Local Events.

C. S. Calkins has sold his interest in the feed and implement business to W. E. White.

Mrs. Edna Lamb came over from Tillamook last week to attend the funeral of her brother, Irving Stratton.

Eli Evans has sold his blacksmith shop to a German who was formerly a neighbor of the Werths in South Dakota.

S. P. Timberlake who has been teaming in Portland during the summer and fall has returned home again with his family.

W. J. Jones went to Umatilla county this week to do some carpenter work for his son-in-law, Mike McKern. He will probably remain during the winter.

Silas Moon, who returned from Alaska about a month ago was in town a day or two last week. On Friday he left here for Caldwell, Idaho, to take a look at the country.

Sam Hall and family of Portland visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowman north of town last Sunday. Mr. Hall is engineer for the steel bridge across the river owned by the O. R. & N. Co.

Martin Walton, a prominent Portland real estate dealer, was up Sunday visiting with his brother Howard Walton on the farm north of town. For a home making community he thinks Newberg beats them all and so say we all.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott returned home from La Grande Sunday evening, her sister, Mrs. A. T. Hill, and son Thomas coming with her for a visit. Mrs. Elliott has been in Portland during the week attending the meetings of the state federation of women's clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper, of McMinnville, passed through town on their way home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Cooper was away on a visit in Missouri for several weeks and Cal was all smiles over the prospect of a hot supper when they arrived home.

Miss Alverta Meats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meats was married last Friday in Portland to John O. Andreas. The bride grew up in Newberg where she has many young friends and the groom is a well known business man, a member of the grocery firm of Andreas Bros.

S. N. Slyter, who sold his home, consisting of nine acres, located a half mile northwest of town, where he built a new house during the summer, has moved into town and is occupying one of J. P. Johnson's houses. The purchaser of the property was George R. Barringer, who recently arrived here from Wisconsin.

Charley Burrows, who holds the position of bookkeeper for the Seattle Star, was in Portland on business the first of the week and came up to Newberg to spend a day with former Newberg friends. He is in good health and reports the coming of a baby girl to brighten their home, who is now three months old.

The funeral of Irving Stratton was held at the home of his father on Wynoski street Sunday afternoon at 2.30, the services being conducted by Rev. Herbert T. Cash, assisted by President McGrew and singing by Miss Mabel Edwards, Mrs. O. K. Edwards, F. K. Jones and W. C. Woodward. The pall bearers were Owen R. Maris, Fay Sims and Herbert Coffin, of Portland, Curtis Parker, Clarence Coe and Maynard Redmond, of Newberg. A large number of people were in attendance.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hodson on last Friday, a son.

Miss Catharine Grohs, a friend of Christ F. Held was up from Portland last Sunday.

D. H. Turner and daughter, Miss Carrie, were down from McMinnville last Sunday to attend the funeral of I. Stratton.

Mrs. Don Gates, of Astoria, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bowman north of town.

The ranch John Nelson traded for is located near Blodgett, Benton county, instead of Derry as noted last week.

Mrs. Bird Partridge was up from Portland the first of the week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson.

The article published last week under the head of "The Bible in the Public Schools" should have been credited to Mrs. Phebe Hammer instead of Mrs. W. R. Carter.

Miss Jennette Lierman, daughter of Mrs. A. Lierman, was married to Arthur W. Hepp, Thursday, October 25, at the home of the groom's father, Rev. Joseph Hepp, in Salem.

Willis Townsend and wife came up from Astoria the first of the week to attend the funeral of the latter's brother, Bert Bowman. Mrs. Townsend will remain and visit with her mother for several days.

Drs. H. D. and Alice Bowers attended a meeting of the Oregon Osteopathic Association held in Portland last Saturday. They report an attendance of thirty members of the association and a meeting full of interest.

Mrs. H. L. Lloyd and four months old daughter of Seattle, Washington, are visiting with Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Moffit north of town, while the carpenters and plasterers are finishing their new home in the city.

While the enrollment of the public school was four hundred and seventy-five at this time last year, the enrollment has now reached five hundred and forty. Miss Agnes Richmond, a new teacher from Dayton began work the first of the week, taking a part of the third grade.

The school board "launched" a new wagon for hauling the children in from the territory west of town last week. It has a long box covered with canvas and seats on each side that will hold thirty-five children. When all are in it makes a pretty good load for a team and before spring the cry will be "more gravel."

Albert Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bowman, died at Harrison, Idaho, last Sunday of typhoid fever at the age of twenty-five years and ten months. The remains were brought to Newberg for burial, funeral services being held at Hollingsworth's undertaking parlors Wednesday morning by Rev. C. K. Hamilton.

Willis Townsend, who was up from Astoria this week for the first time in seven years, remarked that there had been so many changes made about town that he hardly knew where he was "at." He is manager of a big box factory in Astoria, a position he has held for several years. W. N. Sutton, a former resident of Newberg, is also in the same factory.

The first train load of logs to come from the Coast mountain timber belt above Falls City for the Spaulding Logging Company arrived here Tuesday morning, consisting of eight cars of logs and aggregating nearly one hundred thousand feet of lumber. When some adjustments are made with the machinery for unloading the logs, regular trains will arrive daily, carrying about twelve cars. The big monsters of the forest are placed on a long chute at the river bank where they slide into the river with a "kersplash" that is liable to jar the nerves of all the big suckers in the Willamette.

Mrs. C. Ward has removed from Rex to Newberg.

Rev. Marion George came up from Portland Saturday and preached at Springbrook Sunday.

Roy Bates was down from Rosedale last Sunday looking after his interest in a promising claim near town.

Samuel Pyle, of Pasadena, California, who is on his way home from a trip to Iowa and Indiana, stopped off here Tuesday evening for a visit with Frank Taylor.

A neat barn has been erected on the lots located on Fourth street and recently purchased by the German Methodist church, and a parsonage is well under course of construction.

Mrs. J. L. Hoskins went to Dallas Wednesday evening to attend the wedding of her nephew, Louis F. Hadley, of Dayton, who was married at 8.30 in the evening to Ethel Winona Ballantyne, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Ballantyne.

A deputy United States marshal came up from Portland Wednesday and gathered in a French sailor who had deserted from a vessel in the Portland harbor. He was stopping with Ernest LeFaivre on his ranch out on R. F. D. No. 2. On sight of the marshal in company with City Marshal J. J. Woods, he took to the timber but was captured later and taken back to Portland.

Senator F. H. Caldwell went to Walla Walla the first of the week in company with a number of the other members of the legislature, to make an investigation of the inner workings of the jute mills operated by the Washington authorities at the penitentiary. They were banqueted by Governor Meade in royal style and given all the information possible by the officials.

Chehalis Center.

The new church building is beginning to loom up now under the management of Jeremiah Osborne.

Miss Bertha Nicholson made a few days visit at "Windmere," the home of Mrs. Chase, last week.

Jesse Hammer decided to come home from Newport and attend college. Miss Laura is also taking up the work in college this year.

A brother of Mr. H. Walton's came out from Portland and visited over Sunday at Bonny View.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Shires, A. J. Palmer and Mrs. Mary Johnson and sons made the trip overland to McMinnville Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. and Miss Maude Wills were visiting old friends in Portland last week.

The friends of Jno. Nelson and family were sorry to lose them but are ready to wish them good luck in their new home.

The last W. C. T. U. Meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Tangen. Mr. Tangen became an honorary member. Dues to the amount of four dollars were taken in. The hostess served cake and coffee. The Union meets next Thursday at "Shady Nook," the home of Mrs. Newhouse. Upon investigation it has been learned that a man named Jones goes to McMinnville where the voters names are recorded and sends the names in to the liquor dealers in Portland and gets, for his trouble, fifty cents a hundred names. Now that is a soft snap and one reason the voters are persecuted with these neat solicitous letters marked "personal" on the envelopes.

Kenneth Chase is at work again after being laid up with a seriously cut foot the past ten days.

Warren Alumbaugh died Monday night after a short illness. Profound sympathy goes out to his sorrowing friends in their bereavement.
