N. F. Byers has bought the Paul Macy property on Wy-noski street.

Owen R. Maris, of Portland, spent Sunday in town with his brother Paul.

Principal R. W. Kirk went to Portland Tuesday where he read a paper before the meeting of the State Teacher's Association.

Mrs. G. W. Mitchell, who went to Portland from Baring, Washington, on account of the illness of their son Jay, came up to Newberg Monday evening.

Thomas Prince, of Dundee, was in town Saturday delivering walnuts to different parties, the wholesale price being eighteen cents per pound.

Matthew Terrell will spend Thanksgiving with his son Clifford in Portland. Mrs. Terrell went to the city the first of the week for a visit with her son, L.
W. Charles.

Abner Blair, who travels for the Simonds Manufacturing Co., will have his headquarters in Seattle in the future as he has been given that territory, and he will remove his family to Seattle shortly.

A Bartholomew, who sold his farm last week came to town to rent a house but failed to find one. The "For rent" notices have been relegated to the garret in Newberg, and if we are to continue to expand, the lumber yard and the hardware store must be drawn upon.

Those who remember Harlan F. Ong as a student in Pacific College will be interested in reading the following notice of his marriage taken from the Telegram: "The marriage of Miss Carrie May Ford, daughter of Professor and Mrs. R. A. Ford, to Dr. Harlan F. Ong, will take place Wednesday evening, November 28, at the residence of Dr. T. B. Ford, 186 East Thirty-fifth street.

Calvin Blair, of the class of 1904, Pacific College, returned from Kline Falls, last week, where he has been holding down a bachelor's claim and in the meantime taking turns as school teacher, Sunday school superintendent, surveyor and broncho buster. After seeing his New-berg friends and taking time to fill up on his mother's good cooking he expects to go over into Washington to work with his cousin, O. J. Hobson on a mining project.

After having bought poor, scrawny chickens in the markets from time to time the writer has been prone to assert that "all men are liars" when they claim that there are any decent chickens in the country any more, but a dinner of fried chicken with friends in the country last Sunday makes a revision of the assertion necessary. It is apparent that the nice, fat, yellow legged pullets are kept back to tickle the palates of those who plant their feet under the home table, when the culling of the poultry is made for the market.

Since he sold out his second hand store a short time ago, J.
M. Shaw, in looking up a new location for business, has visited nearly all the towns of any size in the Willamette valley and he says Newberg has better streets than any of them, while Cottage Grove, he thinks, has the mud-diest streets of any town he has visited. There is still room for a good deal of intelligent endeavor along the line of street improvement in Newberg but it is a fact that the past two or three years has moved us up several notches in the estimation of the public, despite the fact that those who fathered the movement received little encouragement from some quarters.

Mrs. J. L. Davis went to Hood River the first of the week.

Christ Held, the harness man, spent Sunday with friends in Portland.

Sam McVey has bought the Walter Bissell property on River street, the price being $1300.

Columbus Haworth, who started the first harness shop in Newberg, spent Sunday in town.

President McGrew attended the big teachers institute in Portland Wednesday and took part in the discussion.

Charley Johnson, who has a gun store on Yamhill street in Portland, was in town Sunday with his family.

N. F. Byers went down the Columbia the first of the week to take the place of a sawyer in a mill who got hurt.

Noah Heater, who has been working at his trade in Portland for several months, spent Sunday in town with his family.

If you have a neighbor who does not read the Graphic ask him to call at the office and get a sample copy. Seeing is believing.

Second sermon in the series on the book of Jonah next Sunday night at the Friends church:
"The Great Deliverance." Special music.

Tickets will be placed on sale next Monday for the DeMoss "Lyric Bards" who will appear at Duncan's hall on Saturday night of next week.

E. West, of McMinnville, has leased the steam laundry and will be ready for business in a few days. He came down with his family Wednesday.

H. A. Cox was down from Eugene Sunday visiting with his sister, Mrs. S. W. Newhouse.
On his return home Monday he took his mother with him for a visit.

Miss Ella Macy, who has been teaching at Middleton, left for her former home in Indiana Wednesday in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her brother.

The morning trains now pass at Springbrook instead of New-berg. The down train passes here at the same time as before the change but the up train gets here at 9.07 instead of 8.52.

J. C. Colcord, Seth A. Mills, Milo P. Elliott and Levi Lewis left here the first of the week for Caldwell, Idaho, to take a look at the country. They will return the latter part of the week.

The Chehalum Valley Mills have put on a free delivery wagon, as will be seen by referring to their display advertisement in this issue. Telephone your order direct to the mill and they will do the rest.

Dwight D. Coulson, who has been acting as assistant cashier in the Bank of Newberg for the past three years, has accepted a position in the First National Bank of Berkeley, California, at a good salary and where the opportunity is good for working up. Mr. Coulson's many friends are sorry to see him leave New-berg but are glad to see him advanced to a better position, feeling assured as they do that he will make good. He will leave in a few days for his new location.

On last Monday evening at a regular session of their meeting, the Woodmen were agreeably surprised by a visit from the Circle. Right in the midst of the session the ladies gave an alarm at the outer door which was responded to by the sentinel. On opening the door he was soon overpowered and the ladies rushed like mad right into the midst of the lodge room. The lights were quickly turned off and all the "secrets" safely locked in the closet. It was soon announced that an oyster supper was in waiting, and no time was lost in making the necessary arrangements. A goodly number were present and withal the evening was very pleasantly spent. Music was furnished by the orchestra.

Miss Effie Pinney was taken to a Portland hospital last week for treatment for appendicitis.

Will Thomas and family are out from their Coast Range ranch to spend Thanksgiving around Newberg firesides.

I. H. Amos, of Portland, the advance agent for Jas. H. Woertendyke, the prohibition campaigner, was in town Tuesday.

The band concert given last Saturday night was a success in every particular. The music was good and receipts amounted to $28.

Will Christenson has the frame erected for a new residence of good size, which he is building on Main street opposite the Pettyjohn home.

Complaint is made that pigs and cows are tramping over the graves in the cemetery. The matter should be looked after at once.

Miss Laura Rose arrived here from Ontario, Canada, Tuesday evening and will spend some time visiting with her sister, Mrs.
R. W. Harrold.

The Hillsboro High School against the Newberg Amateurs on the college campus this, Thursday, afternoon. See the boys punch the pig skin.

John L. Hill, the father of the Mr. Hill who bought the Bartholomew farm, has rented the Jahn Mackinzie place in the Che-halum Center neighborhood.

Miss Myrtle Ladd, of Tualatin, has been visiting in town for a couple of weeks with Mrs. W. W.
Baker, assisting her in the care of her young son who has been ill with pneumonia.

Miss Annie Stone spent Sunday at the St. Vincent hospital in Portland with her mother, who she reports is doing well and will be able to leave the hospital the last of this week.

As a Thanksgiving offering for the Boys and Girls Aid Society, the public school children have collected twenty-two sacks and eight boxes of apples, potatoes and general produce, besides donating several dollars in money.
Well done!

James H. Woertendyke, billed as the "Prohibition Dutchman," of Riverside, California, spoke to a fair sized audience at Cra-ter's hall Tuesday evening. The address was commended as a splendid effort by those who heard it.

The ladies aid society of the Baptist church gave a reception to the new pastor, Rev. A. J.
Huguelet on Tuesday evening.
Music for the occasion was furnished by Prof. Carrick and short talks were made by pastors Cash, Hamilton and Lowry and T. Brouillette and Prof. Crumly.

The football game, played at Salem last Saturday, resulted in a score of twenty to six in favor of Willamette's second team.
Considering the fact that the Newberg Amateurs were pitted against a team that has been playing against the first team of the university the boys played a good game.

A gang of workmen broke dirt for a large roller skating rink Wednesday morning, which A.
P. Oliver commenced to build on the corner directly north of the Commercial Livery Stable and east of the M. E. church. The members of the church are not pleased with the prospect of having a noisy skating rink so near the church and it is understood that they will endeavor to influence Mr. Oliver to change the location of it.

At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night a contract was closed with George Lea, of Cottage Grove, for installing the new water system, the price being $14,799. The contract calls for digging the ditches, furnishing and laying the pipe from the spring to the reservoir and from the reservoir to town. Wood pipe made by the National Pipe Co., of Olympia will be used.
Work will begin at once and the contractor agrees to have it all completed by the first of May.

That Thanksgiving Dinner

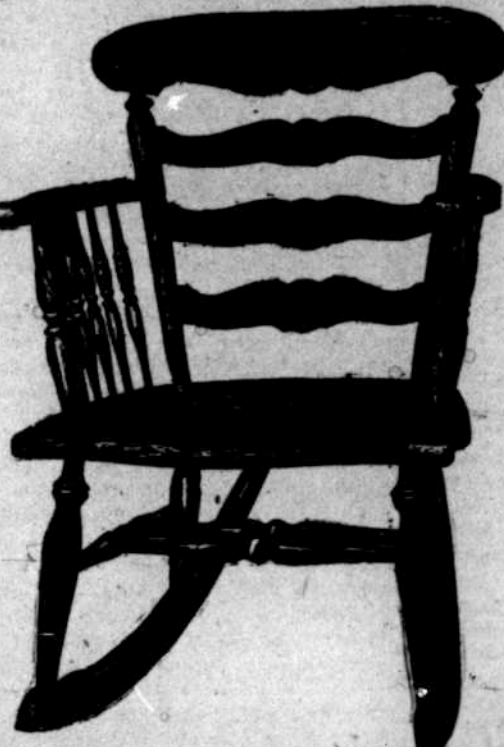

Is what everybody is thinking of. Perhaps we "Got Busy" a little earlier in the year than most of people and can make a few suggestions. We are sure of one thing and that is we are prepared to furnish the "Best" that is needed for a good old-fashioned dinner.

We have in the new crop of Raisins, Currants, Nuts, Dried Fruits of all kinds, Preserved Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Cranberries and Sweet Potatoes.

Oysters, Lobsters, Shrimp, Mince Meat, yes, and we will have some Big Fat Turkeys, too.

Let us serve you if you want the Dinner to be a success.
