Boundless.

Far and away stretched the waving grasses and the low hills. On and on wandered the little boy. He did not know where he was, and yet he did not weep.

He was a very brave little lad and a mere child withal, so that, although he had lost his bearings, was not alarmed.

For did he not have his nice new rubber ball with him? And would it not be fine to bounce it about over the hard, smooth ground?

Selecting a spot bare of grass he threw the ball down, with all his might.

But it lay lifeless just where it had alighted.

Again the puzzled lad threw it down, but the resilient gutta percha spheroid lay dead and inert exactly as it had fallen.

Then, as the fearful truth broke upon the lad, he broke forth into walls of despair. He was on the boundless prairie.—Judge.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has surpassed all other medicines in merit, sales and cures.

Its success, great as it has been, has apparently only just begun.

It received more testimonials in the last two years than any previous two—over 40,000.

It has the abiding confidence of the people—the strongest proof of its unequalled worth.

It purifies the blood, cures all blood diseases, all humors and all eruptions.

It strengthens the stomach, creates an appetite and builds up the whole system.

It cures that tired feeling and makes the weak strong.

In usual liquid, or in new tablet form, 50c Dosea One Dollar.

The Statue to the Pilgrims.

On Plymouth Hill stands the imposing statue to the pilgrims. Its base is granite and supports a seated figure at each of the four corners with eyes searching the surrounding country, while a woman's figure crowns the top. On the pedestal is inscribed the name of every man, woman and child that came over in the Mayflower.—St. Nicholas.

Her Prettiness Tempted Him.

"Father, it is true the young man kissed me so suddenly that I was not prepared for it, and yet I feel that I am also to blame in the matter."

"To blame? In what way?"

"I'm afraid I was an accessory before the fact."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Money's Worth.

"Doughnuts," said the baker, "are ten cents a dozen and the crullers are the same price."

"I didn't know," said the customer, "that there was any difference between 'doughnuts' and 'crullers'."

"Oh! yes; crullers have holes in the center, while the doughnuts—"

"Gimme doughnuts; I ain't spendin' my good money for holes."—Catholic Standard and Times.

BLOOD POISON THE BLACK FLAG

The black flag is an emblem of horror and dread. When it is hoisted by an army, the order has gone forth that "no quarter" will be given, everything must be destroyed. Helpless women and children, as well as opposing soldiers, meet the same fate, and a trail of desolation, suffering and death is left behind. Contagious Blood Poison is the black flag of the great army of disease. This vile disorder is known as the blackest and most hideous of all human afflictions, overthrowing its victims and crushing out the life. It is no respecter of persons; no matter how pure the blood may be or how innocently the disease is contracted, when this awful virus enters the circulation the hideous, hateful and humiliating symptoms begin to appear, and the sufferer feels that his very presence is polluting and contaminating. Usually the first sign of the disease is a little sore or ulcer, but as the blood becomes more deeply poisoned the severer symptoms are manifested, the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groins swell, a red rash breaks out on the body, the hair and eyebrows come out, and often the body is covered with copper-colored spots, pustular eruptions and sores. In its worst stages the disease affects the nerves, attacks the bones and sometimes causes tumors to form on the brain, producing insanity and death. Not only those who contract the poison suffer, but unless the virus is driven from the blood the awful taint is handed down to offspring, and they are its innocent victims. Blood Poison is indeed a "black flag." Mercury and Potash, so often used, never can cure the trouble. These minerals merely drive the symptoms away for awhile and shut the disease up in the system, and when they are left off it returns worse than before. This treatment not only fails to cure blood poison but eats out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, produces chronic dyspepsia, loosens the teeth and frequently causes mercurial rheumatism to add to the patient's suffering. S. S. S., the great vegetable medicine, is the conqueror of this vile disease. It goes down to the very root of the trouble and cures by cleansing the blood of every particle of the poison. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up anything, but clears the entire circulation of the virus and puts the system in good healthy condition. It cures safely as well as certainly, because there is not a particle of mineral in it. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that S. S. S. is not purely vegetable. When the blood is purified and strengthened with this great remedy the symptoms all pass away and no sign of the disease is ever seen again; nor is there left the least trace to be handed down to posterity. Special book with instructions for self-treatment and any medical advice desired will be sent without charge to all who write.

Several years ago I had blood poison and my flesh was in an awful condition. Great sores would break out and nothing I put on them would do any good. My hair and eyebrows fell out and I was a fright. My mouth was so sore I had to live on milk and water. I took Mercury for a long time and instead of getting better I continued to grow worse and my arms and hands became solid sores. My legs were drawn so I could not walk and I felt that my time was short here if I did not get some relief. I began to use your S. S. S., and it helped me from the start. After taking it awhile the sores all healed, my rheumatism was cured and to-day I am a strong, well man. It got all the mercury out of my system and it cured me sound and well. When Lincoln Won His Spurs. Leaving the question of his relative standing in the profession at large for further consideration, it is confidently submitted that Lincoln was a creditable position at the local bar, almost at the outset of his career, among contemporaries who were not only capable lawyers, but men of exceptional force and character. Indeed, it is exceedingly doubtful if the bar of any other State in the Union possessed as much native talent and ability as the frontier State of Illinois when Lincoln won his spurs.—Century.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.
