Local Events.

Lewis Hanson was up from Portland Tuesday and Wednesday.

Claud Gatch, of Salem, the bank examiner, was in town Monday.

George Tamplin, a former resident of Newberg, was down from Sheridan last Saturday.

Asa Morse has moved to Portland with his family where he has secured a position with the Hawk printing company.

Charley Mackie and family left here Wednesday morning for Ashland, hoping the change may be beneficial to Mrs. Mackie's health.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott invited in a few of their friends on Friday evening of last week in honor of their thirteenth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. A. T. Hill and little son, who spent ten days visiting with relatives in town, returned to their home in La Grande the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson, the Misses Durst and Amy Harger, Roy Grafe and Horace Nelson attended the Mosher-Kincaid wedding in Portland last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmer Newby came down from Rosedale last week and remained several days, visiting in town at the home of Mrs. Newby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gause.

Those having ordered season tickets for the Newberg Lyceum Course should secure them tomorrow of F. A. Morris at his office. For particulars see extended announcement on first page.

The confusion of tongues at the railroad depot, occasioned by the presence of six expressmen and three hotel runners, is calculated to cause strangers to imagine they are stepping off the train at a sure enough metropolis.

Edmund Robinson stopped off here Wednesday on his way from Bismark, North Dakota, to Elmwood, California, where his family is located on property they bought last summer. He has taken a leave of absence for a year and will spend the time in improving his property. As to his entering the government service again he will decide on that during the interval.

The twenty-fourth annual session of the Yamhill county Sunday school association will be held in North Yamhill November 23-24. A splendid program has been arranged for the various sessions and it is desired that every Sunday school in the county shall be well represented. If you are interested you will do well to paste this notice in your hat lest you forget.

The arc light located on the south side of the railroad track would be much more serviceable if it was removed to the north side, where it would light up the platform on the arrival of trains.
These dark nights there is practically no light on the platform, and it is unsafe for a man to attempt to embrace his wife on her arrival home from the city, lest he make an embarrassing mistake.

Miss Alice Heater, of Newberg, is making her way in Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, where she will graduate from the trained nurse's course next year.
Miss Clara Newby, who took a full course in a Philadelphia hospital, is now earning almost as much money in a week as the average stenographer receives for a month's work. The wonder is that more of our young ladies do not take a nurse's course rather than to take up type writing.

Rev. G. J. Reeker made a business trip to McMinnville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smock were up from Sherwood one day last week arranging for a grandson to enter college.

Samuel Dimond went to Portland Monday to take a position with the Dornbecker Manufacturing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargeant visited in town the first of the week with their daughter, Mrs.
O. K. Edwards.

Harvey Dailey went to Portland the first of the week to meet a sister of Mrs. Dailey's who is out from Iowa.

Gus Salmond and family, from Park Rapids, Minnesota, friends of H. A. Dimond, arrived here a few days ago. He was in the dairy business in Minnesota and he is much pleased with the outlook for dairying in this country.

Miss Blanche McNay left for North Bend, Coos county, Tuesday, in response to a message from her sister, Mrs. Balsiger stating there was a position awaiting her arrival there. Mr. and Mrs. Balsiger went to North Bend immediately after their recent visit in Newberg.

The first number of the Lyceum course will be given in Duncan's Opera House at eight o'clock next Wednesday evening by the Lulu Tyler Gates Concert Co.
Reserved seats will be placed on sale at the drugstores Monday morning at eight o'clock. Further announcement will be found elsewhere in these columns.

A force of men spent several days working on the railroad switch running to the brick factory and sawmill last week, and with the coming of the heavy log trains more work will be required to keep the track in shape when the ground is once well soaked by the winter rains.
Many of the old ties are rotten and must soon be replaced by new ones.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles returned home Wednesday, after having been away more than a year.
During her absence she visited with her brothers at San Jose, a sister at Whittier, California, with relatives in Kansas and Iowa and for the past few months she has been with her son-in-law, Prof. Edwin Morrison and family at Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana.
Her many friends are glad to see her at home again.

The city council met in regular session Monday evening, councilmen Brouillette, Harrold, Gilbert and Woodward being present, Mayor Morris presiding. Several petitions were presented asking for additional city lights in different parts of town. A committee of one councilman from each ward, consisting of Har-rold, Woodward and Caldwell was appointed to make a general investigation of conditions in town as regards light, interview the Electric Light Co. as to cost of additional service and report to next meeting with recommendations. The time-worn question relative to rebuilding the cemetery footbridge was brought up and was disposed of by ordering the recorder to place the issue before the people in the next election by entering the question on the official city ballot. The finance committee was ordered to see that the surplus city funds on deposit, awaiting the work on the new water system, be placed at interest in the Newberg banks at three per cent on a three months' deposit.

Last Sunday being rally day at Friends church, all day services were held with basket dinner and social hour between services.

A big furniture car was loaded here recently with one hundred and sixty-two bales of hops, which Station Agent James says was a record breaker.

James M. Wentz, a brick mason by trade, arrived here with his family from Winfield, Missouri, last week. They are occupying the George Range property.

J. F. Denny, who spent considerable time here visiting with his father-in-law, Mr. Parrett, left for Twin Falls, Idaho, with a car of stuff the first of the week.

J. F. Taylor returned from a business trip to Clackamas and Marion counties Wednesday evening where he disposed of a couple of carloads of drain tile.

John S. Richie came over from Scotts Mills Wednesday with a load of household goods for Mrs.
Mary White and daughter who have rented the Mrs. Allen property on South Meridian street.

A brother of Free Hodges arrived here with his family from Minneapolis and other relatives came from Wisconsin the first of the week, making a pretty good housefull in all.

Mrs. F. H. Caldwell and Mrs.
E. C. Lugar are in the hospital at Portland on the road to recovery from surgical operations performed the first of the week.
Mrs. C. C. Cady went to Portland Wednesday for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart and Mrs. Catharine Hintz, of Cha-taqua Lake, New York, who are on their way to California, are visiting with J. A. Pike north of town. Mrs. Hintz is the mother and Mrs. Stewart a sister of Mrs. Pike.

The sight of a rainbow by moonlight is not often seen, but a perfect bow was visible on Friday night of last week at 7.30 o'clock. The moon came out while it was raining and a dark cloud in the west made a splendid background for a rainbow which made a complete half circle.

The Newberg Pressed Brick company, has placed signs on different buildings in course of construction in Portland where they are furnishing brick, informing the public where and by whom the brick were manufactured. That's correct. When you have a good thing let the public know about it.

Mrs. M. F. K. Edwards returned from Indiana Monday evening, the home of her birth and young womanhood, which she with her husband and family of four young children, left twenty-six years ago to come to Oregon. She spent considerable time with her mother, Aunt Amy Edwards at Mooresville, who is now well advanced in years and in feeble health, and also visited with oldtime friends at various points throughout the state.
She also attended Western Yearly Meeting of Friends church held at Plainfield in September, as well as the big Missionary Conference of the church which was held at Indianapolis in October, she being a delegate to the latter.

Kincaid-Mosher.

Sunday's Oregonian contained the following notice of the marriage of Fred Kincaid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kincaid of Springbrook:

"A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
H. E. Mosher, 93 Tenth street, north, on Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Jennie, was united in marriage to Fred Kincaid, of Springbrook, Oregon.
The house was tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves, ferns and wild grape. Rev. A. A. Winters, of First Evangelical church, performed the ceremony. The maid of honor was Julia Schroder, and the best man Horace Nelson, of Newberg, Oregon.

After a month or so spent in Eastern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs.
Kincaid will be at home after January 1 at Springbrook, Ore.
