Basketball.

Last Friday night the second team lost to the crack Tiger team of the Portland Y. M. C. A. by a score of 39 to 12. The first half the Tigers had things their own way, running up a score of 30 to 5, but they were treated to a surprise in the second half when the college boys held them down to the score of 9 to 7. Among those present at the game were Marie Hanson, Orville Johnson, Ruth Romig, Wilfred Pemberton, Mary Minthorn, Gertrude Minthorn, Owen Maris, Eva Smith, Harold Vickrey.

The boys who played on the college team were Cecil Hoskins, Paul Maris, Ray Pemberton, Huber Haworth, Lynn Clough, with Dolon Kenworthy as substitute.

MONMOUTH VS. P. C.

It was a good natured but enthusiastic crowd that gathered in the college gymnasium on Saturday night to witness the game between the first team and Monmouth. The quarters were dropped into the tin box until the total reached $45, which to the boys who hold the purse strings was very gratifying. The visitors were the first to score a point and during the first half, the figures on the blackboard bobbed around with sufficient variation to make things look very interesting and a little uncertain as to the final outcome. The nerve tension of the rooters was still a little more rigid during the second half and it was very pleasing to the "home folks" when time was called, the score on the board standing at 16 to 18 in favor of P. C.

Coach Wilson says his boys were not in the best of form, and as for referee Tharp he evidently thinks that "having eyes, he sees not" for he says he is the hardest man to umpire against he ever met.

The following is the lineup of the two teams with the number of points made by each player.

PACIFIC COLLEGE	MONMOUTH
Pemberton (C) 5	Forward 10
Cahill 10	Forward 10
Hodson 10	Center 10
Spaulding 10	Guard 10
Macy 10	Guard 10
	Referee—Tharp
	Umpire—Wilson

Nature Study.

represent a deep and inviting harbor lighted with the rays of the setting sun—nature in calm repose; the picture to speak the depths of abiding love and service.

Other characters might be sketched. The grouchy old duffer for whom nothing was right. The man of affairs who had traveled much, kind and obliging, always ready to be of service. The young man with budding mustache who wished to create the impression that he had been all over. "Ever been in a railroad wreck?" he asked. "No? Why, you're lucky," whereupon he vouchsafed the startling information that one time the train just ahead of the one he was on was derailed! There was the medical student returning to college who delighted in the use of terms which no one understood and which he could barely pronounce. The train was late—it always was—and the man with a mania for figures covered all the paper he could find in making elaborate mathematical calculations between stations to find at just what rate time was being made up or lost. He thus managed to keep busy and so far as was noticed the running schedule was not thereby altered. W. C. W. Hayiland, Kan., Nov. 28.

Married.

A beautiful wedding took place on Thanksgiving day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wilson in Washington county, when their daughter Florence was married to Walter A. Chalmers. Precisely at 12 o'clock the strains of the wedding march rang out and the bride and groom, attended by Miss Lizzie Chalmers and Mr. Fred Wilson, entered the parlor and took their places beneath the white wedding bell, which was suspended from an arch of ivy dotted with white lilies. Rev. Hiram Gould, of Newberg, performed a short but impressive ceremony, after which congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. Soon the company repaired to the dining room where a most bountiful Thanksgiving feast, consisting of the indispensable turkey and its countless accessories, was served. The wedding presents were useful and beautiful, consisting of silverware, glassware and china.

The bride is well known in Newberg having attended college here and graduated in the class of 1905. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chalmers, who reside near Forest Grove.

After a pleasant social hour Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers departed for their new home in Woodlawn, where they are at home to their many friends.
