Hervey Hoskins and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jacobs drove down from the county seat Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jacob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins who are out from Kansas on a visit.

David Wood and wife of Whittier, California, who had been in Portland for a few weeks since their visit here, were in town again Saturday and Sunday, accompanied by a sister of Mr. Wood, of Iowa, who wished to see Newberg. They started home this week.

R. B. Linville is enjoying a visit from his son, Prof. H. R. Linville of New York, who has been spending the summer at the California state biological station at La Jolla where he has been conducting some original work in science. He is a Harvard graduate and is instructor in science in the New York high schools.

S. C. Holmes of Washington, D. C., where he was for seventeen years employed in the Treasury Department, is out west attending the fair and seeing the various sections of Oregon and is spending a week or two in Newberg. Though he came here a stranger he has found several citizens of whom he knew in various eastern states.

While at work Monday shingling on the roof of the public school building Claire Buchanan took a forty foot fall to the ground which resulted in nothing more serious than a few minor bruises and scratches. A spectator who saw the fall from a distance ran forward fully expecting to help pick up the remains of the boy but before he could reach the building was happily surprised at seeing young Buchanan scrambling back up the ladder.

W. E. Purdy is putting up a barn on his property west of the depot.

About thirty friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore gathered at their pleasant home north of town Friday and held an all day celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Moore being presented with a beautiful silver fruit basket. The dinner was naturally the big feature of the day and good cheer reigned supreme.

Rev. F. C. Stanard and family took their departure from Newberg on last Monday. Their plans as previously announced have been changed and instead of going to New York for study they will go to Berkeley, California, where a Baptist theological school has been recently established. A pleasant social was given in their honor at the parsonage on last Friday evening.

A large party arrived from Vermilion county Illinois the first of the week made up as follows: C. M. Hester, brother of Mrs. S. A. Mills, with wife and two children, Mrs. Hawthorn, mother of Justin Hawthorn, Mrs. Rebecca and Miss Mary Hoskins, mother and sister respectively of Mrs. J. H. Rees. The entire party including those they came to visit are off by the wagon route for the Nestucca beach.

Monday night was the time for holding the regular meeting of the Board of Trade but members in sufficient numbers to make a quorum failed to show up and no meeting was held. There were several matters of vital interest to Newberg that should have received attention at this time and it is to be regretted that so little interest was shown. It is a poor time to begin to let things drift.

Mrs. J. H. Crew and daughter Miss Clara of Washington, D. C., are visiting in town with the former's sister, Mrs. N. G. Kirk. Mr. Crew who is connected with the postoffice department as superintendent of railway adjustment, is in San Francisco making investigations relative to establishing the pneumatic tube mail delivery service in the Bay City, and he is expected up here later. Hollingsworth & Wilson

buy a RUSHFORD

The Rushford is built for sturdy use, of the right stuff and in the right way—the wagon for the hardheaded farmer who rightly wants full value for every dollar. It's a wagon that stands the racket—has more real strength and wear than you ever saw for the same money; and yet a Rushford Wagon is neither over-heavy nor clumsy.

Forty years have gone to the making of the Rushford Wagon's reputation—you'll see why that comes of you'll look one over. Want to know? You'll find it out in and out today.
