Lewis Chirsman and family moved the first of the week to Toledo, Washington.

Frank Williams left for Chico, California, Tuesday where he will probably spend the summer.

On Sunday morning Rev. T. Brouillette will preach a memorial sermon at the Baptist church.

Mrs. T. C. Belcher, of Collins, Washington, visited in town over Sunday with her father, Hon. J. C. Nelson.

Date Hutchens is arranging to move to Dayton the first of the week to take charge of his brother Jesse's farm.

Work has been commenced on a substantial residence for C. J. Edwards on his lots southwest of the Friends church.

Willard Satchwell, of Independence, visited in town a couple of days the first of the week with his mother and sister.

Work has been progressing rapidly of late on the new residence of Walter S. Parker, just east of the Turner home on Fourth street.

Miss Leora Buchanan attended a concert in Portland Friday evening which was given by Prof. Goodnough and his pupils of the Western Academy of music.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Höberg, of McMinnville, visited in Newberg the latter part of last week with their daughter, Mrs. W. W. Nelson.

Mrs. Henry Ehret went down to the city Saturday and visited two or three days with Mr. Ehret who has been working at the carpenter trade on the east side for some weeks.

A republican rally is announced to take place at West Chehalis Hall Saturday evening, May 26th, the speakers to be S. J. Cleaton of St. Helens and Rogers Sinnott of Portland.

While working at the sawmill Tuesday Jacob Ingle fell some distance striking on his shoulder, breaking the collar bone and bruising himself so severely that he will be laid off for several weeks.

Mrs. S. E. England, of Dayton, Washington, who had been in Portland attending the marriage of her daughter, came up to Newberg Friday evening and visited over night with her brother, J. M. Rittenhouse.

L. M. Parker and J. L. Hoskins are in Portland attending the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge and Mrs. L. M. Parker, Mrs. Wm. Rich and Mrs. C. F. Moore are also in the city as delegates to the Rebecca Assembly.

A reorganization of the republican club was effected Monday night, J. C. Hodson being elected president and Dr. Harry Littlefield secretary. Steps were taken to arrange for a public speaking on Saturday night, June 2.

Prof. R. W. Kirk has rented the Williams cottage northeast of the public school grounds. The Allen house on Meridian street, in which they have been living, will be occupied by Mrs. Allen, who expects to return soon from Eugene.

Allen Smith and wife are making arrangements whereby they will be absent from Newberg for sometime. They expect to spend a good part of the summer in Portland, after which they are planning to make an extended visit with relatives in Kansas and Iowa. In their absence their home will be occupied by Prof. H. D. Crumly and family.

T. B. Cummings & Co. have sold their undertaking business to W. W. Hollingsworth & Co., including their undertaking parlors south of their furniture store. The owners declare their intention of improving the latter, to which they will move their entire undertaking stock, both inside and out. They will repaper the rooms, seat them adequately and in short prepare to accommodate the public in every way possible.

Prof. and Mrs. Andrew F. Mitchell, of Bloomingdale, Indiana, and their daughters the Misses Berniece, Frances and Charlotte, arrived Sunday evening and visited a couple of days with the former's brother, Geo. W. Mitchell and family. They are on their way to Long Beach, California, where Prof. Mitchell is to take the pastorate of the Friends church. On invitation of the pastor, Rev. Cash, he occupied the pulpit of the church here at the Sunday evening service, giving an eloquent and masterful presentation of the subject of universal peace.

Hugh Heacock, of Dayton, drove down to Newberg yesterday.

Dr. R. W. Harrold was in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday attending a meeting of the state dental association.

George Bidgood, who has been working in Portland for some time, is spending some days at home.

Amos M. Kenworthy has traded his home place, just north of the Friends church, to Rev. Jas. Price for property at Salem, to which he is expected to move.

The advocates of early closing, failing to get unanimous action of the merchants on 6.30 as the hour for closing, have placed the hour at 7.30 o'clock with every prospect that this time will be agreed upon by all, the change to be made on the first Monday in June.

Mrs. T. H. Thorne went down to Portland yesterday and after a visit of a day or two with relatives there, will go on to their old home at Pendleton, Eastern Oregon, where she will spend several weeks. Mr. Thorne will accompany her on a short business trip.

Clarence Price has passed the final examinations at the North Pacific Dental College in Portland, the graduating exercises to take place the latter part of the week. Nelson Morrison, of Portland, well known to many here, will also be a member of the graduating class.

Prof. Edwin Morrison, a well remembered member of the faculty of Pacific College, who has had charge of the science department of Penn College at Oskaloosa, Iowa, for the past few years, has been elected to the professorship of physics in Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana.

Prof. J. S. Carrick will have charge of the music department in Pacific College next year and as will be seen by his announcement in our advertising columns, he will remain in town during the summer months and will be pleased to meet any who desire to engage the services of a competent instructor.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Romig have had word that their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fuller, who made a short visit here last summer, expect to leave Michigan for Oregon on the eighteenth of next month. Mr. Fuller has had the position of assistant cashier in a bank in his home city and expects to get a similar position in Portland.

Ola Martin still carries his jaw in a sling as a result of the accident with which he met recently, but he is about town and getting along even better than had been expected. His sister, Mrs. Rymers, of St. Johns, came up Thursday evening to spend a couple of days, while his mother and brother, from North Yamhill, drove over Saturday and visited with him and family until Sunday evening.

Tuesday was the "last day" out at the Rex school, over which Miss Ella Macy has been presiding, and exercises appropriate to the occasion were held, the "treat" being not the least appreciated feature of the day. The chief entertainment was found in a baseball game played between the Rex school and the seventh grade boys of the Newberg school. The rivalry was rather intense and the Rex boys had enough rooters on hand to make things interesting, but the seventh grade lads played a steady game and won out by a score of 18 to 11. Encouraged by their success, they are now looking for other fields to conquer.

Mrs. F. A. Morris gave an afternoon tea Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. N. Welch, of Indiana. When the guests had gathered the hostess announced that she was going to edit a paper and proceeded to appoint editors for the various departments, the results being read. This, with other diversions, made a very pleasant afternoon. The ladies present were Mesdames N. E. Britt, M. P. Elliott, F. A. Elliott, R. W. Harrold, C. A. Hodson, J. C. Hodson, D. Estle, G. W. Cutts, Jesse Edwards, C. J. Edwards, C. B. Wilson, E. H. Woodward, S. M. Calkins, W. E. White, H. E. McGrew, J. F. Taylor, Jesse Cook, J. T. Smith, G. W.
