the M. O. Lowndale orchard last Saturday and bought a barrel of apples to send to friends in Philadelphia.

Lewis Hadley and wife, who were recently married at Dallas and who live on the Hadley farm below Dayton, were down last Sunday visiting with relatives.

morning for Berkeley to begin work in his new position. He went by way of Scotts Mills where he spent a couple of days visiting with his parents.

Mr. Nichols, who had been living in the Milt Nicholson property, has removed to the Jo Carr place east of town which he bought recently and A. Bartholomew has taken the Nicholson property.

Jimmy Watkins, who grew up in the Springbrook neighborhood has been about town for several days in company with his wife. They were married a year ago and are living in Portland.

Seth A. Mills and Milo P. Elliott, who were in Idaho last week, each made an investment inland in the Caldwell irrigation district. They paid a homesteader for relinquishing a claim of one hundred and sixty acres and this they propose to divide, each taking eighty acres.

One of the Newberg parties who is fighting the First street improvement in the courts, is said to have so far forgotten himself on his return from a trip to McMinnville recently, that he boasted of the work done here in comparison with similar work done on the streets of McMinnville. Give him time and plenty of "lope" as the Chinaman says and he will be commending the city council for making the First street improvement.

A number of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Hash called on them Tuesday without invitation or previous announcement, to help them celebrate the twentyfifth anniversary of their wedding, and a very enjoyable time is reported.
Mr. Hash, who is now eighty years of age is one of the few remaining hardy pioneers who broke first ground in this valley, he having spent more than half a century here, while Mrs. Hash is eighty-one. She has been a resident of this community thirty years or more.

Wednesday to meet his sister Miss Amy who returned from Sultan, Washington, where she has been with Dr. Clough's for the past six months.

The ministers of the different churches in town met last Monday morning and organized a Ministerial Association. Rev. W.
S. Lowry was elected president and Rev. A. J. Huguelet, secretary.

Mrs. Lillie Rorabaugh, who spent the summer and fall here with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rorabaugh, left here Monday morning for Mor-rencia, Arizona, where she will join her husband who has located there.

Night Watchman A. B. Parker gave a suspicious looking character quarters in the city hotel Saturday night. A pal, who was hanging around with the fellow, made his escape when he saw there was likely to be something doing.

he Misses Rose and their mother, who had been visiting with Dr. R. W. Harrold's, left for their home in Ontario, Canada, Monday. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with what they saw in this country.

A. P. Oliver declined to consider the wishes of those who objected to the erection of a skating rink adjoining the M. E. church and a large force of men have the building well under way. It will cover a space of one hundred by one hundred and thirteen feet.

Oscar Cone, who lives on rural route No. 2 on the river opposite Butteville, was the victim of a fall in his barn last Saturday in which one of his hip bones was broken. On account of his age and other complications, Dr.
Romig, the attending surgeon, considers the case a difficult one.

Mrs. S. W. Potter received the sad news last week of the death of the husband of her youngest sister who was in the hardware business in an Oklahoma town.
He was held up in his store and shot by desperadoes who made their escape, though a man has since been captured who is strongly suspected of doing the deed.

Albert Bieland, of Middleton, was struck by the evening train last Thursday and killed. During the day he had been in a Sherwood saloon drinking and when on his way home he is supposed to have fallen in a drunken stupor on the track and owing to the darkness he was not seen by the engineer. The remains were picked up Friday morning by Conductor Crocker's train crew. Bieland lived with his aged mother and many complaints of outrageous abuse of her at his hands have been made at different times in the past.
He was considered an ugly character when he was drinking and few regrets over his death have been expressed.

Protective Association held a big pow wow at Masonic hall Wednesday night, followed by a spread at the Glass hotel.

Miss Genevieve Graves, who is one of the Evening Telegram candidates for the Jamestown exposition trip was in town Monday.

Nine different firms make changes in their display advertisements in the Graphic this week. Look them up and see what they have to offer to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zibley, of Dayton, Washington, are in town visiting with Mrs. Zibley's mother, Mrs. Ruth Heston.
They will probably remain until after the holidays.

A gentleman named Law-pugh, who came to Newberg recently from near Portland, has rented the J. T. Osborn property on the Dayton road. He says he has long heard of Newberg's educational advantages and this is the one thing alone that brought him here.

The "Old Majids Convention" given by home talent at the Brutscher school house last Saturday night is said to have pleased the people and netted a little more than $20 to apply on the purchase of an organ for the school. Newberg would be able to furnish the characters for such a play without drafting any under age.

The Hillsboro High School football team failed to show up last Thursday and in order to furnish a little amusement for the crowd who had expected to see the game, some of the fellows about town made up a team and played the Newberg Amateurs. The game resulted in a score of five to six in favor of the Amateurs.

Rev. Herbert T. Cash has organized a boy's athletic club in order to furnish wholesome amusement for boys who are just at the age to need a little care in directing their footsteps along guarded lines. He takes the view that boys will be boys but that there is no necessity for them joining the army of toughs if the proper steps are taken to give them something to do, and at the same time keep them under proper influences. Bristow's hall has been rented where some fixtures will be put in for amusement and for athletic training.
A large number of boys have joined the club and they are very enthusiastic over the outlook for entertainment.

At its regular meeting Monday evening the city council voted to make a new contract with the Yamhill Electric Co. under which the city will have thirty-nine additional twenty-five candle power incandescent lights, or fifty all together, at a cost of one hundred dollars per month. The company will proceed at once to rewire the town independent of its present system in order that it may not have to carry the city lights during the day. As a committee to arrange the distribution of the lights under the new system, Harrold, Caldwell and Woodward were appointed; as a committee on "ways and means" of financing the lighting proposi on, Brouillette, Harrold and Gilbert.
