Local Events.

Ira Smock, of Sherwood, was in town Tuesday.

Jay Mitchell has so far recovered that he is in school again.

J. L. Hoskins spent Monday night at McMinnville with his son Hervey.

The first basketball game of the season Friday night. You will want to see it.

Allen S. Craven was up from Middleton Wednesday visiting with his brother Reece west of town.

J. S. Rees, who has been carpentering in Portland for several months, was in town the first of the week.

Mrs. L. M. Parker was called to Eugene Wednesday on account of the illness of Mrs. Lon S. Hill.

The subject of the sermon next Sunday evening at the Friends church will be the question:
"What Think Ye of Christ?"

Mrs. S. M. Calkins returned home from Portland Monday evening, where she spent several days taking treatment in a hospital.

Mrs. Ruth Heston has her new residence on Wynooski street completed and by the first of the year she will be at home to her friends in the new house.

The Ministerial Association has decided to hold the Sunday evening preaching service at 7 o'clock instead of 7.30, during the winter months.

New ties have been laid for the railroad switch to the sawmill and daily trains are now arriving from the lumber region above Falls City, loaded with big logs.

The Epworth League will give an oyster supper in the basement of the M. E. church Friday night in order to raise money to assist in paying for the improvements made on the church. Drop in after the ball game and get a nice dish of soup and you will sleep all the better for it.

Mrs. M. J. Carpenter, who has been sick at her home north of town for some time, is improving slowly under the nursing of Mrs. Bashaw. She has been a resident of the valley for thirty years or more and the greater part of this time she has spent in her present location.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Saunders, of Corbett, were here last week visiting with their sons who are in college and at the same time looking for an opportunity to rent a farm in this community.
They formerly lived here and they would be glad to return if opportunity offered.

The first basket ball game of the season will be played on the new floor in the college gymnasium Friday evening when the Salem Y. M. C. A. team will contest for honors with the college team. The college boys have been at heavy expense beside spending a great deal of time in enlarging the gymnasium in order to meet the requirements of the league in the size of the floor, and they deserve liberal patronage on the part of the public.

It has become such a common thing for patients to be taken to Portland for hospital treatment that the Graphic has given up hope of keeping track of all of them. Friends of unfortunates must not feel piqued at the omission of patients names if they fail to furnish the information while it is news. Some people think they have been purposely sighted if their sickness has not been mentioned by the local paper, while others are just as anxious that everything pertaining to their ailments shall be suppressed, so there you are.

D. P. Price and family were up from Portland Sunday visiting with relatives.

Miss Ruth Romig spent a few days in Portland last week visiting with her sister.

Ellis McLean and family, of Portland, visited in town Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs.
J. Watts.

Elmer Hollingsworth has removed to the David place on the mountain where he has a job in the saw mill.

Hervey Hoskins and wife, who have located in McMinnville, visited with relatives here a couple of days last week.

As a by-product of his big dairy on Chehalum mountain P. H.
Skinner sold seven head of hogs recently for the neat sum of a little more than $125.

On account of the crowded conditions at the public school Arthur Hill has been elected as teacher for the sixth grade, to take the place of Miss Etta Mc-Coy who takes some of the High School work.

Reserved seats for the Queen Eather Cantata to be given on Friday and Saturday nights of next week will be placed on sale Tuesday morning. General admission twenty-five cents, children fifteen cents, reserved seats fifty cents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Welch left here Wednesday for Southern California where they will spend the winter before returning to Indiana. They stopped off at Eugene for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Metcalf.
Mrs. Mary E. Allen will go with them to California.

The weather we have been having of late has been such as to fortify the weather profits who have been insisting that we are to have a cold winter. Not very bad weather either as winter weather goes but raw enough to make the pile of high priced fuel grow beautifully less.

The ladies aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold an apron sale next door to the postoffice on Friday and Saturday evening of this week. This will be an opportunity to make a inexpensive purchase for a holiday present for a friend and at the same time assist in a worthy cause.

Dr. George Larkin has bought an interest in a dental supply house in Portland and will remove to the city about the first of his business here to Dr. Nelson Morrison who has already taken the office. Dr. and Mrs. Larkin have a large circle of friends in Newberg who will be sorry to see them leave.

J. K. Ellis, who came here recently from Springfield and who bought the G. P. Skelton ten acre tract adjoining S. B. Moffitt on the north, is arranging to commence the erection of a neat residence on the tract at once and fix it up for a home. He expects to set a small orchard but the greater part of it he will set to small fruits and berries. The location is an ideal one, being close in and very convenient.

Joseph Wilson, who embarked in the Homer pigeon industry in a small way last season is so well pleased with the venture that he is increasing his stock of parent birds. He went to Portland a few days ago and made a purchase of three hundred birds, buying the entire flock of a lady who is retiring from the business.
Two hundred of these he will keep while the others go to his son, C. B. Wilson, who is also starting in the pigeon business.
The birds are kept in houses with a yard covered with wire netting for exercise, as they do better in confinement than when allowed to fly about at will, and of course this suits the neighbors just as well. When spring comes Charley will put some of his birds into training for carrier pigeons and in case of the forming of a telephone or telegraph trust he will enter into competition with a messenger service and "bust the trust."

Mrs. George Ryan died at her home at Dundee last Monday after a lingering sickness and was buried Tuesday afternoon.

At a special meeting of the city council Tuesday evening to consider bids for laying sidewalks and crossings as ordered over town, the contract was let to F.
L. Ames and F. C. Mills, the price being twenty-five cents per foot for walks and thirty cents per foot for crossings where three inch plank are used. At its next to last regular meeting the council finally succeeded in electing an acting mayor, Brouillette receiving the majority of votes.

Where the City Lights Will Be Placed.

The special committee, appointed by the Council to distribute the lights under the new system, has considered the situation carefully, and with the cooperation of Manager C. J. Edwards, has made what it considers the most practicable distribution. The policy of the committee has been, not to scatter lights about all over the town indiscriminately, but rather to place them more connectedly, in a series. For instance, River street is well lighted, the committee believing that it will be more to the advantage of people living in the southeast part of town within a block on either side, to have one well lighted street on which to come up town than two or three poorly lighted.

While a change now and then may yet be made the plan for the distribution is substantially as given below. Unless otherwise specified the names of property owners are here given on whose corners lights will be placed, including those already in use.

Beginning in East Newberg—A.
Buchanan, Roy Heater, at east approach to long bridge, in center of bridge and at west approach.

On Wynooski street—Martin
Cook, John Hash, A. A. Willis, Joseph Wilson.

River street—E. C. Ward, J. P.
Thomas, Jas. Fisher, L. G. Newlin, T. H. Gardner, Orange Elliott.

On North River—F. A. Elliott and at south college entrance.

Seventh and Willamette—C. R.
Williams.

Third and Center—Claud Cummings.

Hancock and Center—At Van Leavitt Cottage.

Meridian—C. C. Cady, G. P.
Skelton, west college entrance,
F. L. Ames.

College street—Henry Mills, G.
W. Mitchell, Baptist church, Allen Smith.

Sheridan—Dr. Larkin, C. C.
Ferguson, H. R. Cobb, A. R.
Moomaw and west of depot.

Main—Chas. Larkin, R. Petty-john, R. R. crossing, L. M. Smith, Alfred Wheeler property, S. M.
Calkins.

West of depot—W. P. Heacock, and at corner of Lincoln and Sherman.

West First—R. R. crossing and corner of Lincoln and First.

Blaine—J. T. Rorabough, Allen Evaporator.

Dayton Road—D. J. Gilbert, and northwest at corner of W. S.
Hatch and C. R. Shirer cottages.

At corners of property of Jos.
Bixby, W. W. Hollingsworth, John Larkin.

The arc light near the railroad crossing on Main street will be moved south to the Glass Hotel corner, an incandescent light being substituted at the crossing, but on the north side of the crossing, in a way to give light to passengers alighting from trains.

Materials for putting in the extended system have been ordered by wire by the Yamhill Electric Co. and work will be begun at once.

Notice.

To Sons of Veterans and Relief Corps, by special action of Shiloh Post No. 77, G. A. R. The committee on arrangements was instructed to extend a cordial invitation to all Sons of Veterans,
