Al Towler has traded his ranch out west of town for a twenty acre tract at Modesto, California.

Daniel Ramsey, of Portland, visited in town last Sunday with his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Morrison.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Friends church will occur this week, beginning Friday afternoon and continuing over Sunday.

Jesse Edwards was in Portland last Monday in attendance at a meeting of the trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, he being a member of that body.

Mrs. Rees, wife of Charley Rees, of Ballston, but formerly a resident of Newberg, was taken to Portland the first of the week for hospital treatment.

Miss Bertha Nicholson joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nicholson, at Caldwell, Idaho, last week, where they removed last fall. J. C. Colcord went with her as far as Portland.

Bert Terry has returned from Salem and has taken charge of his barber shop again. Mrs.
Terry and the children will remain at Salem until the schools close before returning to New-berg.

Marvin Blair has a position as assistant to the educational director at the Portland Y. M. C. A. Calvin Blair, who returned last week from Washington, also has a position in Portland at civil engineering.

C. E. Hoskins, who with his wife is sojourning in Los Angeles, writes to his brother, J. L. Hoskins, that they are encountering mud down there that would put a plaster on any mud he ever saw in Oregon. It is safe to add also that it is warranted to wash.

Stewart Vaughan has sold his farm of one hundred and sixty acres, located in the edge of Washington county north of Rex, to Louis Pulsky, the consideration being $7250. He has bought a twelve acre tract adjoining McMinnville on the south for a home.

Rev. Charles Replogle, who came from Everett, Washington, Wednesday, to assist in the meetings being held at the Friends church, had to take a hand at shoveling snow three times between Everett and Seattle. At one point, where the track skirts a high bluff with the surf just below, they had shoveled out the snow enough to let the train get by, when just behind the train a mountain of ice and snow came thundering down that would have carried the train over the precipice into the ocean if it had struck it, and the surf was running very high at the time.

Pacific College basketball team went to Monmouth last Friday where they defeated the Normal School team by a score of twenty-one to twenty. The following night they went to Salem to play the Y. M. C. A. team. Here another victory was scored, the result being fifteen to thirteen in their favor. In this game the score was a tie when the time was up, but in playing off the tie Hodson made a successful toss of the ball into the basket and won the game. The boys were badly handicapped at the first of the season, owing to several unfavorable circumstances, but we are glad to note that they are overcoming obstacles and winning games over their opponents. Close and persistent practice at throwing baskets is one feature that they should not neglect, for this has been their weak point in all the games played here this season.

Mrs. O. K. Edwards and children visited with relatives at Perrydale last week.

Ellis Hadley was down from Dayton the first of the week visiting with his uncle, J. L. Hoskins.

F. A. Elliott and family and A.
T. Hill and family are spending the week at Newport, taking a winter vacation.

The hearts of the rural mail carriers are made glad by the announcement that their salaries are to be raised $120 on the year.

The Rural Spirit says J. A.
Jones, of Springbrook, intends selling quite a lot of his horses this spring, either at auction or private sale.

Mrs. Rachel Ridpath, who has been here for some months visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. H.
Daily, left for Long Beach, California, Tuesday morning. Mr.
Daily went with her as far as Portland.

C. A. Keeney, who had a serious attack of appendicitis was taken to Portland Tuesday morning for a surgical operation.
His little daughter was operated on for the same trouble some months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King in company with their daughter, Miss Lulu, were up from Portland last Saturday and Sunday visiting with their son, W. A.
King, of the King & Bennett Hardware company.

Next Sunday being the annual day of prayer for students, a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be held at the college at three o'clock, to which all young people are cordially invited. The meeting will be in charge of Charles Replogle, of Everett, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pemberton, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Coppack, of Astoria, and Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bates, of Rosedale, were here the first of the week visiting with Mr. and Mrs.
W. E. Crozer. Mr. and Mrs.
Pemberton are the parents of Mrs. Crozer.

F. A. Morris received a letter a few days ago announcing the marriage of Miss M. E. McDowell to M. S. Mick at Ontario, California. The bride formerly lived on a farm near Newberg, which she traded for orange land at Ontario some three years ago, where she has since been living.

Miss Leila Evans, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Bishop, was married on last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock to Reese Taylor, Elder Nettleton, of Portland, officiating. Miss Katherine Dimond acted as bridesmaid and Clarence Bishop as best man.
The newly married couple left for Portland on the evening train, amidst a very liberal shower of rice, where they will make their home at present.

Mrs. J. L. Davis, who recently made a visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Pape, at Petaluma, California, called at the Graphic office Monday morning. She says they were having heavy rains and some snow in California, and since returning home she has made a trip to Hood River where she found heavy snows and zero weather, and this with the mixed weather conditions prevailing in the valley, has caused her to conclude that it is very difficult to dodge the "unusual" anywhere on the coast this winter.

Andrew Pickett has made a sale of his feed store and implement business, and also the building he occupies on the north side of First street, to Vin Vincent who will conduct the business in the same location. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett expect to remove to Waitsburg, Washington, where their son, M. O. Pickett, is engaged in the practice of law.
They have been honored residents of this community the greater part of the time for more than a quarter of a century, and we commend them to the good people in their new location.

Chester Dimond is at home from Willamette nursing a case of the grip.

L. A. Gray is here from Idaho visiting with his mother, Mrs.
Sarah M. Young.

Since the snow disappeared the cheerful frogs have been doing their best to usher in spring.
Miss Mabel Vantress came up from Portland Sunday and visited with Miss Pearl Cummings.

Carpenters and dealers in building material say the outlook for work in Newberg the coming season is splendid.

Tom Herd and his force of men who are working on the building for the big veneering plant at New Era came home to spend Sunday.

Tom Cummings is having the house, which he recently bought on River street, raised a couple of feet, and adding other improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roode, from Indiana, who have been spending the winter in California, will arrive in Newberg this week. Mr. Roode is a brother of Mrs. Mack Kaufman.

The King & Bennett Hardware company are preparing to make extensive improvements in their store building by remodeling and modernizing the front, and making some changes in the interior.

Bill Davis has a force of men at work on his Chehalis mountain farm cutting three hundred cords of old fir wood, which he has contracted to J. C. Colcord at $2.50 per cord. He will begin hauling as soon as the roads settle in the spring.

The fill made in the canyon at La Fayette two years ago settled five feet and caused a necessary transfer of passengers for a few days. The settling of the track has also made it necessary to discontinue running the log train for the present.

Two brothers, J. W. and W. A.
Baker, who arrived in Oregon recently from Nebraska, have located in Newberg temporarily at least, until they get located in business. They say they were attracted to Newberg by reading a copy of the Graphic which was given them by a friend and by hearing of this as a good home building town. We hope to see them located here permanently.

Z. J. Imus died at his home in Dundee on last Friday after a lingering illness from a complication of diseases, at the age of fifty-seven years. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church on Sunday morning, the sermon being preached by Rev.
C. L. Hamilton. By request of the family the music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Newby, the Misses Maybelle Edwards and Sibyl Woodward and W. C. Woodward. The deceased came to Oregon from Kansas in 1881 and since that date has lived almost continuously in or near Dundee. For the past ten years he has held the position of postmaster. He leaves a widow and six children.

Last Sunday's Oregonian contained a very good picture of Prof. James S. Carrick, along with other musical celebrities.
Comment was also made as follows on his appearance before a Portland audience at the recent Burns anniversary concert. "To show his versatility it may be mentioned that Professor Carrick is a composer of considerable ability, one of his numbers at the Burns concert being of his own composition, entitled "Farewell to thee, Scotland." Although this was the first opportunity the local Scottish people had of hearing Mr. Carrick, they, and music-lovers generally, hope at an early date to again enjoy his delightful rendering of the "Auld Scots Songs" in his pure tenor voice and perfect accent.
His rendering of "Jeanie's Black E'e" and "The Lass o' Ballochmyle," the latter one of Burns's gems, was certainly the finest ever heard in Portland, and carried many a heart in the audience back to the "land of the brown heath and shaggy wood."
