Local Events.

Hear Attorney Rutherford in Crater's hall to-night on the status of local option in Oregon.

Rev. Joseph Hall occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church at Amity last Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

Alden Chamberlin has moved his family to Arleta, a suburb of Portland, he expecting to find employment in the city.

Russell Turner came down from the county seat Friday morning and spent a few days with school boy friends.

Professors R. W. Kirk and F. H. Buchanan attended a meeting of the recently organized Principals' Progress club of Yamhill county at McMinnville last Friday evening.

Claud Clark, who until the first of the year was employed with the Boise, Idaho, Y. M. C. A., but who is now connected with that organization in Portland, came up to Newberg Friday evening to hear the debate between McMinnville and Pacific College.

Russell and Horace Wright of Indiana, who are employed this winter in Portland with the Portland Seed Company, came up Saturday and spent Sunday with their cousin Dwight Coulson and with Prof. E. Partington, the latter and Russell Wright being Earlham College classmates.

A piano of high grade will be given to the district that makes the best general display at the Yamhill County Agricultural School Fair to be held next September. Mr. Briedwell & Co. are the generous givers. The size of the district is to be taken into account so that every district in the county has an equal chance to win the piano.

Wm. Prather, of Evans & Prather, has sold his interest in their blacksmith shop to E. L. Evans, and as soon as arrangements can be made expects to move to Lakeview, Southern Oregon, where he has been offered a good job in a shop. He likes Newberg however, and entertains a hope of returning at some future time, in which his friends join.

Married—Ezra Nash to Miss Maude Austin, March 20th, 1906, at the home of the groom's parents at 7:30 a. m., Rev. T. W. Nash officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Nash took the morning train for Felida, Washington, which is to be their new home, he having bought a store at that place. Many wishes of their friends for their success and happiness follow them.

Newberg was represented at the democratic gathering and love feast held at McMinnville last Saturday, at which Governor Chamberlain was in attendance, by Hon. F. H. Caldwell, J. C. McCrea, Hon. J. C. Nelson, Hugh Nelson, Geo. Graves and Hon. W. E. Purdy. The day was rounded off with a banquet in the evening and the boys came home chuck full of the era of good feeling.

The twenty-third annual session of the Yamhill county Sunday School Association, of which J. F. Taylor and Mrs. Lorena A. T. Hodson are president and secretary respectively, will be held in the Baptist church at Amity on Thursday and Friday of next week. Mrs. M. P. Elliott, Rev. H. L. Howard, Prof. E. Partington and Miss Lessie Hunnicutt represent Newberg on the program. Superintendents and ministers are members of the convention ex-officio. Each school in the county is expected to send delegates.

Last Friday was from all reports a gala day in "Little Denmark" out north of town, it being the golden wedding anniversary of Soren Nelson and wife. The Danes of the community gathered at the Nelson home and visited and feasted together, living over again with the aged couple the days of long ago in the home land over the sea. Mr. Nelson, aged seventy-six years, if not so spry as some years ago when the regularity with which he made his weekly visits to town gave him the name of "Tuesday Nelson," is nevertheless still hale and hearty, as is also his wife, aged eighty-eight years. They came from Denmark to America in 1865, first settling at the lumbering town of Stevens Point, Wisconsin, moving two years later to Minnesota, in which state they resided for fifteen years. In 1882 they removed to Oregon, and have since resided in Yamhill county. They have three children—John Nelson and Mrs. Mary Christianson, who live north of town, and Nels Nelson of Scappoose, Columbia county.

Miss Mabel Blaylock, whose school northeast of town recently closed, began a new term Monday at the Chehalis mountain school immediately north of Newberg.

County Surveyor R. W. Jones came down from the county seat and attended the debate Friday evening and on Saturday laid off some lots for B. C. Miles on South River street.

An "intermediate" baseball game was played here Saturday afternoon between the Dayton public school nine and a team of town boys. The former had a little the best of it in a score of 8 to 6.

Benj. F. Higgins and Mrs. Mary A. McKern, both of Newberg, were united in marriage last Sunday at the home of E. J. Hollingsworth at 8 p. m. Rev. T. W. Nash performed the ceremony.

Henry Strety, of Frontier county, Nebraska, who was out here last year and bought property in the Rex neighborhood, has lately returned with his family. He is a friend of the Schaads.

The relations between Newberg and the county seat are noticeably more intimate now that there is direct railway communication. Station Agent James says he is selling one hundred tickets a month from here to McMinnville.

Mr. H. L. Owens, son-in-law of Wm. Perkins, who has been here for the past few months, returned east with his family this week. After visiting at Long Prairie, Minnesota, they will return to their home in Dakota, in which state Mr. Owens has business interests.

It was a decidedly wintry aspect, likewise an "unusual" one, which the surrounding hills presented the first of the week when covered with a good coat of the beautiful. The snow was about a foot in depth at some points on Chehalis mountain—so deep in fact that the mountaineers did not think but what the valley was likewise snow covered, and Lee Winters who came down to town early Monday morning following the big fall said he came the nearest kind hitching up to the sled to make the trip. The nearest beautiful thing about an Oregon snow is that it comes rarely and doesn't stay long.

Wm. Schaad, a good representative of the intelligent and thrifty German element which is populating the territory east of Newberg, was in the office the first of the week and in speaking of conditions in his neighborhood said that the prospects were, now that the Germans had obtained a foothold here, that many more would come and acquire property in what is already known as the German neighborhood. Judging the future by the past, this means, as Mr. Schaad signified, more land cleared up and improved, new buildings erected, and the general development of the country. They have a prosperous and growing congregation at Union church, of which Rev. Jos. Hepp is pastor. Newberg may be said to be bounded by Germans on the east, the Scotch on the north and the Danes on the north and west—and all industrious and thrifty people who make their influence felt in the making of a prosperous community.

The Newberg Board of Trade meeting was fairly well attended Monday evening at which time the regular election of officers took place, resulting as follows: E. H. Woodward, president; F. H. Caldwell and Clarence Butt, first and second vice presidents respectively; D. D. Coulson, secretary; John Larkin, treasurer. In the absence of Mr. Woodward, Mr. Caldwell occupied the chair. The committee on electric railways, of which Jesse Edwards is chairman, reported that the United Railways Co. which is getting a hold in Portland, is intending to visit some valley points for the purpose of looking over the territory preparatory to outlining plans for their projected suburban electric line service. The Board voted to extend an invitation to the officials to visit Newberg and decided to give them a banquet. To arrange for the latter, a committee consisting of Clarence Butt, L. M. Parker, M. H. Pinney, H. R. Morris and W. W. Hollingsworth, was appointed. In response to a request from the Portland Commercial Club for literature descriptive of Newberg and vicinity to hand out to incoming immigrants, the Board ordered the purchase of five hundred copies of the Lewis and Clark souvenir edition of the Graphic which are to be sent down at once.

Miss Louise Leman of Amity spent Sunday in town with her cousin, Miss Ruth Wiley.

Mrs. Howard Williams went to Seaside Sunday on hearing that her mother was seriously sick at that place.

T. H. Gardners have purchased the Moses Votaw place of Wm. Crantford and will occupy the same in the near future.

James Comic has bargained for the A. H. Douglas place in South Newberg. Mr. Douglas having decided to move to Portland.

It will be Indians versus the pale faces in basket ball at the college gymnasium to-morrow night. The game is announced for eight o'clock.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will serve supper at Crater's hall Wednesday evening the 28th from 5.30 to 8.30 o'clock. Come and get a good supper for 25c.

Omer Hodson, who with his family has been spending the winter in Southern California, writes the Graphic that he has moved to Argonia, Kansas, for the present at least.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson and Mrs. Maria Dobbins, aunt of Miss Olive Stratton, visited at McMinnville from Saturday until Tuesday with the parents of Mrs. Nelson.

After a short absence Maynard Redmond concluded that Newberg suited him pretty well after all and his friends are glad to see him back at his old position in the First National Bank.

Pres. Edwin McGrew left Sunday for Boise, Idaho, in response to a telegram saying that his brother Benjamin McGrew, who spent some time here last summer, was dangerously ill and not expected to live.

Miss Ethel Beharrell, of Portland, a former student of Pacific College who has many acquaintances here, was married last evening to Mr. Wm. Krieg, of Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Miss Mayne Elliott and Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Larkin attended the wedding from here.

Two strong men from this end of the county who stand well with the public have announced themselves as aspirants for the republican nomination for representative—F. A. Crawford and J. B. Stilwell, both from Dayton precincts. There are two other candidates, J. P. Irvine of McMinnville, and J. W. Bones, of Sheridan.

Aubrey Kramien has developed a fast basket ball team this year at Whittier College, California. It succeeded in defeating the Chicago Meteors the other day and is in line for the championship of Southern California. The Whittier Register has this to say of him: "Coach Kramien has accomplished wonderful results since taking hold of the college team, and the league games have amply demonstrated that he not only is one of the best players but also one of the premier coaches on the coast."
