Local Events.

Mrs. Shepherd, of Portland, is visiting in town with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoskins.

Dr. G. U. Snapp went down to Portland yesterday to attend the meeting of the State Medical Society.

E. S. Craven says they have been using new potatoes for a week or so. They must be "small potatoes."

Mrs. H. J. Minthorn arrived from their Newport sanatorium Saturday morning, with the intention of remaining until after college commencement.

Miss Carrie Turner, of Mc-Minnville, came down Sunday and remained over Tuesday, attending the marriage of her friend and classmate, Miss Lucy Gause.

Mrs. Addie Hayes, who lost her home and possessions in the San Francisco disaster, arrived here last week and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Noah Heater.

Master Loren Bright made the trip alone from Wasco county, Eastern Oregon, several days ago, to make a visit of some length here with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larson.

H. M. Hoskins and J. C. Kerr, tellow bachelors, came down from the county seat Sunday, remaining until Monday evening.
Mr. Kerr visited with the Hoskins family and with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

President and Mrs. Edwin Mc-Grew drove to Dayton yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the Yamhill County Pioneer Association, before which he delivered an address.

W. B. Patterson, of Portland, managing architect of the new twelve story Wells Fargo building, for which the Newberg Pressed Brick Co. is furnishing the late brick, was in Newberg over Friday night.

A. S. Parker has been secured as night watchman by the business men and entered upon his duties the first of the month. In accordance with the action taken by the city council last night he will likewise serve as deputy marshal.

Miss Clara Newby, a graduate of Pacific College of the class of 1901, who has been located at Marshalltown, Iowa, as a professional nurse, returned to her home at Turner recently on an extended visit. She came down to Newberg with relatives to attend the marriage of her brother Emmer and Miss Lucy Gause.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dewes, who have been away from here since early last fall, visited in town last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hamnett. They have been up at Eufula, Washington, for some time where he has been engaged with a logging company. They returned to that point the latter part of the week.

It is with general regret that it is learned that Rev. H. L.
Howard will give up his pastorate of the Newberg Baptist church, his failing health necessitating his action. Rev. and Mrs.
Howard have been here but a few months, but have already won a place with our people which years would not have brought to many. They expect to leave soon for Kansas city where they will spend some time with his parents.

That rain brings out the voters, as certainly as night brings out the stars, was fully demonstrated Monday. The clouds were lowering and showers frequent, and so many people have never been seen on the streets of Newberg on election day. The vote cast in the two precincts, 575, is a record breaker, and indicates the steady growth of population in the community. The North New-berg precinct, with its 309 votes cast, is the largest in the county and a readjustment of precinct lines will probably be made before another election takes place.
Springbrook could be set off nicely as a separate precinct.

Prof. and Mrs. H. D. Crumley entertained the Seniors very pleasantly last Friday evening.

D. W. Cummins has been over near North Yamhill this week looking after his prune orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hodson came down from Seattle a few days ago with the intention of spending some time at their pretty home on North Meridian street.

J. S. Rees, Tom Herd and son, A. Buchanan, J. F. Durst, Bert King, Henry Ehret and C. H.
Eggers, who are employed at carpenter work either in or near Portland, came home to vote.

Irving E. Stratton, who accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Doh-bins, to Southern California, has taken a position as clerk in a department store at Long Beach, where the latter will spend the summer.

G. C. Christenson has arranged to go to Eastern Oregon on an extended trip, his headquarters being Lexington, Morrow county. In the meantime Mrs. Christenson will visit relatives in Portland.

Married, on Wednesday evening of last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mackie, Mr.
Edda Kentner to Mrs. Biddie Cook, Rev. H. T. Cash officiating. A sumptuous wedding super-per followed the ceremony.

Fred Werth brought in some samples of wheat the other day measuring considerably over six feet and says he has a whole field like it. He doesn't want anyone to tell him that this isn't a good wheat country.

The graduating exercises of the Newberg High School will take place on Friday evening of next week in Duncan's opera house, the graduates being as follows: Anna Bashaw, Ella Nelson, Bessie Mills, Magnolia Tate, Tom Higgins, Mary Duncan, Claude Newlin, Lindsay Dudley, Grace Stone, Mabel Duncan, Vivienne Miller, Mabel Van-tress, Mabel Sykes and Florence Heston. The address to the class will be delivered by Rev. F.
H. Adams of McMinnville.

George Arthur Brown and Judge J. E. Magers, of Portland, closed the campaign here for the republicans Saturday night, both delivering forcible and telling addresses before a large audience in Duncan's opera house. Judge Magers was greeted by many old friends with whom he was intimate when a resident of the county, while Mr. Brown, a recent arrival in the state, made a good impression, both by his straightforward, forcible address, and his gentlemanly, social bearing.

On Friday of last week the Mc-Minnville Ladies' Self Improvement club, which has been taking the Bay View course on Austria-Hungary, were the guests of the Newberg ladies of the Wednesday club. Luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. F. A.
Elliott and the afternoon was spent in reviewing the work of the season to-gether. The Mc-Minnville club was represented by Mesdames Dr. Goucher, F. W.
Fenton, Wesley Houck, O. O.
Hodson, Dr. Leroy Lewis, Dr.
Michaux, D. H. Turner and White.

On last Friday Mrs. M. E.
Allen gave a family dinner in commemoration of the birthday anniversary of her mother, who would have been one hundred and five years old. The dinner was served in accordance with the customs of ye olden time of forty years ago, many of the dishes and vessels which were Mrs. Allen's mother's, being used. The decorations were made with the old fashioned flowers, and the contrasts of the old times with the new furnished an interesting topic of conversation for the guests. At the close of the dinner Mrs. Allen appeared before the company dressed in the garb her mother wore many years ago, even to the old Quaker bonnet, thus giving a farther glimpse backward into the days of auld lang syne.

Mr. Emery Dye, of Oregon City, was through here yesterday looking up a proposed route for some electric line promoters.

F. H. Caldwell, Dr. H. A. Littlefield, A. C. Sealey and Hugh Nelson have gone on a fishing trip over on the Little Nestucca river, expecting to be gone a fortnight.

The members of the W. C. T. U. and some others interested recently made comfort bags, filling them with articles needed by a woman turned out from home, and sent to the San Francisco sufferers.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hanson, who have been at Marion for some time, are visiting Newberg relatives. From here they will go to Portland next week where Lewis will resume work as city letter carrier.

Miss Violet Whitman and her mother, who have been visiting here for some time with the family of Jas. Comic, left yesterday for Spokane, Washington, where the former will resume hospital work as nurse.

The new college catalogues have been issued and are ready for distribution. Interested parties wishing copies, either for themselves or to send to others who might be interested, should call upon or address President H.
Edwin McGrew.

A pretty fair hay crop has been cut on the town commons and along the side streets between showers within the past several days, which the family cows about town have been turning into rich yellow cream—the accompaniment of the big red strawberries which have been disappearing by the wholesale.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott arrived home Sunday evening from their short California excursion.
They were as far south as Palo Alto, where they surveyed the ruins of Stanford University. At that place they saw Mr. and Mrs.
Van Leavitt and Mrs. Yergen.
They spent a short time only in San Francisco as they say it doesn't take long to take in the sights of that stricken city now.
A short, though pleasant visit was had at Berkeley with the family of Prof. J. J. Jessup and with Mrs. Anne Lamb and daughter May.

The Newberg Sash and Door Factory is starting up a branch factory at Rainier, Columbia county, on the Columbia river, in connection with a large sawmill operated there. Their plant is now in course of construction and will be in charge of Morris Heacock, who has been working up the proposition with the sawmill people there. Stock will be turned out for the plant here, to go into doors and windows, at a figure considerably less than that which has been paid, and which will materially effect the price of the finished product.
Morris left Tuesday morning for Rainier.

W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. H. C. Paulson next Thursday, 2.30 p. m.

Mrs. Priestly and young grandson returned home Monday evening from a visit with her son near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulheuron and son, Frank, were up from Portland to spend Decoration Day.

Sam Atkinson's friends are glad to see him able to be out again.

Children's Day exercises, held last Sunday morning, were good and well attended, a collection being taken up for the purpose of buying song books for the Sunday school.

Robert Walton highly entertained a number of his friends Monday afternoon. After "taking turns" in the big swing, rowing on the pond and playing games, ice cream, cake and oranges were served—then, as the day ended the happy young guests trooped homeward.

Remember there is no better flour than Chehalis Valley Mills Patent hard wheat flour.
