The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, ex-probate judge, Ottawa county, Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by C. F. Moore.

Says the woman: "I care not who does the thinking so long as I am permitted to do the talking."

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, the Enterprise, Louisa, Virginia, says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound." Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at F. H. Caldwell & Co's, druggist. 25c.

The philosophy of the struggle for existence is all sufficient as long as you have no kick coming.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizemore, West Virginia, says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: Take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co's., druggist.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Missouri. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by C. F. Moore.

Pleasing people is like laughing: It has to be done without an effort to be effective.

Afflicted With Rheumatism.

"I was and am yet afflicted with rheumatism," says Mr. J. C. Bayne, editor of the Herald, Addington, Indian Territory, "but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, am once more able to attend to business. It is the best of liniments." If troubled with rheumatism give Pain Balm a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief it affords. One application relieves the pain. For sale by C. F. Moore.

Local Events.

A. P. Johnson, of Corvallis, was in town on business Thursday.

Miss Katherine Dimond visited with friends in Portland last Saturday and Sunday.

Work has begun on H. G. Miller's new residence in the north-west part of town.

L. S. Otis has sold his quarter block on North Meridian street to W. S. Bean, of Harrisburg, who intends to build on it.

Charley Leavitt bought an acre tract adjoining town on the north this week where he proposes to keep his chickens and cows.

W. R. Hardman has sold his building on the corner of First and Main streets, the lower story of which is occupied by the Gazelle store, to Jesse Wheeler, of Lincoln, who will move here with his family and occupy the upper story.

By special invitation made through Attorney A. King Wilson, one of the judges on delivery at the local oratorical contest here, Miss Katherine Romig will deliver her winning oration, "The Goblin Army," in the Taylor street M. E. church in Portland on next Sunday evening.

Miss Mabel Comic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Comic, was married to Roy Wassam at her home in Newberg last Saturday morning, Rev. Herbert T. Cash officiating. The newly married couple left on the train the same morning for Dallas where the groom has a lucrative position with the Dallas Lumber company as bookkeeper.

Rowland's band made good with the lovers of fun Wednesday evening, when the boys gave a concert and "show" in the role of cork artists in Duncan's hall. In the evening they made a spectacular parade on the streets which increased the sale of seats very materially, and furnished lots of amusement for the boys. The receipts were quite satisfactory.

James Iverson, who arrived here a few days ago from Starbuck, Minnesota, has bought the James Douglas property on Wynooski street. He says he sent for a copy of the Graphic some time ago, hoping to get the names of some Newberg real estate men but failed to find any among the advertisers. Seeing that other business men were liberal advertisers and judging the town from this, he says he decided to come anyway.

Convention of Rebekas.

The first district convention of the Rebekahs convened on Wednesday, Miss Florence Coffin, noble grand of Vesta Lodge No. 76, presiding. Banner No. 53 of LaFayette, and Naomi of Dayton, with the home lodge, were well represented. Mrs. Emma Galloway, of McMinnville, vice president of the State Assembly, was in charge of the meeting.

Officers for the convention were elected as follows: Chairman, Miss Bell Belcher, of Banner; secretary, Mrs. M. Matty, of Banner; conductor, Mrs. Verona Nelson, of Vesta; Marshal, Mrs. Ella Harris, of Naomi; inside guardian, Mrs. Emma Nichols, of Naomi; outside guardian, Mrs. Mary E. Moore, of Vesta.

A committee on resolutions was appointed by the chairman as follows: Mrs. Ella Harris, Mrs. M. Smith and Mrs. Castle.

A question box and answers were very beneficial. At noon a banquet was served by the members of the Newberg organization. The afternoon session was interesting. The degree staff of Dayton exemplified the work of the Degree in a perfect manner, and was accorded a rising vote of thanks. A short literary program was rendered by members of Vesta lodge. The place for holding the next convention will be La Fayette.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Georgia, did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically twenty years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at F. H. Caldwell & Co's drug store. Price 50c.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. La Grippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing just as good. For sale by F. H. Caldwell & Co.
