Local Events.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sleppy spent New Years day with S. P. Timberlake and family.

Attorney Ore L. Price and family were up from Portland Sunday visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Metcalf had a family reunion at their home northeast of town Tuesday.

Ray Pemberton was down from Rosedale Sunday calling on his numerous friends. He is attending medical college in Salem.

J. S. B. McNay, besides being a regular reader of the Graphic, has ordered copies sent to two friends in Kansas during the coming year.

Oscar L. Cox and wife, of Salt Lake, visited here on Friday night of last week with the former's mother, Mrs. J. T. Osborn.

Complaint is made that boys about town are shooting song birds. It is a finable offense against the state and should not be tolerated.

Miss Ina Gould resigned her place as teacher in the public school and has accepted a position in the public school at Forest Grove.

O. K. Edwards and family went to Rainier on Thursday of last week to visit with an aunt of Mrs. Edwards, remaining over until the first of the week.

S. P. Timberlake and family went to Willamina last week to spend Christmas and attend the wedding of Miss Fernie Hall, of that place, and Will Sleppy, of South Bend, Washington.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson expects to go to Southern California next week to visit her sons, one living at Pasadena, and the other, Dr. Woods Hutchinson, at Redlands.

Miss Anna Bashaw, who is attending Commercial College in Portland, has been spending the holidays at home with her parents. She will complete the course in another month.

Mrs. M. E. Stillwell, of Tillamook but formerly a resident of Newberg, was recently taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for the third operation for cancer. She stood the operation well and is now with Mrs. Joseph Smith at Lents where her friends may address her.

Luther Newlin was the principal in a collision on the streets of Portland last week when his escape from permanent injury was very close. In crossing a car track his wagon was struck by an electric car, making kindling of it but letting the team escape. Mr. Newlin was bruised up some but not badly hurt.

Prof. J. S. Carrick will take part in the musical program arranged for the celebration of the birth of Robert Burns in Portland January 25. The names of Mrs. Walter Reed and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer will also be found on the program but it will remain for Prof. Carrick to add zest to the program by rendering the pure Scotch dialect as it is "spoke" in the auld country, the land of his nativity.

Colon Eberhard, lawyer and J. P. of Joseph, Wallowa county, who is down for an extended visit with Yamhill county friends, dropped into this office for a friendly chat one evening last week. Wallowa went dry at the last election and he said he had the pleasure of handing out justice to a couple of fellows just before he left home who were found guilty in his court, of violation of the law. The fine imposed was $160 for each of them. Mr. Eberhard will attend the opening of the legislature at Salem.

Miss Bell Hall, of Willamina, is visiting Newberg friends this week.

M. W. Gumm went to Salem Wednesday to look after some real estate interests.

Guy E. Metcalf and family were down from Eugene the first of the week visiting with relatives.

Miss Verda Crozer, who is teaching at Rosedale spent the holidays with friends in Newberg.

Walter McCoy, who visited here for several days with A. T. McNay, left for his home in Kansas Wednesday.

Oscar Cone, who fell and broke his hip some time ago, is reported to be getting along as well as could be expected for one of his age.

Mrs. Effie Davis and children returned to their home in Seattle last week after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Moffitt near town.

Miss Mattie G. Kentner, a teacher in the Silverton High School, returned to her work Monday after having spent the holidays in town with parents.

A good deal of excitement is reported over a gold strike out in Coos county. A son-in-law of Wm. Rich secured a claim on the "ground floor" along with numerous other friends.

Mrs. Lizzie White, who has been quite sick during the week, has been removed to the home of her son, Everett White, to be cared for. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Dr. George Larkin removed with his family to Portland the first of the week. It is understood that the property, made vacant by the removal, will be occupied by Miss Jennie B. Miller, the owner.

A gentleman named Pease, from Cottage Grove, has bought a five acre tract north of town, laying between the railroad track and the Thomas Miles place. He expects to build on it in the spring.

Ole Martin put his team in the barn today, Thursday, and stated that he had teamed for the mill company for four years and this is the first time it has ever rained him in. In common parlance this is a soaker.

Mrs. M. E. Williams was called to St. Helens last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Ayers, a friend of hers, and the woman who was shot by Albert Oleman, a thirteen year old boy who she took when a child to raise.

Miss Beulah Pressnall who is a student in college, received a message from Salem this, Thursday morning, that her fourteen year old brother was killed in that city by an electric wire that was blown down and crossed with a trolley wire. Dollon Kenworthy accompanied her home on the boat and will take charge of the remains as undertaker.

The "Old Maids' Association" certainly appeared before an appreciative audience last Thursday night when the residents of the school district east of town represented their popular entertainment in Duncan's hall. The actors were at their best and the timely hits made met a hearty response. The net proceeds were over twenty-five dollars, which renders the school organ fund very nearly complete.

The members of the Wednesday Club and their husbands were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards on Friday evening of last week. The hostess had arranged a pleasing program taking Longfellow's Tales of a Wayside Inn, different persons being selected to impersonate the characters. The landlord, Mr. C. J. Edwards; historian, Mrs. Walter Terrell; theologian, Mr. F. A. Morris; musician, Miss Mabel Edwards; Cilician, Mrs. F. A. Elliott; Mrs. B. C. Miles reading the poem and calling the numbers as given above. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining-room.

Paul Maris who took a forced vacation in a Portland hospital was on deck again Wednesday morning at the opening of the winter term of college.

J. L. Haworth of Springbrook butchered a porker the other day that dressed four hundred and three pounds, making it necessary for David Martin to feed his next season's hog ten days longer in order to beat Haworth.

J. H. Rees, Joseph Hall and R. B. Bass attended the fruit growers meeting at McMinnville Wednesday. In measure of ability we were well represented, but in numbers beggarly small. The Graphic is under obligations to Mr. Rees for a report of the meeting.

Marvin Blair who has been absent in Iowa and the Dakotas for a year and more surprised his parents Tuesday evening by his unexpected return to the fold. Last year he was in Penn College and since June has been doing canvassing and harvesting stunts in North Dakota. He says he prefers to do his part toward the "Winning of the West."

Several boys had a very close call while crossing the river one day last week. J. C. McCrea's twelve year old son, and a grand son of the same age, were returning from the opposite side of the river in a small boat, when the two Follett boys and some others came along side in another boat. The larger Follett boy asked the McCrea boy for his gun and on being refused leaped into the McCrea boat, upsetting it and throwing the occupants out. By hard work the boys were gathered into the other boat and saved from a watery grave.

It has been decided to hold examinations for music students at the close of the college year, and certificates issued by Pacific College, will be granted to those fulfilling the various requirements and obtaining a certain percentage of marks. Examinations will be divided into elementary, intermediate and senior and there will be a preliminary examination in theory. Further particulars can be learned from Prof. Carrick.

Installation of Officers.

On St Johns day, December 27, the Masonic Lodge and the order of the Eastern Star held a joint installation at the Masonic hall.

The Star officers are as follows: Worthy matron, Mrs. A. McDonald; worthy patron, L. B. Ferguson; associate matron, Mrs. E. Clemmens; secretary, Mrs. Anna Linville; treasurer, Maynard Redmond; conductress, Mrs. Littlefield; associate conductress, Mrs. Esther Sykes; warden, Mrs. M. Caldwell; sentinel, A. C. Seeley; Adah, Mrs. G. Sykes; Ruth, Miss Edith McCrea; Esther, Mrs. E. McCrea; Martha, Mrs. Nellie Nelson; Electa, Mrs. Inez Butt; organist, Mrs. Verona H. Nelson. Mrs. Emma Larkin acted as installing officer for the Star.

L. B. Ferguson installed the following for the Masons: Worshipful master, H. A. Littlefield; senior warden, A. C. Seeley; treasurer, J. S. Larkin; secretary, R. B. Linville; senior deacon, L. B. Ferguson; junior deacon, Maynard Redmond; senior steward, H. A. Grafe; junior steward, Robert Wind; Tyler, James Comic.

A banquet followed at the Glass Hotel. The toast, given by J. C. McCrea, was a most entertaining and eloquent address.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Michigan, writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." For sale by F. H. Caldwell & Co.
