MITCHELL BOYS ARRESTED.

Brothers of George and Esther Found With Drunken Party.

Fred and Perry Mitchell, brothers of George and Esther Mitchell, the leading figures in the late Holy Roller murders at Seattle, were on Saturday night arrested for drunkenness in Portland and locked up in the police station over night. The Mitchell boys signed under assumed names of R. Russell and Charles Russell, respectively. With them were two friends, who also gave the assumed names of Jim Smith and Ben Russell. Perry Mitchell, or Charles Russell, as the police supposed his name to be, was released without being held for trial, as he was not intoxicated, the charge against him being late hours. The others of the party were held under bail to appear before Judge Cameron. When court time came none of the party appeared, and their bail was declared forfeited. The identity of the Mitchell boys was only discovered by chance, a friend inquiring for them at the station. It has been stated that the boys were in a drunken row. This the Mitchell boys deny. The party, excepting Perry Mitchell, had been drinking, they declare, and they and their comrades were on the best of terms when taken into custody by Officer Mallett.

Crushed By Wagons.

C. W. Taylor, son of C. A. Taylor who lives on a ranch two miles west of Newberg, was accidentally killed in Portland last Saturday. It was expected that the remains would be brought here for burial Tuesday morning, but word was received that the relatives of Mrs. Taylor residing in Minnesota had wired a request for the body to be taken there for burial, which was done. A Portland paper gives the following account of the accident:
 C. W. Taylor, a teamster in the employ of the North Pacific Lumber Company, was crushed to death yesterday forenoon by being caught between two heavy wagons at the company's mill grounds. The accident was an unusual one, and according to John Halberg, the one eye-witness of the tragedy, no one was to blame.
 According to Halberg's version

Taylor was driving a heavy load of lumber through the yards when his road became blocked by another heavy wagon, which he attempted to pass where there was not enough room. Unhitching his team, he attached the horses to the rear of the obstacle to pull it clear of the road. As he whipped up the team the wagon moved against his own vehicle, imprisoning him. His right arm and side were horribly crushed and death followed almost instantly. The body was taken at once to the morgue. Taylor was 35 years old and leaves a widow.

Hewitt—When I was on the boat the other night I had a lower berth.

Jewett—Sort of overslept yourself, eh?

Don't be Blue

And loose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba, Alabama, writes: "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me. Sold by Chas. F. Moore."

"Can anyone tell me what a palmist is?" asked the teacher.

"I know, teacher. It's a woman who uses her hand instead of a slipper."

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household.

Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by C. F. Moore.

"The race is not always to the swift."

"No," said farmer Jinks, looking reminiscent, "but the swift is most always to the races."

In Great Demand.

The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy here has been so great that I have scarcely been able to keep it in stock. It has cured cases of dysentery here when all other remedies failed.—Frank Jones, Pikeville, Indiana. This remedy is for sale by C. F. Moore.

"I don't see why she isn't happy with him. He's certainly very attentive to her."

"That's just it. She argues that he couldn't be so attentive to her if he hadn't had a lot of experience with some one else."

A Mystery Solved.

"How to keep off periodic attacks of biliousness and habitual constipation was a mystery that Dr. King's New Life Pills solved for me," writes John N. Pleasant, of Magnolia, Indiana. The only pills that are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction to everybody or money refunded. Only 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co's. drug store.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the first M. E. church, Little Falls, Minnesota, writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by C. F. Moore.

Mrs. Jones—My, what a dirty tramp. Why don't you wash yourself?

Tramp—Out of respect to me poor old mother. When I was a boy she said to me: "Hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

Galveston's Sea Wall

Makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton street, in Waco, Texas, needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption for the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic coughs, laryngitis, croup, whooping cough and prevents pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at F. H. Caldwell & Co's. drug store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Son—Why, pop, he said he caught a trout in our creek fifteen inches long. I never knew they grew to be that long.

Father—They do, my son, after the story has been told a few times.

Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. For sale by C. F. Moore.

Teacher—How do you account for the phenomenon of dew?

Boy—Well, you see, the earth revolves on its axis every twenty-four hours, and in consequence of this tremendous pace it perspires freely.

The End of the World

Of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of general debility." Sure cure for all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, blood diseases, headache, dizziness and weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed at F. H. Caldwell & Co's. drug store.
