Local Events.

W. M. Daniel left here with his family for Oklahoma Wednesday morning.

Mrs. W. F. Edwards and little son visited in town with relatives Wednesday.

M. W. Gumm received information of the death of his aged mother in Oklahoma a few days ago.

Homer Maris came up from Portland Saturday evening and visited Sunday and Monday with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clemmens are here from Goldendale, Washington, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clemmens.

L. Ratliff, of Seattle, and Mrs. Beulah Ross, of Salem, visited with the latter's uncle, Jesse Edwards, last Saturday and Sunday.

Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will have a window sale Saturday February 2 at Hollingsworth's furniture store. A large supply of cakes, pies, bread, etc., will be for sale.

C. E. Newhouse has sold the Pickett farm of fifty acres located north of town, which he bought a short time ago, to a gentleman named Brown who comes from the eastern part of the state. The consideration was $5000.

M. W. Gumm brought to this office a few days ago a very large lemon that grew on a dwarf tree which they treat the same as a house plant. They have had the tree two years and it has borne in that time several perfect lemons that are apparently as good as any bought in the market.

J. A. Pike has sold his home north of Newberg, consisting of thirty acres, to a gentleman named Wynn who came here some time ago from Humboldt county, California. The price paid was $5000 with $800 additional for team, wagon and implements. Mr. Pike says he had no idea of selling but he was asked to name a price, which when made was accepted. He has not decided what he will do in the future.

A. C. Mount, of Oakland, California, who is making a business trip to Chicago, stopped off here Monday evening and is visiting with his brother, J. B. Mount, this being the first time they have met in fifteen years. He is six feet tall, weighs something more than two hundred pounds and in comparison, makes our J. B. look like a small boy. In business he covers the territory of two counties north of San Francisco for the Wiley B. Allen piano house.

Mrs. Maria M. Miller, aged eighty-three years, died at the home of her son-in-law, A. L. Stevens, in Newberg last Thursday. Short funeral services were held at the Hollingsworth funeral parlors on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Herbert T. Cash, and on the following morning the remains were started on the journey to Burr Oak, Michigan, the home of the deceased. Mrs. Miller was a lifelong member of the Lutheran church.

Some of our best local musical talent have kindly offered their assistance in making the next number of the Newberg Lyceum Course the most attractive of the season. In connection with the appearance of James A. Becker in his powerful lecture on "The Aristocracy of Worth," Mrs. C. B. Wilson and Miss Mabel Gardner will give an instrumental duet, entitled "I Capulet e Montecchi" from Bellini, also Miss Maybelle Edwards will sing "A City by the Sea," a solo of great beauty and sweet music. With the features of the evening in the hands of "All Artists" the patrons are assured of a pleasant evening.

Fletcher Cox arrived in town from Idaho Wednesday morning. The public school enrollment has reached six hundred and six. Tom Cummings has bought the Sam Jones cottage on River street.

Calvin Blair returned from his trip over into Washington Tuesday evening.

F. F. Burgess left here on a business trip to his former home in Kansas Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. Evans was down from McMinnville Sunday visiting with relatives.

Dr. Wilkins and family were down from the county seat Sunday visiting with Dr. Bowers.

Alden Chamberlin and family were up from Portland the first of the week visiting with relatives.

Oliver Kenworthy, with his son Virgil and wife, was down from Salem the first of the week visiting with relatives.

A. T. Hill and family are down from LaGrande and will spend several weeks visiting here and at other points before returning home.

Dr. R. C. Coffey made a professional trip to Newberg last Saturday night to see Mrs. G. U. Snapp who has been in poor health for some time.

Corydon Sharp, a brother-in-law of A. L. Stevens, was here the first of the week from Walnut Creek, California, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Miller.

Miss Lelia Littlefield has placed a box in the postoffice where anyone desiring to assist her in the Telegram's Jamestown contest may deposit the coupons cut from the Telegram.

W. H. Lashier has sold his store, at Rex, to a gentleman from Seattle and has joined his family at Friend where they are located on a claim which they expect to prove up on in the spring.

We always figure that any improvements made on the Yamhill branch come after all the other lines of the Southern Pacific are supplied. The latest is the engine on the morning down train which is now burning oil.

Newberg has been favored with almost all kinds of public entertainments during the winter, though we believe Mr. Becker is the first to appear as a lecturer. His recommendations are first class and he ought to be greeted by a full house.

The stockholders of the Union Building Company organized for business last Saturday by electing the following board of directors: B. C. Miles, L. M. Parker, Jesse Edwards, Semon Madson and E. H. Woodward. The last named was elected president, Semon Madson, vice president, and Clarence Butt, secretary and treasurer.

A District Quarterly Conference will be held this week in the Free Methodist church. The first service will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. There will also be preaching on Friday and Saturday at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Lovefeast on Sunday at 9:30 a. m. followed by a sermon. A missionary meeting at 2:30 and preaching at 7:00 p. m. Rev. W. N. Coffee, district elder of Portland, will have charge. Other ministers and lay members will be present. All are invited to these services.

John Bristow was found to be in a demented condition last Saturday evening and on the following morning he was taken to McMinnville by the constable, J. J. Woods, where he was examined by Judge Bird and committed to the insane hospital at Salem. Worry over the burning of his building on First street, which occurred eighteen months ago, put Mr. Bristow in a bad condition mentally for some time but he seemed to have recovered from this and until recently he has been more cheerful than formerly. A disappointment in a love affair is said to be responsible for his recent trouble.

Will Crater has bought the Ruckman property on Meridian street.

J. L. Hoskins spent two or three days visiting with his son Hervey in McMinnville this week.

President and Mrs. McGrew gave a reception to the senior class of the college at their home on Thursday evening of last week. The students speak in the highest terms of the entertainment furnished.

Enos Ellis has been appointed carrier to take the place of Seth A. Mills, resigned, on Rural Route No. 2, with Wm. Brunson as substitute. February 22 is the date set for the examination of applicants for the appointment of carrier on Route No. 3.

A petition is out asking for a change in Rural Routes No's. 1 and 3. The proposed change is for the carrier on No. 1 to start out by way of Lon Hadley's and return by the road leading into town from the west, and for No. 3 to serve the patrons in the Atkinson neighborhood in the afternoon as he returns.

George Rogers saw two horses electrocuted in Portland last Monday. One was a fine large gray horse that was being driven along the street, when a live wire dropped down winding about the horses head just behind the ears. He stopped short, settled back on his haunches, dropped over and expired.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade, held on last Monday night the association was dissolved and the "Newberg Commercial Club" organized. The initiation fee is fixed at $4 and quarterly dues of fifty cents are required. Meetings will be held the third Tuesday in each month and a fine of fifty cents will be imposed on members who fail to attend any regular meeting. The charter members are Dr. Harrold, Archie Seeley, Maynard Redmond, Clarence Butt, D. Estle, J. Carl Nelson, Jesse Edwards, F. A. Morris, C. J. Edwards and E. H. Woodward. Temporary officers were elected as follows: E. H. Woodward, president; Dr. Harrold, vice president; F. A. Morris, secretary; Archie Seeley, treasurer. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the regular meeting held the third Tuesday in February.

Oratorical Contest.

The honor of representing Pacific College in the state contest, to be held at McMinnville in March, goes to Miss Katherine Romig. This was the result of the markings made by the judges who passed on the orations delivered in the college chapel on last Friday evening. Roy Mills was awarded second place and Miss Lena Spangle third. The judges on composition were Prof. O. C. Albertson of Whittier, Prof. R. W. Kelsey of Berkeley, and H. M. Hoskins of McMinnville, while the judges on delivery were Professors Ewing and Vangros of the Portland Academy and attorney A. King Wilson of Portland.
