Local Events.

Miss Etta McCoy, who has been visiting a brother in Idaho for a few weeks, arrived home Saturday.

W. D. Comer, of Seattle, visited in Newberg Sunday with his father, Silas Comer, and brother Milt and family.

Carlton Kennedy, of Seaside, visited in Newberg Sunday and Monday with his sister, Mrs. Howard Williams.

An old friend of N. G. and J. C. Kirk from Mansfield, Ohio, named Pyle, accompanied by his wife, visited here last Friday.

Mrs. Nathan White and Mrs. A. C. Martin have been in attendance at the state W. C. T. U. convention at The Dalles this week.

Chas. Morris has gone to St. Johns, Portland's thriving suburb, where he is going to study the jewelry business under Albert Wilson.

Chester Kirk, of Spokane, Washington, who was down attending the fair, visited here this week with his father, J. C. Kirk, and sister Mrs. W. E. Terrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams, of Oklahoma, who were on their way to Santa Barbara, California, stopped off here the first of the week to make a short visit with his cousins, Howard Williams and sisters, whom he had not seen for many years.

All local sports not having too rigid convictions as to Sabbath observance sallied forth with dog and gun at the opening of the bird season Sunday morning, and the slaughter of the Chinas began. About the usual success is reported.

Miss Ione Hutchens went up to Moro, Sherman county, the first of the week where she is arranging to engage in teaching music. She has studied faithfully for the past few years, has proven an apt pupil, and will certainly meet with success in her efforts as instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilmot arrived last week from Hale, Missouri, and are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. G. W. Cutts. They have been spending the year on the farm of Mr. Wilmot's father in Missouri and have returned with the intention of relocating somewhere in Oregon.

After making two or three different announcements the directors of the Yamhill Live Stock Association have decided not to hold a stock show this year, fearing that it would prove a failure so soon after the big Portland show. Had they been expecting to compete with the latter? Their belated decision makes it appear so.

J. W. Moorehouse, of Central Nebraska, spent a couple of days here the first of the week looking over the country in behalf of Nebraska friends who contemplate moving to Oregon. Mr. Moorehouse, who had been attracted hither by a Graphic souvenir which found its way to his home town, is much pleased with Chehalis valley.

The contractors have completed the work on Newberg's new public school building, the grounds are being cleared up, and all will be ready for business Monday morning, with the best of prospects for the year's work. There should be no little inspiration both to teachers and pupils, in the fact that they have at their disposal the finest school building in the county.

In the spring E. S. Craven received some alfalfa seed from the Oregon Experiment Station at Corvallis with which he sowed an acre of ground, carefully following the directions given by Dr. Withcombe, director of the station. Mr. Craven brought in a fine sample of alfalfa Tuesday, as evidence of the fact that it can successfully weather the dry season here. How it will stand the rainy winter remains to be seen. Many look upon alfalfa as the coming dairy feed of the valley.

Miss Belle Newhouse came up from Portland Sunday evening for a fortnight's visit at home.

Miss Amy Harger has gone to Forest Grove where she has a position for the winter at the Laughlin hotel.

A Meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Board of Trade is called for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. J. Edwards.

Mrs. C. B. Wilson was taken ill a few days ago with appendicitis. It will be decided to-day whether an operation will be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. King Morris, of Long Beach, California, arrived Saturday and will make a visit with relatives here. Mr. Morris is a half-brother of H. R. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eggers, who had been spending a week or so at home, returned to Montavilla the last of the week where they will probably remain for the greater part of the winter.

Harry Walther, of The Dalles, who finished the academic department in Pacific College last June, spent Sunday in Newberg. He says he will be engaged with his father in business this year.

The Whittier, California, Register notes the arrival of a daughter on September 27, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Binford. Papa will be familiarly remembered as just Dave by his Newberg friends.

H. M. Hanson, employed at the planer at the sawmill, left to-day to make a few weeks' visit at his old home at New Richmond, Wisconsin. In his absence his family will visit at Mrs. Hanson's home at Coburg.

Victor Nelson, the fourteen year old son of Amos Nelson who has long been in delicate health, died of tuberculosis at his West Chehalis home last Friday. The funeral took place Sunday at one o'clock and was conducted by Rev. Herbert Cash.

Chas. Pickett greatly surprised his brother Andrew Tuesday evening by arriving unannounced from his home at Superior, Nebraska, and will visit here for a few days. Mr. Pickett was here just twenty years ago, since which time the brothers had not met.

Mrs. Marie Smith, accompanied by her son James, and her sister Miss Annie Romig, all recently from Iowa, visited here last week with their cousin, Dr. E. A. Romig and family. Miss Romig who is a school teacher, will remain in Oregon, having engaged to teach the school at Brooks, Marion county, the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Hollingsworth were pleasantly surprised last week by the arrival of two daughters, Mrs. Cora Gray and Mrs. Josie Lemmon, and two granddaughters Katy Gray and Annie Lemmon, from Washington county, Kansas, with whom they are having an enjoyable visit. With the exception of the one son, Fred Hollingsworth who is up in Washington, their arrival makes the family circle complete.

A huge practical joke was perpetrated last week by F. A. Morris, in charge of the Yamhill county exhibit at the fair. An imitation cantaloupe, made of cotton, was brought in by M. M. Edwards, of Dundee, and the representation was so perfect that the joke almost worked its own way. Mr. Morris perfumed the specimen with cinnamon and proudly exhibited it as the "cinnamon cantaloupe," the latest propagation from Wizard Luther Burbank's gardens. The sell took, and the superintendents of the various county exhibits in the Agricultural building came over to examine the latest freak. The cantaloupe was properly entered in the exhibit and the pomological expert passed judgment upon it knowingly as the latest thing in horticulture. All of which goes to show that the wise ones are often most easily tripped.
