down on the Columbia, is at home for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mary E. Allen went to Eugene Tuesday where she will remain during the fall and winter with her daughter, Mrs. Guy E.
Metcalfe.

W. E. White has rebuilt the E.
Robinson property on River street and it now looks like altogether another place. This is a practical demonstration of evolution.

Senator John M. Gearin, who spent Sunday with his brother Hugh Gearin at the old farm home across the river, took the morning train here Monday for Portland.

The Newberg Meat Company brought in a drove of eighteen head of beef cattle from the upper Willamina country last week, that are said to be the best lot of beef cattle ever brought to this market.

C. E. Shirley was in town the first of the week visiting with his brother Luther Shirley. His home is at Chico, California, and he is on his way to his former home in Kentucky where he will spend the winter.

The new engine and dynamo for the electric light plant arrived a few days ago and are being put in place. When the new machinery is gotten into running order the company will be ready to supply power to all who want it.

Prof. J. S. Carrick reports a good attendance of music students at the college and a bright outlook for the work in his department for the year. Anyone desiring instruction in vocal or instrumental music will do well to see him early.

Mrs. Rose and daughter, mother and sister of Mrs. R. W.
Harrold, arrived here Tuesday evening from Spokane. Another sister will follow later. They are making a tour of the northwest and will visit in Newberg for some time.

At the age of eighty-three years and six months, Mr. Edwards, father of Mrs. C. H. Eggers, died in Portland, Monday, October 1, of cancer of the throat. The remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

J. M. Shaw has sold his second hand store to A. Fencel and son who recently came here from Fresno, California. Mr. Shaw has not decided fully what he will engage in but we hope to see him remain here and engage in some business.

Mrs. R. W. Kelsey, who is returning from an extended visit with her parents in Indiana, is in town visiting for a few days before going on to Berkeley to join her husband, who is teaching and taking some graduate work in the university this year.

Wilfred Pemberton was down from Salem Tuesday.

L. M. Parker and wife visited at Eugene the first of the week with Lon Hills.

Attorney R. L. Conner was down from McMinnville last Saturday.

Mrs. H. F. Allen left here last week expecting to go to Vancouver, B. C. to visit with her mother.

J. N. and J. M. Wood removed with their families to St. Johns the first of the week where they have property.

Regular preaching services are now held on Sunday evenings at the German Methodist church east of town.

Walter R. Miles writes that he is comfortably situated at Barl-ham College and he anticipates a very pleasant and profitable year.

Rev. Caleb, Jenkins, of Enterprise, preached a very logical sermon to a good sized audience at Friends church last Sunday night.

Miss S. J. Hoskins, sister of Mrs. J. H. Rees went to Newport Tuesday, expecting to stop at the Minthorn sanitarium for a short time.

Dr. E. P. Dixon was up from Grants Pass a day or two last week looking after his farm above Dundee, which he has named "Walnut Springs."

Ernest Bales and Warner Mills left for Oilcenter, California, Thursday, where they expect to get work at the oil wells. When they get settled they expect to send for their wives.

On next Sunday evening Prof.
F. S. Scharenberg will deliver a free lecture at the German Methodist church east of town, beginning at seven o'clock, on the first principles of astronomy.

D. C. Atkins, who is seventy-six years old, returned from the hop yards the first of the week, where he lived in a tent, boarded himself and picked a ton and a half of hops.

Nels P. Jensen came down from Sherman county last Saturday and remained a few days with his family. He returned Wednesday and will spend about a month carpentering before coming home again.

The total enrollment of the public school is four hundred and eighty-four and there are so many more in sight that the school board anticipates the necessity of fitting up another room and adding another teacher.

Among the large number of marriage licenses issued will be noticed that of Miss Isora M.
Edmiston to Lewis H. Baker.
The bride will be remembered by Newberg people as a very capable teacher, who spent one year in the public school here.

John Mackenzie, who lived in the Chehalis Center community north of Newberg for several years, but who left his farm and went to Portland some time last year to live, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital a few days ago. He was in Newberg a short time ago but was then in very poor health.

Logs from the big drive of the Spaulding Logging company have been arriving in large numbers during the week and it is expected that the mill will start up again the first of next week.
A large force of men are also at work laying the track for the big switch at the mill and everything will soon be in readiness for transporting logs by rail from the timber above Falls City.

Rev. Herbert T. Cash came down from Baring, Washington, last Saturday, where they have been living since the first of July.
At the earnest request of the pastoral committee of Friends church he has consented to return to Newberg and take up the work as pastor again. He has rented the J. C. Hodson property across the canyon and hopes to be here next week to begin his work.

The Foresters of America will meet in I. O. O. F. hall first and third Mondays of each month.

Aleen Blaylock, who has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Heacock came up from Rainer to attend the funeral of Mr. Heacock's little brother which was held Thursday morning.

Lewis Balsiger and family, from Ione, arrived in town Wednesday morning and are visiting with Mrs. Balsiger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McNay.

Raymond M., the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heacock died Tuesday after a very short illness. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday morning.

The long continued bright weather prevailing since the first rains has been greatly appreciated, but farmers who are wanting to prepare the soil for seeding will welcome the rains that are now being carried over the valley by the southwest winds.

Since Sam McVey lost his team that fell overboard from the scow and was drowned, it seems to be difficult to get others to take up the work of loading the scow with gravel. Too bad to see the work stop as much good work was being done on the roads leading toward town.

J. J. Woods was called to Salem the first of the week to appear before the grand jury as a witness in the shooting scrape that took place at St. Paul last month, in which one man lost his life and another is still lingering with little hope of his recovery. Bad whiskey and lots of it was at the bottom of the affair.

A half dozen drunken galoots, headed for Dallas, made themselves very obnoxious to the passengers on Wednesday evening's train and the way they yelled when the train stopped at the stations along the line was something hideous. The whole outfit ought to have been dumped from the train out of consideration for the decent passengers.

Made in Germany.

The following little anecdote, says the London Tribune, comes from an English resident in a German household where English only is spoken at table:

Gretchen—Mother, in the milk pail was a dead mouse.

Mother—Well, hast thou it thereout taken?

Gretchen—No, I have the cat therein thrown.

LADIES!

Jack says you need a new coat

Of course it is none of Jack's business, but when Mr. Jack Frost comes around, its hardly necessary for him to speak, his presence bids you rush to the best store and pick out a becoming garment. If you'll come here, you'll come to the best store and the best stock.

If we can't please you, don't buy.
