Local Events.

Miss Nona Heckinger, of Portland, is visiting in town with her cousin Miss Ethel Fortune. Shurl Pearson came up from Portland Tuesday and attended the Dallas-Newberg basket ball game.

C. J. Edwards and family visited in Portland last Saturday and Sunday with W. F. Edwards.

Henry Austin left Tuesday to look after his Eastern Oregon property at Hardman for which he recently traded with Dr. Snapp.

A family named Van Dyke moved down from Independence last week and has rented the Moore cottage on Meridian street.

C. F. Butler, who recently sold his home in West Newberg to C. E. Ferguson, has moved into the Ernest Hill cottage on River street.

No less than thirty-five passengers boarded the train here last Saturday morning and it was not a very promising day for travel either.

As a matter of general interest and to correct the impression held by some, the local banks are not receiving tax payments this year as they did last. Remittances should be made directly to the sheriff.

John Pitts and family, who live in the vicinity of Oregon City were up the first of the week and made the purchase of Chas. Baisinger's five acre place west of town. They do not intend to move to Newberg until next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Windle, accompanied by the latter's mother, Mrs. Taylor, all of Shadeland, Indiana, who are making a tour of the Pacific Coast, visited in Newberg the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morris.

The Evergreen Literary Club met with Mrs. A. Buchanan Tuesday evening and after the work of the evening was concluded the members were pleasantly surprised by being invited out to the dining room and served with refreshments.

Patriotic services were held in Duncan's hall this afternoon under the auspices of the G. A. R. After a half hour's program by the public school children an address was delivered by Prof. Pratt of Portland, state patriotic instructor of the G. A. R.

The local teachers' institute and reading club will meet at the Newberg public school Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Teachers and all others interested are requested to be present. Theory and practice of teaching will be handled by Principal Kirk, English History by Prof. Buchanan and the subject of Literature by Mrs. Douglas of the college faculty.

Maynard Redmond has resigned his position as assistant cashier of the First National Bank to take a position with the Hydraulic Woodlift Company of Portland, and expects to leave the first week in March. Mr. Redmond has made many friends in Newberg who are loth to see him go but they are glad to know that he will be located no further away than Portland.

The neighbors of A. E. Bowman gave him a pleasant surprise Sunday evening, calling in and celebrating with him and family his birthday anniversary. Music by the young ladies present, and by Mrs. Bowman and sons, supplemented by selections on Elmer Hodges' phonograph, together with the good social cheer and substantial refreshments served, made a very pleasant evening for all. The surprises were Mr. and Mrs. Alden Chamberlin, Free Hodges and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bowman and the Misses Anna Craven, Laura Blair and Caddy A. Brunson.

Miss Anna Garrison, of Boise, Idaho, has been visiting in town during the week with Mrs. A. M. Hoskins.

Miss Nettie Jones has gone to Grand Mound, Washington, where she will remain indefinitely with her married sister.

Mrs. Will Crater, who underwent a surgical operation in Portland three weeks ago, recovered so far as to be able to be brought home by her husband Sunday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Herriot and daughter Myrtle left Saturday morning for Portland and from there went to Washugal, Washington, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edgar White.

Miss Anna Rogers, who has been taking a course in stenography in Portland this winter went down to the city Monday to begin work, she having a position in view.

J. Teuscher Jr., of Portland, traveling agent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, was in town Tuesday and made very instructive talks in the different rooms of the public school.

Fred Crawford was in town Friday and dropped into the Graphic office for a little political chat. For congressman he thinks the Dayton precincts are strong for Hawley, who he thinks an ideal candidate.

W. E. Terrell went down to Portland the first of the week to begin work at his job of weighing mail at the union depot. Thos. Miles left at the same time for The Dalles where he has a like position.

Granville Everest left for his home at Woods Tuesday evening. He expects to close out his effects over there and return to Newberg to live in the home of his mother who feels that she needs him in her declining years.

Hon. E. V. Carter, of Ashland, who aspires to the republican nomination for state treasurer, mingled with the Newberg electors Saturday. While not boastful, he is confident that he has the other fellows headed southward. It was ever thus. All candidates are standing object lessons on cheerfulness.

Word comes from Boise, Idaho, of the marriage at that place on the evening of February 14, of Miss Clara E. Bray, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Bray, to Mr. Samuel B. Taylor of Boise, Dr. I. F. Roach, pastor of the First M. E. church, officiating. The ceremony was performed at the Friends parsonage in the presence of immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor went at once to their home at 1815 North Eleventh street. Newberg friends and acquaintances of the bride offer congratulations.

It was the morning of the day of the big wedding at the White House and the event had been talked about by people in all walks of life until it was easy enough to imagine one could see cupid's darts flying through the air, and the conditions no doubt had something to do with the actions of the young man who went to the train that morning to see his girl off. He found her a seat at the rear end of the coach, deposited her grip and while the train was waiting located himself on the arm of the seat and hovered over the form of the angel in human garb, repeating the sweetest things ever heard in a railway coach. "All aboard," called out the conductor and "smack" went something in the direction of the two young things, followed with "Good bye, dearie." The train failed to move and still the cooing continued yet a little longer, then as the bell began to call the signal to start there was a second "smack", sounding something like a calf pulling a foot from a mudhole and again the "Good bye, dearie" was repeated, the tender tie was broken and the young man slid off at the rear of the train, leaving the object of his affections looking as sweet as a June morning.

J. C. Kirk will leave the latter part of the week for Spokane, Washington, where he will make his home with his son Walter.

Miss Carrie Bowman who had been up home for three weeks returned to the hospital in Portland last Friday for further treatment.

M. J. Downs has resigned his position as section boss after years of faithful service and is arranging to move with his family to their place in Clackamas county where they will try ranching for a while.

Geo. F. Barhart, of Fayette, formerly Yamhill county road supervisor, who is out for the republican nomination for county commissioner, came down to Newberg yesterday and was circulating his petition.

Four men representing the Willamette Valley Traction Co. were here Tuesday and Wednesday making an estimate of the probable tonnage in the way of shipments of freight to and from Newberg. From this point they are working toward Portland.

The meeting of the Board of Trade showed an increased attendance Monday night, the committee on soliciting new members reporting about fifty additions to the membership roll. The question of piping water to town from the spring recently purchased was discussed, the consensus of opinion being in favor of the proposition. The next regular meeting will be held the third Monday evening in March, when the annual election of officers will take place.

A very enjoyable reception was held at the Baptist church last Thursday evening in honor of the new pastor, Rev. Herbert L. Howard and family. Short addresses of welcome and good cheer were given by the pastor of the other churches—Rev. Herbert T. Cash, Rev. H. Gould, Rev. Lowry and by Pres. H. E. McGrew, fitting response being made by Rev. Howard. Other features of the evening's program comprised selections of music by the Misses Alice Durgst, Hazel Littlefield, Ethel Fortune and by the new pastor, and recitations by Miss Beulah Spaulding and Miss Hammond. Following the program, light refreshments were served.

Happy Anniversary Surprise.

Last Monday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Everett White was the scene of a very pleasant surprise, it being the occasion of their fifteenth wedding anniversary.

The couple were spending the evening very quietly, when suddenly voices and footsteps, just outside the door, were heard.

The fact was soon revealed, that a number of friends had appeared on the scene, bringing entertainment, refreshments and good cheer for an evening's enjoyment.

The time passed pleasantly in conversation and a guessing contest, after which light refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Timberlake, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Deach, Mrs. Mae McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wight, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wright.

On the table were left many beautiful crystal pieces.

At a late hour, after singing the "Glory Song," the company dispersed, expressing the wish that Mr. and Mrs. White may live to enjoy many happy returns of the occasion.
