Local Events.Herbert Coffin visited in New-berg over Sunday at the Coffin homestead.Jas. Vestal and Maynard Redmond attended the holiness camp meeting in Portland Sunday.Pres. Edwin McGrew went down to the Butteville neighborhood Monday and conducted the funeral of Mrs. Geo. Cone who died on the preceding Saturday.Assistant Principal F. H. Buchanan who has been spending the summer as fire warden for the Southern Pacific out from Junction City in Lane county, got back home Friday.Jas. Allen, of Long Beach, California, visited here the latter part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Osborn. He is making a tour of the coast, after which he will go east on a visit.A Mr. Hamlin, engaged in a Seattle bank, who, accompanied by his mother, had been spending a two weeks' vacation northwest of town with his uncle J. S.
B. McNay and family, returned to his business the last of the week.Mrs. Ruth Heston and son Jay, who have been making their home near Dayton, Washington, for some time, arrived home Friday evening. Having sold their old home here they expect to build a cottage on Wynooski street, just north of the Austin Keeney home.S. J. Madson left Saturday to look after the interests of his Lane county farm near Creswell, expecting to be gone two weeks.
In the meantime patrons of the home telephone will please refrain from giving "central" unnecessary worry over little details as to the service.County Surveyor R. W. Jones was engaged in this vicinity the last of the week. He intends to place an efficient deputy in the surveyor's office as he himself is arranging to take up a course of study as a mining engineer, at the University of Oregon in all probability.Miss Elizabeth Kirk arrived home last Thursday evening from a month's visit on Puget Sound, three weeks of which were spent with a friend at Port Townsend and a week with her brother Carrol at Seattle, where he is boys' secretary of the city Y. M. C. A. At the latter place she also saw Mr. and Mrs. C. F.
Burrows, graduates of Pacific College, to whom a daughter, Gladys Evelyn, was born the middle of last month.Wm. Stratton, who had been spending a couple of weeks in Polk county in the Falls City timber district, erecting bunk houses, etc., for the Spaulding Logging Company's new logging camp, came in Saturday morning. He says a good force of men is busy in that section and that some big sticks of timber, some of them having a diameter of seven feet, will be rolling in at the Newberg mill by rail some of these days. The Dallas papers will please take note and check 'em up as they go through. It will help swell the Dallas freight totals—and Newberg is willing to "help some."Paul Rader, of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, to whose efficient leadership is largely due the great inroads which the League is making on the liquor forces of Oregon, was in Newberg over Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rader, who by the way has become Mrs. Rader since the successful issue of the election of June, and is prima facie evidence of the fact that Mr. Rader is capable of conducting two momentous campaigns at the same time and bringing both to a successful conclusion. In the evening he delivered a masterful, thrilling address in the Friends church along the line of his important work and to which a much larger audience would have listened had the meeting been properly advertised.Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor visited in the county seat with relatives Sunday.D. R. Jackson visited at St.
Johns Saturday and Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. R. C.
Braden and family.Chas. Nichols, a Nebraskan who has been living for a little time at Junction City, has been about town the past week looking for a location.O. O. Hodson came down from McMinnville Sunday to spend the day with his friend T. B.
Cummings, who remains in rather poor health.Mrs. S. B. Moffit left Friday for Seattle where she will spend some time with her daughters, four of them being at present located at the Sound city.A Mr. and Mrs. York are recent arrivals from Everett, Washington, having come to Newberg to take work in the biblical department of Pacific College.Sunday's Oregonian contained good pictures of Aubrey Kramien and his bride, who are at home at Bloomington, Illinois, where he is educational director of the Y. M. C. A.Miss Esther C. Andrews, of Whittier, California, graduate of Stanford University and one of the new members of the Pacific College faculty, is expected to arrive from the South this evening.Hon. W. R. Ellis, of Pendleton, Oregon's congressman from the Second district, came to New-berg Monday to make arrangements looking toward placing a son in Pacific College.The senior editor of the Graphic will go to Newport to-morrow to join his fellow editors of the state in the annual meeting of the State Press association. He appears on the program to give the ins and outs of special editions from personal experience.The faculty of Pacific College has been made complete by the election of Prof. Edwin R. Hadley, of San Dimas, California, to the chair of Science. He comes from a strong institution, the University of Southern California, and has specialized in Biology. Though President McGrew has been in correspondence with him for some months, he was not finally secured until last week.All kinds of products for the Yamhill County School Fair except bread should be taken in to the county seat on the 24th.
Bread may be brought in on the 25th or any day of the fair. The products should be taken to the Jones and Adams Planing Mill site at the west end of Main street. It is reported that the much talked of milking machine, which attracted wide attention at the state fair, will be operated at McMinnville during the county fair.The new year of Pacific College opens next Tuesday with prospects bright for a good, full school. A large number of the students will not be in for some days however, owing to the general press of work in the valley just now, and there will be no public exercises on opening day.
The formal opening exercises will take place on the following Friday evening in the college chapel which the public is cordially invited to attend. A good program will be provided, a fuller announcement of which will be made next week.G. W. Hume, residing northeast of Newberg, was introduced to a stranger in town Saturday.
The latter remarked that his wife's maiden name was Hume, and conversation soon developed the fact that she was one of two long lost cousins of whom Mr.
Hume had heard nothing for twenty years or more. Both the cousins are now in Portland, one of them residing in the city and the other visiting, and Mr.
Hume took the evening train for Portland and spent Sunday with his newly found relatives. They were as ignorant of his whereabouts as he of theirs.Nels Nelson and family came over from Carlton Wednesday to attend the Nelson-Jones wedding.Hear Prof. Farrington, the Wisconsin authority on dairying, at Duncan's Opera House this evening.B. F. Halladay has sold what is known as the fish pond place east of Newberg to a man named Converse.Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Martin came down from Grand Mound, Washington, the first of the week to attend the marriage of the latter's sister, Miss Nettie Jones.Miss Edna B. Huntley, daughter of Mrs. Theda M. Huntley, was married here last evening to Arthur T. Moore, of Astoria, where the young people will make their home.Walter and Cliff Spaulding drove out from Yaquina Bay behind their pony some days ago.
They took their leisure for it through the mountains and greatly enjoyed the trip.The local committee arranging Newberg's exhibit at the county fair next week requests that all exhibits be brought to the schoolhouse Monday morning from the hours of nine to eleven o'clock.R. B. Linville, who makes a business of looking after pensions for soldiers and soldiers' widows, received word a few days ago that a pension had been granted to the widow of B. B. Cornell.Chase & Linton are progressing nicely in the construction of their Springbrook sawmill, located on Grant Heater's place.
The lower part of the mill is complete and by the latter part of next week they expect to be sawing lumber with which to finish the upper part. By the middle of the month they expect to be ready for business."Newberg Hook and Ladder Company No. 1-1900." This is the way that brave new sign reads, the object of general admiration, which the "Hooks" hoisted above the door of the city hall and fire house Monday.
It was purchased with that sixty per cent of gate receipts from a certain ball game played in the not very distant past of which it will serve as a memorial.Walter Miles, who returned from his summer's work as fire warden for the Southern Pacific Sunday and who leaves for Ear-ham College the latter part of the week, reports that he has been having some great sport fishing and hunting the festive deer. As an instance of his success he says he and a companion pulled out ninety-eight trout from one pool and with one hook in thirty minutes. This is a good story but it is liable to test Walter's long established reputation as a follower of the hero of the little hatchet story.The management of the Margarita Fischer Co. announces that it is on its sixth and farewell tour, and will appear in Newberg for a three night engagement, opening September 24th. The Company has just returned from an extended tour in California and is claimed by the management to be stronger than ever. Popular prices—seats on sale at both drug stores.FALL MILLINERY OPENING.Friday and Saturday, September
