Vernon McConnell, of Baker City, spent Sunday in town calling on a number of young people who were "kids" with him a few years ago when the family resided in Newberg. He has a job for the summer with a Baker City man who will operate a merry-go-round at the fair grounds.

Mrs. Sam Gardner and daughter, Bell, of Portland, spent Sunday in town visiting with relatives. The latter who spent the winter at the Friends Indian Mission on Kaak Island, Alaska, gave a talk at the Friends Sunday School which was much appreciated by old as well as young.

Of course you will want to see the Queen Esther Cantata and while you may be quite familiar with the book of Esther it will pay you to read it over again, as it will add much to the pleasure of the evening's entertainment to be able to follow the parts as they are presented.

In a recent issue of the Seattle Times an extended account is given of the boys' Y. M. C. A. work of that city of which Carrol E. Kirk is superintendent, he having been recently chosen for that important position. Prof. R. W. Kirk says that his brother, Carrol, will bring fifty of his boys on a bicycle outing trip to Portland this summer to attend the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

Last Friday evening about thirty friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamnett Sr. to help entertain their daughter, Mrs. Ada Worden of Troutdale, also to celebrate the worthy hostess' sixty-third birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent with singing, instrumental music and in an informal social time, after which refreshments were served. All left wishing Mrs. Hamnett many happy returns.

The Heppner Gazette gives an extended account of the close of the public schools of Heppner in which favorable mention is made of the work of Miss Gertrude Lamb, of Newberg, who has been one of the teachers in the school for the past two years. During the present year she has held the responsible position of chairman of the Morrow county educational exhibit committee and the display made at the fair by that county is said to be excellent.

A belated report comes in of a pleasant lawn party given at the home of J. W. Moore out north of town by the Chehalem Center young people on Saturday evening of last week, the affair being given for the Moore boys. A large company was present, and married people and youngsters enjoyed a good time together. Cake and strawberries were the refreshments served.

Uncle John and Aunt Mary Hash joined the crowd Monday and attended the Lewis and Clark fair. They were interviewed and written up by a Journal reporter and the story along with their pictures appeared in Tuesday evening's paper. The likeness is quite good but it is evident that the reporter put down some words that they did not use in the conversation.
