Local Events.
Theron Elliott left the first of the week to work in the harvest fields of Eastern Washington.
Miss Ella Butler of Dallas has been visiting in town this week with her sister, Mrs. M. O. Pickett.
Geo. Jenkins of Sauk Centre, Minnesota, is making a short visit in this vicinity with old Minnesota friends.
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Board of Trade will meet at the home of Miss Maggie Inglis Saturday at 2:30.

Specht & Kohlsdorfer, the popular bakers, have sold their bakery to Chas. Strohmaier of Portland. They will remain in Newberg however.
It is hoped that whatever shortcomings may be found in this week's issue may be fully made up in the Souvenir Edition which follows closely.
Mr. and Mrs. Haynes of Eastern Oregon are visiting in West Chehalis with the family of Robert Smith, the wife of the latter and Mrs. Haynes being sisters.

Miss Mary Burrows, of the Seattle schools, formerly a Newberg teacher, came down to attend the marriage of her brother Charles at Salem and is now visiting friends here.
Ernest Jackson, a former student in Pacific College who has been teaching in Haviland, Kansas, the past year arrived here from Spokane, Tuesday evening where he has been visiting with his brother Fred.

In anticipation of her marriage on the following Monday a company of the young lady friends of Miss Gertrude Lamb gave her a linen shower Thursday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Wight.
Mrs. Mattie Townsend and daughter Miss Emma arrived Friday evening from Whittier, California, and are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Nathan White, and renewing acquaintances with Newberg friends.

Three evangelistic services each day are being held at the Friends church this week—at eight o'clock in the morning in the tent, at four in the afternoon in the tent and at eight in the evening in the church. The public is cordially invited to attend any and all these services.
W. V. Culver, a former resident of Newberg, arrived here Tuesday evening from Wichita, Kansas, where he is now making his home. He has entered the field as a temperance lecturer and expects to do some work in Oregon for the prohibition party. His first work will probably be in Coos county.

Pres. H. E. McGrew and family and brother Benjamin drove over to North Yamhill one day last week and visited the Ladd fine stock farm. By the way it will not be out of order to remind visitors this summer that it was from this Yamhill county farm whence came the Short-horn herd which won the sweepstakes at the St. Louis Exposition last year.

Married, at the residence of Wm. Wight in Newberg at an early hour Monday morning, July 10, Miss Gertrude Lamb and George Whiteis, Rev. Herbert T. Cash officiating. The bride, an alumna of Pacific College, has ever been recognized as one of Newberg's most capable young ladies, and for the past two years has been doing successful high school work at Heppner where she met her future husband, who is well spoken of as a business man of that place. The young people left on the morning train, and to avoid any possible demonstration at the Newberg depot, drove down to Springbrook. They reckoned without the telephone however, for on boarding the Yamhill limited they were showered plentifully with hymeneal tokens by the young people at the cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Naylor arrived last night from Berkeley, California, to attend Friends Yearly Meeting.
Mrs. W. S. Kirk and children are down from Spokane visiting with relatives and attending Friends Yearly Meeting.
Mrs. G. H. Rosebrook of Palo Alto, California, is visiting at the Red Hills home of her brother, Rev. Geo. Greer.
It is reported that Geo. Dilley broke out of the asylum at Salem night before last and he is expected to show up at his old haunts here any time.

Miss Carrie Haskett, a school-teacher of Westfield, Indiana, arrived last night and will spend a part of the summer recreating in Oregon's invigorating clime.
Joel Bean of San Jose, California, stopped off here a day or two this week on his way home from the East, and visited his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Miles. He was accompanied by his granddaughter Miss Cox, who has been attending Westtown boarding school in Pennsylvania for two years.

F. A. Morris has been appointed by the county court as superintendent of the county exhibit to take the place of J. C. Cooper who resigned. Since Newberg has been honored by this appointment it increases our responsibility in the matter and we should all redouble our diligence in order to make the exhibit attractive.

Two graduates of Pacific College, Chas. F. Burrows and Miss Grace Ruan, were married at the latter's home at Salem Tuesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Pres. H. E. McGrew, Miss Ella Macy and C. E. Kirk also being present from Newberg. The young people will make their home in Seattle, where Mr. Burrows expects to begin the practice of law soon.

President Chas. E. Tebbetts of Whittier College, California, and family are visiting relatives in the family of B. C. Miles and attending Friends Yearly Meeting. Pres. and Mrs. Tebbetts go from here to Richmond, Indiana, to attend the Quinquennial Educational Conference of the Friends church, after which they sail for Europe, to be gone until some time the first of the year. The young people will return home to Whittier after completing their visit here.

David J. Wood and wife who are here from Whittier, California, after an absence of eighteen years were pioneers in this valley. They came here from Iowa with Wm. Hobson away back in the Seventies and bought the farm which they afterward sold to J. S. Larkin. Here they built a house and made many other improvements. A public school was taught in the upper room of their residence prior to the building of the school-house on the site of Charley Larkin's residence north of the depot. Religious meetings were also held in their home. They were charter members of the Friends church, he being a member of the building committee when the first church building was erected on the site where J. M. Wright now lives. All this meant much responsibility and heavy work but they were always ready to do their part. It is a pleasure to their old friends to see them back to look the ground over again.

H. S. Britt arrived home Friday from a business trip to Seattle.

A. C. Pool of Elsinore, California, joined Mrs. Pool here last week on a vacation.

The family of F. A. Elliott have moved into their fine new residence on North River Street.

A. T. Hill and family of La-Grand who have been attending the fair are visiting Newberg relatives.

J. M. Glass and W. E. Purdy have traded to J. W. Miller the west end livery stable for the Glen hotel.

A brother-in-law of Mrs. J. W. Childs named Williamson, from Arthur, Illinois, is visiting in town.

W. S. Hatch who was a resident of Newberg over a year ago has moved his family here again from North Yamhill.

Carrol E. Kirk, boys' secretary of the Seattle Y. M. C. A., arrived last Friday for a visit of a week with his parents.

Wm. F. Schaad who lives on a farm three miles east of town plowed up a piece of iron ore weighing ten pounds a few days ago.

Miss Amanda Way, who is here from California, will address the G. A. R. veterans of this place Friday night, she having been an army nurse during the Civil War.

Mrs. L. J. Stanley of Whittier, California, is here visiting relatives and attending Oregon Yearly Meeting. She is a niece of Jas. Vestal. Though a loyal Californian she is already greatly taken with the beauties and attractions of Oregon.

The cherry crop was short this season and yet the Springbrook cannery was swamped with cherries at one time. With many orchards just coming into bearing and with a full crop to be figured on it is easy to see that the time is ripe for planning for increased facilities for handling the output in this community.

Mrs. Emma Truchot of Montana, accompanied by her son Alexander and daughter Louise, is visiting in town with her aunt, Mrs. L. W. Harger. When a young girl she made her home with the Harger family but had been away from the valley for nearly thirty years. Her husband owns a big Montana cattle ranch.

Timothy Nicholson of Richmond, Indiana, one of the prominent members of the Friends church in the Middle West who has been attending Yearly Meeting, came west to attend the meeting of the National Association of Charities and Corrections held in Portland this month, with which work he has been very closely associated for many years. Another delegate who has been in attendance at the meetings here this week is Rev. A. A. Bailey of Kansas.

The action of the city fathers in having Tom Patterson spend a day with his mowing machine cutting "hair" along the streets was timely and property owners should lose no time in following up with the scythe and completing the job. Ragged patches of dogfennel and tall dried grass give the streets an untidy appearance and there is absolutely no excuse to be offered for letting it remain. To let the streets "go to grass" without proper attention is worse than letting the town cow take the place of the lawn mower.
