Local Events.

H. S. Britt was up from the city visiting at home Sunday.

G. W. Turkle is a late arrival from Hutchinson, Kansas, who is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. Ernest Hill.

Thomas Miles, who purchased the Ervin Scott place northeast of town, is beginning preparations for the erection of a new house.

President H. E. McGrew got home Friday evening from his trip to New York and Philadelphia, which was taken in the interests of Pacific College.

Rev. H. T. Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mills and the Misses Mabel Newby and Verda Crozer attended Friends quarterly meeting at Rosedale, Saturday and Sunday.

M. G. McKern and family came from Holdman, Eastern Oregon, the first of the week for a visit with relatives and will remain until after the opening of the fair.

Sam Moore, brother of J. W. Moore and Mrs. J. W. Douglas, arrived with his family Saturday evening from Sutton, Nebraska, with the expectation of locating.

M. J. Hampton and daughter, Mrs. Al Clark, came up from Clackamas county last Thursday and visited with relatives and friends until Monday. Mr. Hampton returned recently from a visit in Iowa.

Mrs. J. C. Porter received a telegram Monday announcing the death in Alaska of her brother, Elmer Smith, who received injuries recently by the caving in of a mine in which he was working near Dawson.

Cold raw weather and a number of other things coming at the same time cut down the attendance at the seven cent social at the hall Thursday evening, but the ladies cleared a nice little sum to be used in helping on with the fair.

Harvey Saunders returned to school from his home at Troutdale Tuesday evening, Lewis to come the last of the week. Their sister, Myrtle, aged twenty-one years, after an illness of but three days died of pneumonia on Monday of last week a few hours before the arrival of her brothers.

Arthur H. Jessup, youngest brother of Mrs. N. L. Wiley of Rex, and who will be remembered as a former student of Pacific College, was graduated last Thursday evening from the dental department of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, he being valedictorian of his class. He will probably locate at Whittier.

Wednesday evening of next week will mark the close of the year's work for the public school children, while the public graduating exercises will take place in Crater's hall on Thursday evening, June the first. It was not expected that school would close before Friday evening but the multiplicity of holidays clustered about this date has made an earlier closing expedient.

On Thursday evening of last week a number of the neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mayor Jesse Edwards to remind them that it was the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding which was solemnized at Plainfield, Indiana. A well preserved picture of the bride and groom and attendants, which was taken on the afternoon of the wedding, was shown to the visitors which elicited much interest. The host and hostess faced the company and repeated the marriage vow according to the ceremony used by the Friends church and the certificate was read by Prof. F. K. Jones. Twenty-five years of the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have been spent in Oregon and while their thoughts revert to the days of long ago on these anniversary occasions they are loyal Oregonians.

J. C. Duncan came home last week from a visit with relatives at Warren, Columbia county.

Miss Waterhouse of Gearhart visited in Newberg the latter part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. R. Richards.

The special edition of the Graphic, for which preparations are being made, will require over a ton of paper.

Chas. K. Flinn, the insurance man, has changed the scene of his operations from Newberg to Portland to which city he expects to move his family soon.

The Civic Club meets Saturday, May 27th at the home of Mrs. G. W. Mitchell. Delegates will be elected at this meeting to attend the National Convention to be held at Portland in June.

J. D. Gordon is building a barn on his place southwest of Dundee which when completed will be the largest in this part of the country. Its dimensions are to be 100x110 feet.

E. Dorn of Los Angeles, California, who is establishing an office of the Conservative Life Insurance Company in Portland, visited in Newberg over Sunday with his father, A. Dorn.

F. H. Buchanan, who has purchased the slightly lot between the Nicholson home and the old fruit dryer, at the west end of the long bridge, is arranging to erect thereon a cottage this summer.

Dr. Lyman, of Portland, who recently purchased the Porter Skinner place in the Springbrook neighborhood, has sold his cottage adjoining to Mrs. F. E. Hobson, who with her children is occupying the same.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Edwards entertained very pleasantly the members of the choir of the Friends church at their home Friday evening. Music was very properly a pleasing feature of the evening's enjoyment.

On Wednesday evening of last week Roy Grafe and sister, Miss Hattie, attended at Woodburn the marriage of Miss Inez Wampole to A. P. Mishler. Miss Grafe acted as bridesmaid, a brother of the bride being groomsmen.

Clint Newhouse, who has been working for some months in Northern California with a railroad construction crew, arrived home last week. His sister, Miss Belle, came up with him from Portland and visited until the first of the week.

Newberg is in for more holidays than Sundays just at present, with the big W. O. W. picnic to-morrow, Decoration Day exercises on Tuesday, the opening of the Lewis and Clark Centennial on Thursday, and with Newberg day at the fair on the following Monday.

The third biennial convention of the Christian Endeavor Union for the West Willamette District, comprising Polk, Yamhill and Washington counties, is being held at Dallas to-day and to-morrow. Mrs. G. W. Cutts of this place is on the program for a paper on Junior work.

C. E. Soper, who has invested in the upholstering business in Spokane, Washington, but who is himself employed in a railroad office of that city, came down on a business trip last week. He says his brother-in-law, F. C. Jackson, is erecting a two thousand dollar residence there.

Arrangements are being made for the proper observance of Memorial Day in Newberg, the public exercises to be held Tuesday afternoon in Crater's hall, when an appropriate program will be rendered. The address of the day will be delivered by President H. E. McGrew, while the musical part of the program will be in charge of Prof. C. W. Kantner. Music will be furnished by the W. O. W. band. Following the exercises in the hall the line of march will be taken up to the cemetery where with fitting ceremony the graves will be decorated. W. S. Mills will act as grand marshal.

Born, on Monday evening, May 22, to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hanson on River Street, a son.

The meeting of the College Teachers' Association announced last week was postponed until to-morrow evening.

A. B. Cooper left Friday for their new home in Portland, Mrs. Cooper and daughter, Vera, to follow after the close of school.

Advertisers will please take note that the Graphic will go to press on Wednesday next week in deference to the memory of Lewis and Clark.

Terrell Steddom and family of Iowa, who visited here with the Terrells a couple of years ago, arrived in Newberg again last night.

The college athletic team will probably meet the Willamette University in a dual track and field meet at Salem on Memorial day.

It will be Catholics versus Protestants on the college campus Saturday afternoon when a track and field meet will be held between the athletes of Columbia University of Portland and of Pacific College. Pacific University defeated Columbia 85 to 37 and defeated Newberg 73 to 35. This indicates a close contest for Saturday.

W. M. Crantford and his Portland partners, who put in the lowest bid for the construction of the new public school building, have so far refused to sign up the contract, on the ground that they misinterpreted some of the specifications. There are two or three days left in which to sign, after which the directors will in all probability advertise anew for bids.

If you care to see a well kept fruit and berry ranch where everything seems to respond to the touch of the intelligent horticulturist call at the home of Joseph Hall one half mile east of town. It will not be out of the way to remark also that the Buff Orpington breeders will need to put up some fine birds at the next poultry show if they don't want to be laid in the shade by Mr. Hall.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn and daughter, Miss Gertrude, came down last week from Metlakatla, Alaska, where they have been spending the year at Wm. Duncan's well known Indian mission, the former as physician and the latter as teacher in the school. The doctor will leave for Newport the first of the week to take charge of his sanitarium for the summer, and will be followed by the ladies at the close of the college year.

Dr. H. C. Dixon, who had been spending a few days in this vicinity, started back to Grants Pass Tuesday morning, taking with him his mother, Mrs. Mary Dixon, for a visit. They took the train from Portland in the evening, and when near Eugene Mrs. Dixon, who has been in poor health for some time, died suddenly of heart trouble. The remains will be brought to Newberg for burial, arriving here this evening. The funeral services will probably take place to-morrow.

We Greet You.

At the Hardman Building, south-west corner Main and First streets. A new firm with a new line of new goods and located in the beautiful little city of Newberg. We are not here expecting or wanting all the trade in our line. Neither do we want the Earth—but a fair share of the patronage of the community, enough, at least, to justify us in the belief that we made no mistake when we concluded to cast our lot among the people of this place.

Our stock consists of Crockery, Glassware, China and Kitchen Novelties and Lamps.

Also a fine and complete line of SPECIAL brands of TEAS, COFFEES, SPICES, BAKING POWDER and EXTRACTS of high grade.
