Local Events.

Maynard Lee Daggy at Duncan's hall Friday night.

Asa Morse was up from Portland Monday on business.

Dan Gilbert made a business trip to St. Johns last Friday.

Charley Spaulding came down from Salem to spend Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill drove over to Carlton Monday.

Mrs. L. S. Rhodes is down from Hood River visiting with her sons, W. L. and W. O. Robertson.

Jasper Bales, who is bookkeeping for the Dallas Lumber Company has been at home during the week visiting with his parents.

Arthur Wilson's mother and sister and the family dog came up last Saturday, attended the ball game and remained over with him until Monday morning.

Charley Skelton left for Caldwell, Idaho, Tuesday morning to take a look at the country.
If he finds something that suits him he will remain and send for his family.

Next Sunday evening, at the Baptist church, at 7:30, there will be an address to young ladies, subject, "How to Dress." Everybody cordially invited. A.
J. Huguélet, pastor.

Attorney Clarence Butt and L.
M. Parker were in McMinnville the first of the week looking over the Hotel Elberton with a view of getting information on hotel building.

J. F. Taylor went to Portland Monday to meet his mother, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, who came from Seattle where she recently went from her home in Indiana to visit with another son. She will remain for several months at least.

A sack of seeds, made up of peas, lettuce, radish, parsley and parsnip, has been received at this office from U. S. Department of Agriculture for free distribution. Call at the Graphic office and get a package if you can use the seeds.

Owing to the sickness of one of their daughters in Nebraska, who must go to a hospital for treatment, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Knight are expecting to leave about the first of next month which is earlier than they had expected to go.

First ground was broken for the new Union Block Monday afternoon, when C. C. Ferguson with a force of men and three teams, began the work of excavating for the basement under the part that will be used for a hotel. The dirt is being distributed about town to property owners for filling in door yards.

J. H. Wilson has sold the house he is now living in, located across the street from the C. K.
Spaulding residence, to James Fisher who will move it to some lots he has purchased in "Little Homes" addition in the southwest part of town. Mr. Wilson is maturing plans for a new residence which he intends to build where the old building now stands.

Station agent G. W. James is very much annoyed by a class of young fellows who make a business almost every morning of getting on trains and jumping off after the train is in motion.
He says one of them will roll under a train and get a leg cut cut off one of these days and then he will be blamed for not keeping them off the trains. A city ordinance making this foolhardy act a finable offense might help to solve the problem. A law is sometimes necessary to protect the simple-minded.

Roy Kirkly, of Portland, was in town Wednesday visiting with Guy Bennett.

Ed Parrish has been up from Portland during the week visiting with relatives and old time friends.

The college basketball team went to Vancouver today, Thursday, to play a team of that city.

Conquest meeting next Sunday evening at the Baptist church at 6:30, subject, "The Philippines."

Jesse Edwards went to Portland Monday to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Anti-Saloon League.

Friday night will close the Lyceum course for the season, when Maynard Lee Daggy will deliver his popular lecture "Anglo-Saxon Grit."

The big team of grays, recently sold by Lon Hadley to C. C.
Ferguson, is about the finest appearing team of large horses ever seen on the streets of Newberg.

Mrs. Sam Linton went to La Grande last week on account of the sickness of her sister, Mrs. J.
F. Steinback, who is in the hospital. She will probably remain for some time.

Perry Macy went to Portland Tuesday evening to hear Newell Dwight Hillis, the eminent Brooklyn divine, lecture on "The Message of John Ruskin to the Twentieth Century."

The way the reserved seats have been going indicates that Maynard Lee Daggy will be greeted by a full house on Friday night. This is the closing number of the Lyceum course.
You will want to hear it.

Elkana Cook is here from Spokane visiting with his uncle, E.
S. Craven, while he recuperates from a case of poisoning. He with eight other men were poisoned, as they suppose, from eating canned goods and four of the number died. Mr. Cook has been in the hospital for some time but is now pretty well recovered.

One day last week a freight car was set in here for the Spaulding Logging company that was partially loaded with olives of uncertain age. Where the cargo came from nobody knows and the boys who dumped it into the canyon say they don't care to see another arrive as the smell was bad enough to spoil dead horse meat.

Charley Cobb was on the limp the first of the week as a result of a double header he took while practicing jumping from a moving train. Gambling on one's chances for losing a limb under such circumstances, occasionally ceases to be funny business and when the stub is healed the public is appealed to for help to buy an artificial limb for the "unfortunate."

H. G. Miller is having plans drawn for a $2000 residence which he will build this season on lots near the Colton property north of the railroad. This with the large, two story, twelve room residence now in course of construction by Will Christenson opposite the Pettyjohn residence, which will also cost $2000, will add much to the appearance of that part of town.

The following received certificates as the result of the teachers examination held February 13, 14, 15, 1907: B. T. Merrill, Emma Gordon, Elizabeth Early, Minnie E. Pechin, Mona Nagle, Bonnie Sunderland, Elizabeth Swanson, S. C. Davenport, Lawrence Elliott, Ina Glover, Mabel Rush, May Payne, Pamela Baker, Viola Hardin, Nina T. Baird, Mary Millard, Clyde Van Wormer, Georgia Baumgardner, Laura S.
Bones, Nella Hadaway, Maud Cone, Viola Weston, Mamie Mc-Donald, Lydia Manchester, Mary W. Smith, G. W. Godward, Gertrude Green, Zaidee Linden, Helena Ferguson, Arthur E. Hill, Bessie Linden, Grace Webster, Verna Tompkins.

The teachers' meeting, announced for Saturday, has been called off.

Jo Carr is building a cottage for himself directly west of the steam laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Evans were down from McMinnville Wednesday visiting with relatives.

Hugh Nelson, who drove to Salem the first of the week, says the roads are in fine condition for driving.

The Wednesday club will go to the county seat Friday where they will be entertained by the McMinnville club.

The band gave an open air concert on the streets Wednesday evening that was highly appreciated by the people.

W. W. Nelson, clerk of the school district is engaged in taking the enumeration of children of school age this week.

Miss Freda Gist, of North Yamhill, has been elected to fill the vacancy in the public school caused by the resignation of Miss Etta McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dumont Smisor, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, the latter a cousin of Mrs. N. G. Kirk, were here last week visiting and looking at the country.

Despite the fact that grip has been very prevalent for the past two or three weeks, the undertaking business has been unusually dull for this season of the year.

The entertainment, given by the band boys on last Saturday night, was well attended and everybody seemed pleased with the show. The receipts amounted to about $90.

A. A. Andrews, of Heppner, who has been spending the winter at North Bend, stopped off here a few days ago while on his way home. Ed Day, of St.
Johns, was with him.

President McGrew left for Boise, Idaho, Wednesday where he will attend the quarterly meeting of Friends church and also spend a week or ten days visiting with his brother.

Hugh C. Lawer the "Little Harness Man" has been in town during the week calling on his friends. He is traveling for the C. D. Osborn company of Chicago, manufacturers of gloves, and his territory covers Utah, Wyoming, Nevada, Oregon and California. Newberg, he says, is still more like home to him than any other place.

Rev. Charles Replogle left for his home at Everett, Washington, Monday morning, the meetings he held at Friends church having closed on Sunday night.
The services were conducted along saner lines than is often seen in revival services, being devoid of all noise and confusion, and the sentiment expressed by the membership of the church is that it was one of the most successful series of services ever held in the church.

Changeable Language.

You take a swim,
You say you've swum;
Your nails you trim,
But they're not trum;
And milk you skim,
Is never skum.
When words you speak,
Those words are spoken;
But the nose you tweak
Is never twoken;
Nor can you seek
And say you've soken.
A top you spin,
The top is spun;
A hare you skin,
Yet 'tis not skun;
Nor can a grin
Be ever grun.
If we forget
Then we've forgotten;
But if we bet
We have not botten.
No house we let
Is ever lotten;
What we upset
Is not upsotten.
Now, don't these prove
Our language rotten?
