kins came down from McMinnville Tuesday morning to visit with the home folks.

Samuel Dimond, who is working in a Portland furniture factory, came up to spend Christ-

Newberg merchants are wearing pleasant smiles on account of the splendid holiday trade. They say it was never better.

Mrs. J. L. Davis will go to Petaluma, California this week to visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. A. H. Pape.

David Martin butchered a porker a few days ago that tipped the beam at four hundred pounds dressed and brought $30.

Andrew Pickett went to Waits-burg, Washington, the first of the week to visit with his son M. O. Pickett who is city recorder for Waitsburg.

Noah Parrish is down from Umatilla county for a visit of a couple of weeks with relatives.
Noah is one of the pioneers of this valley, who always has a smile and a handshake for everybody.

J. F. Taylor had expected his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKillop home from the Philippines soon but a recent letter from them gave the information that they had decided to remain in school work there another year.

The Graphic acknowledges the receipt of a case of canned goods from Wm. Kincaid, manager of the Springbrook cannery, made up of cherries, pears and berries.
After sampling the goods we are free to say that they should be placed on the shelf under the label of "Selected Stock."

Miss Lelia Littlefield has entered the Evening Telegram Jamestown Exposition contest, and since Newberg is in a district made up of towns situated so far away from Portland that the subscription list of the paper is small, she stands a good show for winning out and making the trip. All subscribers to the Telegram can assist her by cutting the coupons from the paper and saving them for her.

Miss Myrtle Coyle and Jo Bowman were married on Thursday of last week in Portland and are now in Seattle spending their honeymoon. The bride, who came here from Iowa a year ago, is a sister of Mrs. J. B. Mount, while the groom owns a nice farm a mile north of Newberg and is well known in the community, although he spends the greater part of his time in the mines and the fisheries of Alaska.
Just where their home will be the Graphic is not informed, but it is pretty safe to say that Mrs.
Bowman will be compelled to make periodical trips to the far north if she continues to do the cooking for Jo.

Hiram Smith is home from Philomath to spend the holidays.
L. M. Grames and family went to Amity Tuesday to visit with relatives.

Mrs. C. O. Dryden is here from Coquille visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fry.

ily went to Middleton to eat Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Craven.

Mrs. T. H. Thorne has gone to Pendleton to visit with relatives and will probably remain a couple of months.

Dr. Byron Morris and wife of Portland spent Christmas with Mrs. Morris' brother, John Hodson, at the latter's home north of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rees were up from Portland the first of the week to attend the Butler-Carey wedding and visit with friends and relatives.

senting "The Western Lady" published in Portland, visited in town the first of the week with Mrs. A. M. Hoskins.

Monday evening's train out from Portland was loaded to the limit of standing room with people who were going to various points along the line to spend Christmas.

James Kersey furnished the Graphic with a couple of boxes of Spitzenberg apples this week to send to friends in Southern California. They were highly colored and will be no discredit to Oregon.

Thomas Herd goes to New Era this week with a force of New-berg men to build a veneering factory for the Dornbecker Manufacturing Company. The job is a big one and will last for several months.

Five of the churches of New-berg will unite in the observance of the week of prayer after the following order: Monday evening, January 7th, at the Baptist church, Rev. W. S. Lowry leader; Tuesday at the Friends church, Rev. C. L. Hamilton leader; Wednesday, M. E. church, Rev. A. J.
Huguet leader; Thursday, Presbyterian church, Rev. N.
Welter leader; Friday, Free Methodist church, Rev. H. T.
Cash leader.

All Minnesotans and families are invited to be present at the reunion to be held on New Years day in Craters Hall. Following is an outline of the programme: Reading entitled "Minnesota," Mrs. Durst; Piano Solo, Miss Olive Johnson; Pioneer Days, H.
A. Grafe; Lost in the Snow, Miss Almeda Conrad; Piano Solo, Mrs. Harry Patterson; Reminis-cences, Rev. Jos. Hall; Song,
"The Home-land," Miss Eleanor Satchwell.

The members of the Grand Army Post are already laying plans for the state encampment which is to be held in Newberg this year. It is expected that three hundred delegates will be in regular attendance and many Portland people are said to be planning to come out of mornings and return to the city in the evening. A big attendance is expected and it is not too early to begin to plan to put everything in shape to make a favorable impression on our visitors.

Miss Hazel Carey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carey, was married to Charles F. Butler at the home of her parents in New-berg on Tuesday evening, Rev.
Herbert T. Cash officiating.
Following the ceremony the newly married couple went to the groom's home on River street and Charley is back at his old stand behind the grocery counter at the Parker Mercantile Co.'s store, where he has been a fixture for a long term of years through all the changes in ownership of the store.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
Allison on December 20, a baby girl.

President McGrew went to Dallas to-day, Thursday, in company with B. C. Miles.

Samuel Cummins has been combining a little business with visiting relatives in town during the week.

Miss Anna Rogers who is now bookkeeping for a Portland firm spent Tuesday at home with her parents.

Charles Flinn and A. E. Wilson with their families, came up from Portland Tuesday for a visit at J. R. Finley's.

The Misses Lizzie and Mary McLaughlin are down from Albany visiting with former schoolmates in town.

Miss Maggie Heviland came down from Dallas Wednesday expecting to remain with relatives about a month.

F. S. Hallock and family, of Portland, visited in town a few days the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eggers.

Miss Anna Christenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Christenson was married the first of the week to George W. Rogers.

Clyde Carey, in company with his mother, went to Portland Tuesday to witness the marriage of his sister Loie to a Portland gentleman, name not known at this office.

A rumor was out Wednesday evening that John Bristow was married but it seems to have been exaggerated. At least we have been unable to confirm it.

H. A. Forcht has one of his Angle lamps in the postoffice which shows what it will do in the way of furnishing a brilliant light. He is meeting with good success in the sale of the lamp.

Isaac Vinson and Miss Lillian McKern were married the first of the week. For the present they will make their home at Salem where Mr. Vinson has a good job with the Spaulding Logging company.

Justin Haworth furnishes butter to several families in Newberg, the rolls being wrapped in paper under the label of the "Crystal Spring Fruit and Dairy Farm." A very suggestive name and the butter—well all you need is a hot biscuit to go with it.

Rev. Elwood Knight has sold his home to his neighbor, J. B.
Parker, who owns property adjoining it on the west. He does not give possession until spring, when he anticipates returning with his family to his former home in Nebraska where he still owns property.

Mrs. Victor Way and two children are here from Minnesota for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Aldrich.
The two younger daughters with their husbands, Leslie Harlow and Eugene Evans, came up from Portland Tuesday for a Christmas family reunion.

Again Queen Esther, with her brave retinue, has come and gone.
The popular Cantata was presented on Friday and Saturday nights of last week before fair sized audiences and spoke well for the ability of Prof. Robinson as a director, who had a bare fortnight for preparation.

The presentation was more spectacular than when given here before, more care being given to stage effects. It had some weaknesses in solo parts however in comparison, notably in the character of Haman, which was so admirably acted before by Prof.
Kantner. Prof. Partington's tenor solos in Mordecai were likewise missed. Prof. Kirk acted the part well, but his throat giving way on him the solos had to be taken by Prof. Robinson, who was also in poor voice. On the other hand some of the solo parts were strengthened, particularly in the case of Mrs. L. E. Brown as Zeresh and E. A. Newby as king. The presentation was weaker in the omission of the thrilling and spectacular drills which so took the audiences before. The one given, the sash drill, was excellent. The cantata netted the public school nearly fifty dollars as its share of the proceeds.
