Local Events.

Benjamin Janeway was up from Sherwood Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Cooper, of Portland, visited in town with friends last Sunday.

James Clemenson came up from Portland Saturday evening for a short visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pickett left for their new home at Wait-sburg, Washington, Tuesday morning.

A. T. Hill and family returned to their home at La Grande the first of the week after having spent several weeks in town visiting with relatives.

H. E. Follett went to Nestucca this week to prepare for the removal of his family to the ranch on the south side of the bay, which he traded for some time ago.

The old soldiers about town are preparing to take the two dollars per month additional allowance as pensioners, by the grace of the new act of congress, with thanks.

Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Knight left for their former home at Clarks, Nebraska, the first of the week. Their daughter, Miss Sara, will remain here until after the close of the college year.

Mrs. M. E. Stillwell, of Tillamook, was recently taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland for the fourth operation for cancer. Her friends desiring to hear from her may do so by addressing Mrs. Joe Smith, Lents.

W. E. Howard, who has been living on a ranch at Beaverton during the winter, was in town Monday. He has sold the ranch at a profit of $1500 and has bought property at Arleta, a suburb of Portland, which he will improve.

The memorial service held last week for Frances E. Willard was well attended by the members and friends of the W. C. T. U. A good program was carried out after which refreshments were served. Two new members were added to the list.

On Tuesday evening, February 26, the members and friends of the M. E. church tendered Rev.
C. L. Hamilton and family a donation. A large number were present and the church and parsonage were thrown open to all and young and old together spent a most delightful evening, leaving a substantial donation of good things as an expression of their esteem and appreciation of their pastor's faithful labors.

W. S. Howard, who was here two years ago from Missouri looking at the country, arrived here again last week with his family and will locate permanently. He chartered a car and brought his household effects with him. The car belonged to the C. B. & Q. line and was almost large enough to hold two of the ordinary freight cars belonging to the Southern Pacific.
For the present the Howards are visiting with relatives, the Snow family, living on Chehalem mountain.

Zimri Mills, of Springbrook, went to Benton county last week to care for his brother, Dr. Aaron Mills, who is sick. The latter, while on his return home from a trip to the valley recently, bruised one of his heels, from which blood poison resulted. On account of his isolation in his mountain home he was obliged to prescribe for himself. A neighbor woman, however, who was waiting on him, got the wrong bottle and gave him a heavy dose of aconite. He noted the mistake at once and by prompt and heroic effort managed to disgorge before the poison took effect. When last heard from he was improving.

F. A. Morris and Jesse Edwards were in McMinnville Wednesday.
George Metcalf, a former resident of Newberg, was in town the first of the week.

Ray Pemberton was down from Salem Saturday and Sunday calling on his friends.

Mrs. Bird Partridge was up from Portland Sunday, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. W. Nelson.

J. P. Kennedy, of the real estate firm of Kennedy & Hickok of Portland, was in town last Sunday in company with his wife.

Fred Vinton left here with his family for the eastern part of Kansas Monday morning where he thinks he will engage in stock raising.

A special entertainment, consisting of recitations, vocal and instrumental music was given by the Royal Neighbors Tuesday night after which refreshments were served.

Parties wanting to secure tickets for the McMinnville excusion Friday evening will find them in the hands of Paul Maris, Ralph Rees and Chester Hodson.
Seventy cents for the round trip.

J. F. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Ella Wilson, whose home is in Indianapolis, arrived here Wednesday evening in company with her daughter from Seattle and will remain for some time visiting.

Elmer Hinshaw, of Goldendale, Washington, who is reported to be one of the most prosperous farmers in Klickitat county, is here this week with his daughter Miss Amy, visiting with relatives.

District Clerk W. W. Nelson has completed his canvass of the school district and finds 796 children of school age, which shows an increase of one hundred over last year. Of this number 409 are males and 387 females.

W. A. and A. R. Moomaw will leave here this week for Twin Falls, Idaho, where they have invested in land. The former has rented his property in New-berg to Charley Butler and the latter has rented his to John Larkin.

Allen Smith and wife, who spent the winter in Kansas visiting with relatives, arrived home Tuesday evening. They started home the day the reduced rates to the coast were made effective and found the train already crowded when they got aboard.

The first district meeting of the Rebekah lodges of Dayton, La-Fayette and Newberg will be held here Wednesday, March 13, commencing at 9 o'clock, in the Odd Fellows hall over the Bank of Newberg. All Rebekahs are requested to be out.

Charles Butts and family arrived here Monday night from Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. Butts is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.
J. Hutchins and a sister of Homer Hutchins and Mrs. R. J. Forsyth of this place. They think he will locate here.

Miss Katherine Romig, who will represent Pacific College in the state oratorical contest to be held at McMinnville Friday night, rehearsed her oration, "The Gobbler Army" before the students and several visitors Tuesday morning. She has a splendid oration and her delivery is good, and those who heard her feel assured that the college will at least be very creditably represented in the contest and this is the main thing to be desired.

F. C. Mills went to Tualatin the first of the week to look after a job of housemoving he and Fred Ames have in that village.
The interurban line has been given the right of way through the streets and some buildings are to be moved back in order to make room for the line. At the crossing of the Southern Pacific tracks the roadbed will be built under the high bridge across the river, and in this way the necessity for stopping trains to avoid accidents will be overcome.

W. C. Meats has been very sick during the week with pneumonia.

Mrs. Sam Galbreath visited in town last Sunday with Mrs. W.
W. Baker.

Attorney B. S. Pague, of Portland, was in town on business last Saturday.

Arthur Wilson's father came up from Portland Saturday evening to see the ball game.

"A Voice From the Dust" is the subject of the sermon next Sunday evening at Baptist church.

Oliver Kenworthy was down from Salem last Saturday and Sunday visiting with his sons Dolan and Earl.

Lindley M. Haworth, a former resident of Newberg, who is now living at Clackamas visited in town Wednesday night with F.
A. Elliott.

Charles Kenworthy, who holds a position as Pullman conductor on the "Sunset Limited," running between San Francisco and Chicago, visited in town last Sunday with his parents.

The G. A. R. committee, having in charge the arranging of a series of entertainments for the purpose of raising money to assist in defraying the expenses of the big encampment to be held in Newberg in June, announce a musical under the leadership of Mrs. C. B. Wilson to be held on Friday, April 22. The program will be announced later.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation held on Wednesday evening, Rev. W. S. Lowry was re-elected pastor of the church for the next year by unanimous vote. Rev. Rowry is held in high esteem by those outside his church who have become acquainted with him and his work since coming to Newberg, and the church is to be congratulated on being able to secure him for another year as pastor.

The basketball game played last Saturday night between the Dallas College team and the home team, resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 10 to 24. A good sized crowd witnessed the game and much interest was manifested as the home team kept the visitors busy earning their victory. The last game of the series to be played on the home floor will come the last of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan White have received a very kind and pressing invitation from their son-in-law, E. L. Peckham, who is a prominent railroad promoter of Oklahoma, to go there and spend a year or more at his expense, and on account of the rather delicate health of Mrs.
White they have decided to go, hoping the change and the needed rest will bring renewed strength. Their many friends will wish them a pleasant year and a safe return.

A large delegation of G. A. R. and W. R. C. representatives arrived in town Thursday morning, coming on the trains from both ways. They were met by members of the local organizations and Mayor Edwards, and the procession marched through the streets, reviewing the army of children as the public school grounds were passed. Meetings were held during the day when plans were made for the big Encampment which is to be held in Newberg in June, and the visitors were banqueted at noon.

The college students have completed arrangements with the Southern Pacific officials to run a special excursion train from Newberg to McMinnville Friday evening to attend the state oratorical. One hundred and fifty seats have been reserved for the Newberg delegation and a large attendance is promised. The train will leave here at 6:40 in the evening and will return after the exercises are over. A good deal of "noise" is being bottled up for the occasion by the P. C. rooters, and the county seat people will no doubt conclude that the "Gobbler Army" is all there when the train arrives.
