Pay Sims was up from Portland Sunday.

Rev. Marion George was up from Portland the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor made a business trip to McMinnville Tuesday.

Mrs. Nelson Morrison and children visited with her parents in Portland last Sunday and Monday.

Noah Heater, who has been working at his trade in Portland during the winter, is at home again.

W. A. Moomaw, who recently made a trip to Idaho, made a purchase of land at Twin Falls where he will locate.

A. L. Watson has leased his farm on Chehalis mountain to Orville Smith and has rented a small place near Oregon City.

Jacob Holderman, who sold his home in town to G. W. Hume, is arranging to go to Chico, California, the last of this week.

Representative Chase and wife, of Coos county, came down from Salem and spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rich.

Ernest Hofer is fitting up the room next door to Mills' jewelry store where he was formerly located, and will open up a barber shop. He finds Newberg a good place to return to.

Hamilton Hutchens went to McMinnville Wednesday to attend the funeral of his cousin Thomas Hutchens, who was found dead in his bed last Monday morning. The deceased was the father of the Hutchens sisters who were in the milliner business in Newberg a few years ago.

Newton Hill, the eldest brother Mrs. Mary E. Allen, died at the home of his brother John Hill in Pasadena, California, last Thursday. He was well on toward ninety years old but was in good health when Mrs. Allen arrived there, and they had a pleasant visit together before his death.

While the bridge over the canyon leading to the cemetery is a little out of position, owing to the settling of the mud sills on one side, most of the timbers appear to be sound and it is evident that repairs can be made on the bridge that will put it in a safe condition for travel for three or four years, without any heavy outlay of money.

It is generally conceded that those who failed to get their potatoes out of the ground in the fall will be saved the trouble and backaching job of digging them, since the freeze is supposed to have reached them. Many that were piled up in sacks for shipment were also frozen and the spud market will probably soar some before another crop is grown.

The college debating team had a tryout last Friday evening to decide who should go on the regular team for the season, the judges being Clarence Butt, Pres. McGrew, Prof. Hadley and J. C. Colcord. The decision rendered was in favor of Clarence Brown, Paul Maris and Ralph Rees. In March the team will debate the "Government Ownership of Railroads" with Monmouth.

At the M. E. church services, held last Sunday, money in cash and subscriptions to the amount of $800 was raised, this being sufficient to meet the expenses of the substantial improvements recently made on the church. The pastor and the membership are to be congratulated on the success of the undertaking. The new arrangement of the building proves to be highly satisfactory, and since the expense incurred is all provided for there is good cause for congratulations over the results obtained.

T. J. Kerr, of McMinnville, visited in town last Sunday with J. F. Taylor.

Rob Grames has sold his property on River street to a party from Hillsboro.

L. L. Hershberger, representing Hershberger Bros. of Hubbard, was in town on business last Monday.

Owen Jones, foreman of a construction gang on the Southern Pacific, was in town Sunday calling on his Newberg friends.

Luman Rich, who is working for Albers Bros. in Portland, came up home Sunday to eat some of his mother's good cooking.

J. M. Gilliland, who returned from the Soldiers Home at Roseburg recently on account of being unable to get satisfactory accommodations, is in a very feeble condition.

H. W. Chase, who lost the ends of a couple of fingers at the sawmill recently, was brought to town Tuesday and one finger that refused to heal properly was amputated.

L. Cowgill, who was a resident here a few years ago, but who now lives at Creswell, writes his brother-in-law, Charley Clemenson that twin boys were born to them the first of the week.

Ole Martin, who has been hauling wood and lumber for the Spaulding Logging company for the past four years, has turned his job over to C. H. Fry and will turn his attention to other work.

D. R. Jackson says he has a wagon of two dollars and a half and a spring colt, with some of the street knockers, that the building will be erected on the corner of First and College streets, as outlined in the Graphic last week.

With the number of applicants there are in sight for the position of mail carrier on Rural Routes two and three, no vacancies are liable to occur. With the condition of the roads on both these routes the job is no picnic but it gives steady employment which is worth considering.

J. R. Smith returned from the Carson hot Springs on the upper Columbia, Wednesday evening, where he spent several days in soak for the rheumatism. He came away feeling well and has much praise for the springs. Joshua Smith and son, former residents of this community, have a store at Carson and are doing a good business.

The annual oratorical contest will be held in the college chapel on Friday evening when six contestants, representing the different classes, will compete for the honor of representing Pacific College in the state contest which will be held at McMinnville this year in March. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged to help in defraying necessary expenses.

The basketball boys, who went to Portland last Friday night to play the Y. M. C. A. team, were defeated by a heavy score, but they say it was a regular "rough house" gang they played against, and the spectators were so flagrant in their attitude toward them that H. W. Stone, the Y. M. C. A. secretary, stepped out on the floor and commanded them to desist. These statements are verified by the Portland papers in their comments on the game. The Telegram said: "One of the most unsportsmanlike games of basketball ever witnessed in this city was put up by the Y. M. C. A. team last night against the Pacific College team from Newberg. Tactics that might be expected from rowdies along the water front were used to intimidate the visitors, and nearly every kind of foul was committed. Captain Hartman played such a rank game against his opponent, about half his size, that Umpire McCord threatened to put him out of the game."

Rev. M. C. Wire, of Eugene, was in town the first of the week.

John Vestal was up from Portland Sunday visiting with James Vestal.

Douglas Taylor fell on the ice one day last week and broke the bone of one shoulder.

Owen R. Maris came up from Portland Saturday evening and remained until Sunday evening with his brother Paul.

The sawmill, which closed down last week on account of the cold snap, has been running again this week.

Mrs. Miller, the mother of Mrs. A. L. Stevens, has been very sick during the week, with little hope of her recovery.

Alex Acheson is here from Seattle visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Josie Everest, and will remain for several days.

Morris Heacock and wife came up from Rainier Wednesday morning. Morris has given up his job in Rainier and has taken a job with a manufacturing company in Portland.

Rev. C. S. Phipps, the Sunday school man, will speak at the M. E. church Saturday afternoon at 2:30, at the Baptist church at 7:30 and on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the Friends church. All are cordially invited.

J. L. Aldrich has sold his property on River street to James A. Merit who arrived here the first of the week with his wife and three children from Pueblo, Colorado. Mr. Merit's parents are also with them.

The annual meeting of the fire department was held Tuesday night when officers for the year were elected as follows: Chief, L. B. Ferguson; assistant chief, Clarence Butt; secretary, J. H. Mills; treasurer, Maynard Redmond.

The subject of the morning sermon at the Baptist church next Sunday will be "The Conquest of the World." At the evening service, at six o'clock, "The Mormon Question" will be under discussion. A large attendance is desired.

Senator Caldwell got the chairmanship of the committee on game, while Representative Crawford was given the chairmanship of the committee on roads and highways, when the places were parceled out at Salem Monday.

W. P. Heacock & Son are reaching out for the spring trade in home manufactured doors, windows, mouldings and other house builders material, as will be seen in their new display advertisement this week. In order to make it more convenient for downtown purchasers they have arranged with the King & Bennett Hardware Co. to carry a line of their goods at the store.

Mrs. Nettie Burlingame made a dinner on Wednesday of last week in honor of the ninetieth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Henderson, who is still at this ripe old age in good health. Mrs. Henderson was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, January 16, 1816. She crossed the plains with the emigration of 1845 and first lived with her husband near Forest Grove for a number of years and afterward removed to Yamhill county. For the past few years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Burlingame, in Newberg.

Articles of incorporation for the Union Building Company of Newberg, with the capital stock placed at $25,000 were forwarded to the Secretary of State at Salem Wednesday. Immediately on the receipt of information from the secretary that the articles have been filed, the stockholders will meet and elect a board of directors who will at once mature plans and begin the erection of the big building on the corner of First and College streets, as outlined in the Graphic last week. The parties whose names appear in the articles of incorporation are L. M. Parker, B. C. Miles and E. H. Woodward.
