highly pleased with Oregon that he declares they would not return, had their children accompanied them.

The public school directors met Monday night and opened the bids which had been offered for the erection of the new school building, four being presented. Of them, two was made by Salem contractors and the other two by M. J. Jones and W. M. Crantford of Newberg. The bids ranged from $9819 to $15,577, the lowest being that by Mr. Crantford and the next, of about $12,000 by Mr. Jones. While the Board took no formal action Monday night it is the intention of the directors to close a contract with Mr. Crantford.

The children of the widow of Jim Robinson were taken to Portland Saturday and placed in the children's home where they will receive proper care and training. It is understood that Mrs. Robinson will make her home with her mother near Laurel.

It will be of interest to many here to know that Prof. Thomas Newlin, former president of Pacific College, who has been spending the year in study at Chicago University, has secured from Dr. Pearson, the Chicago philanthropist, a gift of $25,000 for Guilford College, North Carolina, of which he is dean.

Zimri Mendenhall, aged about seventy years, who lived across the river in the Champoeg neighborhood, and who was known by many here, died after a short illness last Friday, of pneumonia. Rev. Martin Cook went over Sunday and conducted the funeral services which were held in the Union church near Yergen's. The services were largely attended.

Roe Robinson of Dundee who figures that he has the prize laying poultry of the country, reports that his "famous four" White Plymouth Rock hens, of which mention was made in these columns some weeks ago, have laid four hundred eggs since January first. A hen that will lay 100 eggs in four and a half months is crowding the old golden egg goose.

A quiet wedding took place in the Springbrook neighborhood Wednesday at noon, when at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heater, Miss Clara Heater was married to Mr. Melvin David, Rev. H. T. Cash officiating. Following the wedding dinner the couple left promptly for Portland where Mr. David is looking after the business interests of the Romeda Dairy, of which he and his brother Roy are proprietors. Not so promptly, however, but what a company of young people of the neighborhood had time to "catch on" and give them an informal call, expressing by means of rice, old shoes, etc., their best wishes for their newly married friends.
