Carl Illig, of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Buck, of Clackamas, spent Christmas in town with the parents of Mrs. Illig and Mrs. Buck. Mr. Buck has been connected with the government fish hatchery situ- ated on the Clackamas for sever- al years.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dunning, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, are visiting with their relatives Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse north of town and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Newhouse at Spring- brook. Mr. Dunning is special agent for the Queen City Insur- ance Company and while his wife will extend her visit here, he will spend some time looking after the interests of his company at different points.

Mrs. Ida Horton, who owns a small tract of land near Bridal Veil received two hundred dol- lars from the Northern Pacific for the right of way across it. The track runs next to the river and does not injure the land to any great extent, but Mrs. Hor- ton is not willing to welcome a second road that is indicating that another right of way will be wanted across the land.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright left here on Wednesday morning for their new location at Ontario, expecting to stop off at La Grande to visit for a day or two with their son John. Mr. Wright will take the office work for a real estate firm, with which his son Ol is connected, where he will be perfectly at home, as he has had many years experience in the business. They still re- tain their home near town and say they hope to return in a year or so to take up their resi- dence here again. The latch string will always be out and their many friends are hoping their absence may be of short duration.

The city election will be held on Monday, January 8.

Middleton and Sherwood ap- pear to be the storm center for serious accidents. The latest to be reported is the accidental shooting of Edward Baker, a nine year old boy at Sherwood, Wednesday by George Atterberry. The boy died this, Thursday, morning.

Caucus.
A caucus will be held at Dun- can's hall, Thursday evening, January 4, at 7.30 p. m. for the purpose of nominating a ticket for city officers for the ensuing year.
JESSE EDWARDS, Mayor.
Chehalis Center.
Happy New Year to all!
J. M. Atkinson has been on the sick list.
Miss Hattie Atkinson is home from her visit in eastern Oregon.
Ben Ritz and wife and son came down from West Chehalis for Christmas dinner and to at- tend the Christmas tree exercises.
Mr. and Mrs. Mulheuron, Frank Mulheuron and Mabel Paulson came up from Portland to spend the Christmas season.
Mr. and Mrs. Charley Shires and sons of Meadow Lake came down to celebrate Christmas with their home folks.
Tom Stichler and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Rogers of West Chehalis.
J. M. Atkinson numbers among his Christmas presents, a fine en- larged picture of one of his cows and Joe is happy.
The Christmas tree and pro- gram was a success thanks to the committee on program and their helpers. There was a large crowd considering the inclemency of the weather. Some were pre- sent from Newberg. Among the number were Prof. R. W. Kirk, Miss Lizzie Kirk and Walter Miles. The last person to arrive was Santa Claus all the way from Cape Nome and there was great fun among the "Chehalis Center kids."

Money Wanted.
I want to borrow $700 for three years. Money placed at my disposal in the First National Bank of Newberg bearing 8 per cent interest. Interest payable annually in advance. Address, Frank Wood.
