Miss Jennine D. Miller, of Portland spent Sunday in Newberg.

Mrs. Rich, the mother of Mrs.
Lewis Jones, has been very sick for several days.

Tuesday's Journal announced the issuing of a marriage license for Lewis Brunson and Miss Marion Tallman.

E. B. Collard has bought the Charlie Butterfield property down on the Wynooski road near the river for a home.

Jesse Edwards and wife attended the Presbyterian church at McMinnville last Sunday and took dinner with County Recorder D. H. Turner and family.

Mrs. E. F. Wood traded her Main street property to Mrs.
Martin Downs recently and the latter has sold the property to Ben Town.

M. H. Pinney, the lumber dealer, left last week for a visit at his old home at Great Bend, Kansas, expecting to be gone about three weeks.

Mrs. O. K. Edwards was brought home from the Portland hospital last Friday. She is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Delano Estle and wife went to Forest Grove Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Frank Parr, the deceased being the wife of a cousin of Mrs. Estle.

Since making our report last week cash to the amount of $1854.26 has been dropped into the till of the city treasury by owners of property on First street, to apply on street improvement.

Rev. Burgett Short, pastor of the Taylor Street church, Portland, delivered a highly entertaining lecture on "The Gospel of Good Cheer" at the M. E. church Tuesday night. He deserved a better house than he had.

N. C. Maris was up from Portland Tuesday night on business and visiting with his son Paul.
He is engaged at present in gathering material for a big illustrated, holiday edition of that most excellent stock and farm journal, The Rural Spirit.

Charlie Mackie has traded his town property to C. J. Monk and again comes into possession of the farm he formerly owned on the Portland road east of town. "Off again, on again," said Finnegan to Flannegan.
Charley can do more trading within the range of the same circle than any man in the country.

Mrs. L. H. Additon, state president of the W. C. T. U., preached at Friends church last Sunday morning and in the evening lectured before a large audience at Crater's hall. On the basis of these two addresses it is evident that she made a mistake when she took the lecture platform instead of engaging in the ministry.

The government dredge, the Mathloma, has been taking advantage of the low stage of water and has been pulling snags from the channel in the Willamette near Newberg during the week. An old steamboat captain on the Columbia, in speaking of the low stage of water said a few days ago that the water in the upper Columbia had not been so low in forty years as it is at the present time.

A gentleman dropped into this office a few days ago and remarked that he understood the county seat was to be moved to Carlton and asked for information on the subject. On being told that the news was rather fresh down this way he stated further that he had been informed that Howe had it all fixed and it was a sure go. Since the matter seems to be definitely settled the Graphic would suggest to the people over at McMinnville that the old court house building would be all right for their proposed corn canning plant, and Warren and Stater should be encouraged to bid it in.

Remember the rummage sale December 7th and 8th.

L. E. Brown the tailor, is spending Thanksgiving with relatives at Marion.

Nate D. Elliott, the Salem job printer, was in town on business Wednesday.

The second basket ball team of the college will play the Y. M.
C. A. Tigers in Portland Friday night.

Mrs. C. A. McAllister and Mrs.
M. J. Jackson, of Drain, visited in town with Mrs. S. W. Potter Saturday and Sunday.

President and Mrs. McGrew entertained the members of the senior class of the college at their home Wednesday evening.

Turkey and cranberry sauce may be absent from your table to-day but there are blessings without number that you ought to feel thankful for.

Miss Lessie L. Hunnicutt has resigned her position as principal in the Springbrook school, desiring that her resignation take effect as soon as another teacher can be secured.

Savage & Cone are going out of business in Newberg. Hollingsworth & Wilson have bought a part of the stock and the remainder they will ship to Port land.

A party of college students gave a surprise party for Miss Nora Parker at her home Friday evening. A jolly time was spent in playing games and partaking of refreshments.

The rummage sale will be held on Thursday and Friday of next week. Clothing that can be made over for children very cheap. Also some newly made articles for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rees were up from Portland Sunday visiting with relatives. Mrs. Rees has not entirely recovered from the shock she received during the summer when she was run over by an automobile.

Rev. F. C. Stanard writes that they are now comfortably situated at Fruitvale in one of the most pleasant spots about San Francisco bay. He has charge of a mission on Sundays and during the week he is at the seminary at Berkeley.

Jasper Bales has a prospect of going to Oilcenter, California, to take a job as bookkeeper for the firm his brother-in-law, John Hutchinson works for. John writes that the works have closed down for the present and about all he has to do is to draw his salary.

Mrs. Lizzie White arrived home from her California trip last week, reporting a very pleasant series of visits among old time friends and looking several years younger than when she went away. Mrs. White is a very busy woman when at home and her friends attribute her improved appearance to the fact that while traveling she was compelled to remain quiet long enough to let her nerves relax.

The Amity Enterprise is the latest star to appear on the Yamhill newspaper horizon, with the name of B. F. Monger flying at the masthead. The new sheet is a seven column folio and comes to fill the vacuum that has existed at Amity since the Advance was wrecked in that latitude last summer. May the new mariner be able to avoid the shoals that have made havoc of every craft that has anchored in that offing heretofore.

The college basket ball team has arranged for a game with the Monmouth Normal school team to be played in the college gymnasium Saturday evening beginning at 8 o'clock. Last year Monmouth beat the college team by a score of 22 to 11, but Coach Wilson has been giving the boys hard training and a stiff game is anticipated. Every lover of clean sport will want to see it. Monmouth is coming down in full force to root for their team. Newberg ought to do as well. Will you be there?
Of course you will.

DON'T PAY RENT!

When you pay rent you put the money in the other fellows pocket.

When you apply the same amount toward the payment of a home you are putting money in your own pocket.

I will sell you a lot or block at a low figure on the installment plan and make it easy for you.

This is the opportunity you have been waiting for.
