Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Cash will entertain the college Seniors at breakfast to-morrow morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Heacock arrived from Moro, Sherman county, Monday evening for a visit with the home relatives.

W. F. Marr, who arrived some weeks ago from Oklahoma, has purchased of Austin Bowman the Wm. McCollum farm north of town.

Miss Ione Hutchens, who has been teaching music in Sherman county, Eastern Oregon, arrived home for a vacation Saturday evening.

Dwight Coulson, Wilfred Pemberton, Arthur Wilson, Lynn Clough and Frank Elliott and son John attended the big field meet at Salem on Saturday.

Elmer Hollingsworth has made the purchase of C. C. Ferguson of the cottage which he is occupying east of the public school grounds.

H. F. Wilson, principal of the McMinnville public schools, came down to Newberg Monday and spent the day visiting the Newberg school.

Rev. H. L. Howard preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist church Sunday and on the following morning he and Mrs. Howard told Newberg friends goodbye and left for Kansas City.

Mrs. C. R. Coons and baby, of Clarkston, Washington, started home Tuesday after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemenson, and her sister Mrs. E. L. Evans and family.

Last Friday evening Mrs. Geo. H. Herriot received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Burke, at her home in New Lisbon, Wisconsin. She died suddenly, having been ill but two hours.

The annual school meeting will be held at the public school building next Monday afternoon at two o'clock, at which time a director and clerk will be elected and such other business transacted as may come up for consideration.

Elwood S. Minchin, who is on his way from Whittier, California, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he will represent the Pacific Coast states in the national prohibition oratorical contest, stopped off Monday evening for a visit at his home above Dundee. He called on Newberg friends Tuesday and visited the college. He continues his journey Friday. Here's to his success at Minneapolis.

Rev. Caleb Jenkins, formerly of San Francisco, who is on his way with wife and little daughter to Enterprise, Wallawa county, where he will take charge of the Friends church, spent Monday night in Newberg conferring with church workers. The Jenkins family were in Frisco at the time of the disaster, and it is a graphic story of the ordeal and of the days which followed, which he tells. Rev. Jenkins is an Englishman by birth.

Despite the short cherry crop the Springbrook Canning Company began operations last Thursday on early cherries, such as the Governor Wood and Major Francis, and the management expects to do something with Royal Annes later, though the run on cherries will be very light this year. There is a good berry crop in sight however, and with pears and other fruits which are plentiful the cannery will be kept busy as usual.

J. Aubrey Kramien, who has been teaching in Whittier College, California, the past year, made a brief visit with his parents here the first of the week. He was on his way east to Bloomington, Illinois, where he has accepted a position as secretary of the city Y. M. C. A.—a work to which he has been looking forward for some time, and to which he has been given a fine opening. He enters upon his new duties the 25th of this month.

Geo. H. Herriot left last week for St. Johns, where he is now engaged at carpenter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargent, of Portland, visited in town over Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. O. K. Edwards and family.

Miss Amy Heater departed Friday for Sultan, Washington, where she expects to work for some time in the family of Dr. H. B. Clough.

Seth Mills has had a very substantial addition built to his residence east of town at the hands of T. B. Cummings and son Claud.

Dr. George Larkin is in Portland this week in attendance at the meeting of the State Board of Dental Examiners of which he is a member.

Miss Anna Craven has been seriously ill for over two months with gastritis. While some better than she has been she is far from well.

Miss Mabel Blaylock closed a successful term of school on Chehalis mountain north of Newberg Friday. The feature of the "last day" exercises was a play given by the pupils under her supervision.

Mrs. W. F. Browning and Mr. D. S. McLain, of Portland, came up Saturday evening and spent Sunday out west of town with Fred Barrells. Mrs. Browning's mother, Mrs. Haskell, owns the place rented by Adelard Barrell.

An agent representing the Keystone View Company was here last week and enlisted some of the college boys in the service as canvassers for the coming summer. Their territory will be in Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Pres. Edwin McGrew, who has an eye for a good piece of horse flesh, made the purchase the first of the week of the well known six year old driving animal owned by Claud Ferguson. He will have the satisfaction of holding the lines over the finest roadster in this end of the county.

W. E. Terrell is arranging to erect a substantial, two story residence this summer on the site of their present home on Wynoski street. The cottage which they are now occupying he will have moved onto the vacant lots which he owns two or three blocks south, and will be for rent.

Mrs. W. H. Whitten and little daughter, who have been spending several months at San Diego, California, came north last week and stopped off here Thursday evening for a short visit with the Brouillette family, going on to their home out at Newport the following evening.

The Misses Anna and Grace Dudley, who have been teaching school the past year, the former at Albany and the latter at Coquille City, arrived home the latter part of the week and will spend the summer vacation at home here with their mother. They will both teach in the Coquille school next year.

On Friday evening the ninth grade pupils of the public school set a pattern for other classes, in rendering a program which partook largely of the nature of "class day." They invited the tenth grade students, who graduated to-morrow evening, relatives and a few friends to an entertainment, the nature of which was mock graduating exercises, in anticipation of the exercises of to-morrow night. Each graduate-to-be was impersonated by a ninth grader, to general delight, the program being carried out in full, to the conferring of the diplomas by Chris Smith and to the address to the class by Frank Moore, alias Rev. Adams of McMinnville. The students participating in the unique entertainment were: Fenlia Whitlaw, Lella Bixby, Agnes Rider, Helen Collard, Jessie Follett, Rodney Durst, Anna Morris, Iva Hughes, Gertrude Ward, Clemma Zumwalt, Belva Strait, May Mitchell, Ella Moffitt, Alice Driscoll, Nadine Bryan, Alice Durst, Chris Smith and Frank Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson went down to Portland yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the State Pioneer Association.

The German Methodist church will hold a campmeeting on the farm of Rev. Joseph Hepp, two and a half miles east of Newberg, June 28 to July 1 inclusive.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gubser and little daughter came down from the county seat the latter part of the week for a visit with Mrs. Gubser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hutchens.

Rev. Ezra F. Hasty, of Muncie, Indiana, who has been for some time in Southern California, stopped off here on his way east over Sunday and visited his cousin, Mrs. J. C. Hodson and family.

Carroll E. Kirk, boy's secretary of the Seattle Y. M. C. A., came in last night for a short visit with the home folks. He leaves the last of the week for Gearhart, to attend the big Y. M. C. A. convention.

There's nothing to it in Newberg to-day but the circus. The Burch & Reiss show people came in on a special of a dozen cars, put up their tent on the town commons and are raking in the shekels. It beats the Fourth of July for the small boy.

From all present indications the pruee crop in this vicinity this year will be an eye opener. Despite the fact that there are some forty evaporators in the neighborhood, growers predict that there will be no little difficulty in getting the crop taken care of.

Mrs. H. R. Morris and Mrs. Josephine Bradley took their pupils out on a picnic Saturday, all gathering at the schoolhouse in the morning with well filled dinner baskets and going out west of town into the country where they spent the day very pleasantly.

John Dunstan is again in the harness as a business man and at his old stand, he having purchased H. G. Miller's interest in the feed and implement business of Miller & Wright. He sold his place in Tillamook county on the Trask river and lost no time in opening negotiations looking toward settling in Newberg again and evidently is as well pleased to be back as his friends are to have him. Mrs. Dunstan will not come on for some weeks yet. It is Mr. Miller's intention to see something of Eastern Oregon before determining future plans.

While a little slow about it, through no fault of its own however, the Graphic wishes to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Hamnett, whose marriage was solemnized by Rev. H. T. Cash on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hamnett Sr. The bride, an English lassie who has been here about one year, was Miss Beatrice Andrews, and is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dews, who made their home here for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Hamnett will make their home with his parents for the present.

It looked as if all Newberg, reinforced by the surrounding country, lined up on First street Friday evening to see the wheelbarrow ride, as a result of the election wagers made by Geo. Sykes and Geo. Young on the governorship and by C. B. Wilson and A. P. Oliver on the state senatorship. By the exigency of events, Young and Oliver were privileged to do the riding—the other boys did the rest. The procession started at the Bank of Newberg corner and was led by the band. The wheelbarrows, gaily decorated, with their occupants, came next, the wheelers taking up the white man's burden with a "to do or die" expression. The rear was brought up with boys bearing aloft appropriate banners. The line of march was west to Main street and back again, various stops being made for refreshments along the way. Lots of fun for everybody.
