G. A. R. and W. R. C. Reception

In response to an invitation from Custer Post and Corps, of McMinnville, the members of Shiloh Post and Corps to the number of 36 left Newberg Saturday morning for the county seat. Commander Eggers carried the tickets for the entire party, and as Conductor Crocker passed through the car to collect the fares, he would call out: "Eggers, how many of these belong to you?" To which Commander Eggers would invariably reply: "All the good looking ones."

Arriving at McMinnville we were met by a delegation from Custer Post and Corps, who gave us a very hearty welcome.

We then formed in line and headed by Old Glory marched two abreast until we parted, each party conducting their visitors to their respective halls. After a social time spent with the W. R. C., the ladies were escorted across the street, and led by Mrs. Ungerman, filed into the G. A. R. Hall, interrupting (as he said) an eloquent speech from Comrade Cooper. We were introduced by Mrs. Ungerman, and then Commander Eggers rose to the occasion, with a look of pride suffusing his whole face, said, "There boys, you see what I have been telling you." We could only surmise that Commander Eggers had been bragging a little on the W. R. C. of Newberg. Mrs. Ungerman gave a short address to the comrades, and then in a few well chosen words, presented to Custer Post, the deed of another plot of ground adjoining their cemetery. Their present burial place having room for only two more for a last resting place. Commander of Custer Post responded with thanks, on behalf of the Post, after which all adjourned to the W. R. C. hall where the ladies served a most bountiful dinner of which all partook with a zest that showed their appreciation of the good things.

After dinner the meeting was called to order by Commander Cooper of Custer Post. A good many speeches were made by comrades and ladies of both parties, the man from Missouri, in both Posts, being in evidence. Some good suggestions were given in regard to our coming encampment at this place. But as all good things must have an end, so the time came all too soon when our friends escorted us back to the depot to take our train for home. Many expressions of pleasure were heard and all agreed that Custer Post and Corps were royal entertainers.

Our thanks are due also to Conductor Crocker for his kindness and courtesy to so large a crowd. As we bid him good bye he kindly invited us to ride with him again at some future time.

J. E. Ridgway was in Portland over Sunday.

C. L. Johnson spent several days visiting with his nephew C. X. Larabee in Portland last week.

Mrs. Ida Liechten returned Saturday to be with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Andrews, who is quite sick at the home of the Ridgways. Mrs. Ridgway also is a daughter of Mrs. Andrews.

There have been several people on the sick list lately. Some of them are Mr. H. Palmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Shires, Harold Weaver, Chandy Chase, Chancellor Johnson and Harold Paulsen.

Henry Chase is having a painful time with his hand after having the finger amputated, but thinks now it is going to heal all right.

Enos Ellis has built a barn on the south-west corner of his place.

Mr. J. F. Adams laments the loss of "Old Betz," a horse that helped pull them all the way from "Old Missouri," also a dog, "Old Shep," which died of old age lately.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by C. F. Moore.

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. See a bottle. Sold by C. F. Moore.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Michigan, writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." For sale by F. H. Caldwell & Co.
