T. H. Thorn and family, Mrs. G. U. Snapp, Mrs. Clifford Cady and Mrs. J. B. Parker left for the Little Nestucca beach Thursday morning, expecting to be gone a week.

J. C. McCrea and family arrived home from a two weeks sojourn at Ocean Park Sunday evening. This a favorite resort for Newberg people who make the overland trip to the beach.

Lon Pressnall who sold his residence some time ago to L. A. Gray, of Idaho, will vacate this week and the property will be occupied by Mrs. Gray's mother, Mrs. Young and daughter who have been living on River street.

Mrs. A. B. Manley, of Portland, and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Kelly, of North Yakima, visited in town the first of the week with Mrs. W. W. Nelson. Mrs. Manley and Mrs. Nelson were schoolmates in their girlhood days.

Sam Linton and H. Chase are arranging to put in a sawmill on the Heater land near Springbrook where they estimate there is two or three million feet of saw timber. Jesse Edwards and others operated a mill at that point more than twenty years ago and cut quite a large amount of lumber.

Work on C. J. Edwards' seven room cottage with large basement is progressing nicely and he hopes to be able to move into the new home about the middle of September. He is to be commended for selecting a design that is different from anything else in town. A variety of architecture is restful to the eye and also adds a hundred per cent to the beauty of a town.

West Chehalem.

Miss Lelia Lady of Sheridan is visiting with her sister Mrs. Ed Nissen.

A. and E. W. Bartholomew spent Sunday at H. M. Dix's.

Miss Evelyn Dix visited over night with the Misses Dudley of Newberg last Friday.

County W. C. T. U. Convention.

The twenty-third annual convention of Yamhill county W. C. T. U. was held in Dundee Thursday and Friday, August 9 and 10. At the suggestion of the state president, Mrs. Addison the convention was opened by singing the Victory song. A prayer and praise service conducted by the evangelistic superintendent was participated in by nearly every one present.

The roll call of officers was responded to by most of the general officers and several superintendents. After the appointment of committees a lengthy paper was read by Mrs. Scott on the subject of Purity. This paper contained many good thoughts. The noon tide hour of prayer was observed, after which the Dundee ladies spread a very bountiful lunch. At 2 p. m. the convention resumed work. The welcome address was given by Mrs. Hunter of Dundee, response by Mrs. White and Miss Palmer of Dayton. The county president's annual address was then read. This address was full of good thoughts for workers.

Miss Edith Minchin read an excellent paper, subject "Elements of Success in Union Work." A question box conducted by the state president brought out many valuable thoughts.

The contest held at night was made up of four contestants from Dayton, Dundee and Newberg, Mrs. Berrie of Dayton winning the medal.

Friday morning's devotional was conducted by the county superintendent of evangelistic work, Mrs. Newlin.

Election of officers was next in order. The state president invoked the blessing of God on this important part of the program. Mrs. Morris of Newberg, was unanimously elected president. Mrs. Royce of Newberg, was elected corresponding secretary, Miss Minchin Dundee, recording secretary, Mrs. Kulper Dayton, treasurer, Mildred Wills Chehalem Center, vice president at large.

After noontide prayer another bountiful lunch was spread. The afternoon was devoted to reports of superintendents and committees. The convention adjourned at 4 p. m.
