Local Events.
A son and heir was born in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Drew Price in Portland last Saturday.
Mrs. Allie Russell of Portland, was in town Saturday and Sunday, the guest of the family of B. R. Bass.
Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fogg of Mt. Tabor came up to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Stratton held Monday.
E. L. Evans and family were in the city Saturday and Sunday, visiting relatives and attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Portland, visited out north of town last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowman.
Mr. and Mrs. Abram Maris of Damascus, Ohio, were here Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards.

H. W. Behnke, of the Behnke-Walker Business College of Portland, spent Sunday in Newberg with his brother, A. T. Behnke.
Miss Nona Heckinger of Portland, returned home Tuesday morning after a visit here with her cousins, the Misses Ethel and Nora Fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hole of Marshalltown, Iowa, relatives of Pres. and Mrs. Edwin McGrew, arrived Friday, remaining over Sunday.

That popular bird, the stork, made Newberg a call Friday morning, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy David are now the proud parents of a daughter.

Mrs. E. Waters, her son James Waters and the latter's little boy are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowman. They are from Pasco, Washington.

J. H. Crew of Washington, D. C., joined his wife and daughter last week in their visit here with the Kirk relatives, the family leaving the first of the week.

Rev. Amos M. Kenworthy came home Saturday from Scotts Mills, where he has been holding meetings, and left again Monday morning for Boise, Idaho, to engage in evangelistic work.

Mrs. H. A. Eastling and daughter Miss Leah, of Hutchinson, Kansas, were in Newberg the first of the week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hill, friends and former neighbors of theirs.

Ralph and Howard Harrold, sons of Dr. R. W. Harrold, left Tuesday morning to resume their work in the school of mining, located near Denver. The youngest son, Sherman, will attend college here this winter.

Jas. H. Mills, the jeweler, was surprised Sunday evening by the arrival of his brother, Carl K. Mills of Chicago, who is making him a visit. His uncle, John E. Kent of Detroit, Michigan, arrived last evening.

Aubrey Kramien, accompanied by his mother and little brother as far as Portland, started Tuesday for Whittier, California, where he has a position as physical director and instructor in history in Whittier College. Henceforth it will be Professor Kramien.

Thomas Salee died at his West Chehalis home last Friday evening at the age of seventy-five years. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Jesse Edwards on Sunday morning at ten o'clock, interment being made in the West Chehalis cemetery.

"It was the Graphic souvenir which brought us here." Thus stated Mr. A. P. Taylor who arrived here Tuesday with his family from Penn Grove, California, forty-five miles north of San Francisco, with the hope of making this their home. Mr. Taylor says they had heard of Newberg and that when the souvenir reached them, they decided promptly that they wanted to live here in a temperance town. The special edition also found its way around through the homes of the neighborhood and Mr. Taylor says that as a result others are looking in this direction.

Miss Mabel Vantress who has been visiting at Hobsonville, Tillamook county, with her brother Phin and wife, arrived home Saturday.

Mrs. Edwin Morrison and children Elizabeth and Lewis, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, who have been spending the summer here with relatives, departed Monday.

D. Tallman moved his family to St. Johns Tuesday, where he has a good deal of contract work in sight, and where he has already built a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Welch, of Indiana, Mrs. Mary Allen and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodward left Saturday for an outing in camp out at Newport beach.

W. B. Sims, Newberg's industrious florist, is giving himself a vacation this week during which he is visiting with his family in Portland and attending the exposition.

G. E. Metcalf came Sunday evening and took his family, which has been spending the summer here, back to Eugene after a few days spent at the exposition.

Dr. H. B. Clough went down to Portland last Thursday and assisted in operating upon Ben Rees, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rees, for appendicitis. The operation was successful.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris of Portland, accompanied by the latter's brother and sister, James Swaim and Mrs. Hattie May of Parke county, Indiana, visited Newberg relatives over Sunday.

There is evidently something of a Quaker settlement over at Newport beach this summer. Twenty-four Friends were in attendance at the Presbyterian church services there last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Briggs of Whittier, California, arrived Saturday evening, being called north by the death of the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Stratton. They will remain for a short visit with relatives.

Mr. T. P. Gasaway and wife of Illinois and Mrs. Jas. Abrey of Portland are visiting in this vicinity with the latter's and Mr. Gasaway's uncle and aunt, W. E. Allison and Mrs. C. H. Christenson, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hellings and Miss Rachel Steddum of Oskaloosa, Iowa, are visiting here with the ladies' brother, Terrell Steddum and family. All expect to leave for Southern California within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright arrived home Tuesday night from a very pleasant visit of three weeks at Spokane with their daughter, Mrs. A. B. Parker. J. M. was greatly pleased with the Washington city and speaks highly of its enterprise and public spirit.

Station Agent O. L. Darling will leave Newberg within a few days, he having accepted the station at McMinnville. He says that while he likes Newberg and its people, he finds the work very confining here and will be given more help at the county seat. We lose a good and agreeable agent.

Tuesday morning saw the gravel hauling contract for First street completed and on the following day the big roller, drawn by six horses, was put on the street, the gravel having been wet down with hose. In round numbers, thirty-five hundred yards of gravel have been put on Newberg's principal business thoroughfare this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Smith, who have been located near Cloverdale, Tillamook county, for some months, came out the first of the week, Mrs. Smith having rapidly recovered from the severe attack of diphtheria, of which mention was made two weeks ago. After a visit with relatives here they will go down to the Coos Bay country where Huber has a position in a cheese factory, with the same company for which he has been working in Tillamook county.

Mrs. May Palm, sister of F. A. Morris, is here from Montana with her ten-year-old son on a visit.

Miss Amy Harger, who has been for several weeks at Ilwaco, Washington, returned home Saturday.

G. W. Cutts, the Jefferson street agent, came up from Portland and spent Sunday here with his family.

Wm. A. White of North Yakima, Washington, spent Sunday out north of town at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thos. E. Miles.

A. H. Allen representing the Mercantile Agency of R. G. Dun & Co., has been rating Newberg's business men this week.

At the Free Methodist church there will be prayer meeting this evening and preaching Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Russel Comer, who went to Northern California in the spring, arrived home last week. He has been working in the Coos Bay country of Southern Oregon for some time.

Allen Smith and wife moved the first of the week to the Mt. Tabor suburb of Portland for a time, where he will be engaged with his son Herman in building a house for A. S. Fogg.

Geo. Wood and wife of New Providence, Iowa, have arrived to visit relatives, enjoy an outing at the beach and see the fair. Mrs. Wood is a sister of C. F. and A. E. Moore. They are accompanied by their daughter, Miss Elma.

Beginning with to-morrow the one and a third rate to Portland and return on account of the exposition will be reduced to a fare and a tenth, which will make a ninety cent rate from Newberg. This cut means two glasses of lemonade and an official program. Every little helps.

Newton C. Hill, of Ottumwa, Iowa, who has been visiting here this summer with his sister Mrs. Mary E. Allen and other relatives, went down to Portland Monday and leaves for the east tomorrow. Though well up in the eighties in years, he has another long overland trip planned for this winter.

With the various urgent opportunities offered of becoming a reader of Colliers Weekly, of taking out a little life insurance, of joining a library association, of taking out some more life insurance, of being keyed up through the thrilling pages of Success, and of taking another life insurance policy, Newberg citizens were rather generously canvassed last week.

W. E. Allison came unpleasantly near losing by fire Saturday the new house which he is just completing northwest of town. The fire was left by the steam wood saw which had just made a visit and was getting a fairly good start when discovered and quenched by M. J. Jones, the carpenter. Mr. Allison had applied for insurance, but there would have been little comfort in the fact had the blaze done its work.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mills, in the Springbrook neighborhood, Miss Ella Mills was married last evening to Mr. Clement Niswonger, the ceremony being performed, in the presence of relatives and friends, by President Edwin McGrew. After the marriage vows had been given, an impressive prayer was offered by Henry Mills, grandfather of the bride, the latter being the first of a large number of grandchildren to be married. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Ella M. Niswonger, the latter's sister, and Roy Mills, brother of the bride. Refreshments followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Niswonger are well known here as students of Pacific College, and have the best wishes of many friends. They will spend a few days in Portland before going to their new home in Seattle.

When you buy a Wagon buy a RUSHFORD
The Rushford is built for sturdy use, of the right stuff and in the right way—the wagon for the hardheaded farmer who rightly wants full value for every dollar. It's a wagon that stands the racket—has more real strength and wear than you ever saw for the same money; and yet a Rushford Wagon is neither over-heavy nor clumsy.
Forty years have gone to the making of the Rushford Wagon's reputation—you'll see why that comes if you'll look one over. Want to show YOU a Rushford—come in and look—today.
