Park to take his vacation and Harbor and inspect some of the

The rumble of thunder was heard last Saturday, reminding the people of experiences "back east." Just a little is sufficient to satisfy most people.

up from Ranier this week feeding at their respective parents tables and in the meantime Morris is lending a hand at the sash and door factory.

W. P. Heacock, of the sash and door factory at Newberg, was here Wednesday looking over the plant of his son, W. H. Heacock. He is well pleased at the prospects of the plant here. This plant will furnish much material for the big plant at Newberg.—

There are cucumbers and then we sometimes hear the term "cucumber" used. It must have been the fruit of the latter vine that A. L. Stevens was marketing Monday for he said twenty-four of them weighed twenty and a half pounds and they had not "gone to seed" either.

Miss Mary Herd, the eighteen year old daughter of Thomas Herd who was operated on last Saturday for appendicitis, died on Monday. Funeral services were conducted at the home by John Shires Tuesday afternoon and at the grave by Rev. W. S.
Lowrie. The son James, who was suffering from the same trouble, though not so seriously ill, was taken to a Portland hospital the same day the funeral was held, for surgical aid. The family have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

Mrs. G. H. Herriot and children went to St. Johns last Saturday to spend a week with Mr. brother in Seattle, was in town one day last week getting acquainted with the people who know the Mitchell family.

gram from La Grande Wednesday morning announcing the death of his father. The news was not unexpected as he was quite old and not in good health.

The county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Dundee August 8th and 9th. Mrs.
Lucia F. Additon will be in attendance. A matron's contest will be the feature of the evening program.

E. A. L. Corbett, wife and little daughter, of Portland visited in town the first of the week with his cousins, Mrs. Fields, W. F. and C. A. Marr. Mr. Corbett has charge of the Meier & Frank livery stable in the city.

J. L. Hoskins received word a few days ago from his son-inganoxie, Kansas, announcing the death of the latter's mother who had been an invalid for sev-

Mrs. Grace Barrie and little son visited in town with Mrs. F.

E. S. Craven has sold his second crop of clover to Mr. Mc-tons. It is understood that the hay is to be fed to Mr. Ladd's fine calves.

A. H. Frilinger, of Rex, was married last week in Portland to Miss Eva Guignon. The newly married couple came to New-berg Monday evening and remained until Wednesday. They will spend a little time at some of the pleasure resorts up the Columbia before settling down to everyday life.

A young hopeful, who had secured a promise from the head of the family a few days ago of a trip to the creek, gave out the information that he expected to swim across the "swimmin hole." The banter was taken by the unsuspecting parent who replied that he would give the urchin a nickel for each time he made it. No sooner was the "hole" reached than the race began, and from the way the boys tell the story it appears that when the lad had made the swim the eleventh time, "dad" insisted that it was time to "come out" and proceeded to call the race off. The moral is that as the summer days lengthen it is not a safe proposition to bank too much on what the small boy can't do in the water, if your pocket change is short.

Prof. Harvey D. Crumley and family will go to Newport this week for a few days recreation.

Mrs. E. V. Littlefield and little son, of Sherman county, are in town visiting with Mrs. Maggie Littlefield.

A lengthy article from the pen of a lady contributor, who pays her respects to the city fathers, had to go over for next week's issue.

A Mrs. Teas was up from Portland last Sunday visiting with Miss Jennie D. Miller and Mrs. Lizzie White. The Teas and White families were neighbors at Lawrence, Kansas, years ago.

J. M. Wright and wife, who have been located at Ontario for several months, are back again.
They will look after the big prune crop on the ranch north of town, after which they will decide about their location for the winter.

Mrs. Sarah Riley, who has been visiting with her brother A.
E. Moore west of town for several weeks, went to the Collins hot springs on the upper Columbia the first of the week, hoping to get relief from a severe attack of the rheumatism.

F. M. Rowland and son, of McMinnville have bought the confectionery business of Mr.
Moore of the Gazelle store and will fit it up for the trade. Both father and son are said to be greatly interested in band music and it is understood that they will join in and help out the band boys with their music.

Dwight Coulson arrived home from the Little Nestucca Wednesday morning, carrying a box of trout in one hand and a bucket of fish stories in the other. He says the fishing was first class and his "luck" all he could ask for. The largest fish landed was a salmon trout weighing three pounds.

Miss Esther Andrews, whose home is at Whittier, California, has been elected as a member of the faculty of Pacific College for next year. She is a graduate of Whittier College and also of Stanford University, both of which institutions give her excellent recommendations. The Whittier Register says of her:
"The friends of Miss Esther Andrews are congratulating her on her election as a member of the faculty of Pacific College, New-berg, Oregon. Miss Andrews specialized in German through her course at Whittier College and the past year continued the study at Stanford University.
At both the college and university she stood at the head of her classes in modern languages so that she has every promise of success in her chosen field of teaching."

No More "Gallon House."

It has been common street talk from day to day, since the closing of the Kinney resort across the river, that some one else was going to open a saloon again at the same place and many questions have been put to the Graphic by people who are opposed to it. We are glad to be able to announce that the house will not be reopened. A conference was held with Hugh Gearin a few days ago, he being the owner of the land on which the "gallon house" was located, and he stated that he had no desire to antagonize the people of New-berg in any way and gave positive assurance, that, although parties were offering him good rent for the privilege, the house would remain closed and no more liquors would be sold there.
The matter of the permanent disposal of this resort of bad repute has been uppermost in the minds of the better element in Newberg for several months, and the announcement of the final outcome of the affair will be hailed with gladness. Eternal vigilance is not only the price of liberty, but the price of a good name for a town as well. New-berg is going to pay the price.
