Local Events.

Mrs. M. Valentine, of Dallas, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eggers the past week.

Calvin Blair came up from Portland Saturday evening for a short visit with the homefolks.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brouger, of Portland, was in town Wednesday visiting with his cousin, J. C. Brouger.

Mrs. J. E. Todd and little daughter from Dayton visited here Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Deskins.

Rev. G. W. Rigbee, a former friend of T. H. Thorne at Pendleton, was in town a few days last week visiting with Mr. Thorne.

E. Albert who is now living at Oregon City was in town last Saturday evening figuring on the heating plant for the new Union block.

Mrs. E. A. Romig and daughter, Miss Katherine, visited in Portland last Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller.

C. B. Frissell, who held the position as railroad station agent here for several years, died at his home in Oregon City, Wednesday, of pneumonia.

T. B. Cummings, who has been failing for several months from an incurable heart disease, has been laying very near death's door for several days.

Miss Carrie Folger of Vermilion Grove, Illinois, who has been in California during the winter, arrived here last week and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills and other relatives.

George Weeks is here from the mining districts of Nevada and California, visiting with his uncle H. A. Dimond. He came north hoping to get relief from an attack of rheumatism.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will convene at the home of Mrs. Bowerman, March 27, at 2:30 p. m., subject, Narcotics. An interesting program is being prepared and all are cordially invited.

H. W. Behnke, of Portland, and William Burg, a banker from the East, spent Sunday at the Bass residence visiting A. T. Behnke. Mr. Burg is a representative of the German-American bank now being organized to open up for business in Portland May 1st.

George Sykes visited the land office in Portland last Saturday and filed on a forty acre tract of timber land in the hills west of McMinnville which had been overlooked. He found the piece while out cruising a tract of timber land he owns in the same district and he lost no time in reaching the land office.

J. S. B. McNay has purchased the Hamilton Hutchens property on Meridian street making three pieces of improved property he now owns, all adjoining. He says he contemplates taking a course in a divinity school in order to improve on the adjectives he uses in addressing his horses, since he is now located in hearing distance of four ministers. Glad to hear that his surroundings are already having a good influence.

A personal letter received from J. A. Kramien, assistant secretary of the Bloomington, Illinois Y. M. C. A. tells of a recent trip he made to Chicago to attend an institute of religious directors, and one to Galesburg to attend a boys institute. He also speaks of a raise in his salary, a visit he has had from Charley Morris who is at Peoria, and concludes the whole matter by making the bold assertion that he has the dearest little wife on earth. This is strong language of course but it is the way a Newberg boy ought to put it.

I. E. Holt has received the appointment as carrier on mail route number three.

Milo P. Elliott has sold his interest in the Enterprise Tile Factory to his partner, J. F. Taylor.

Hervey M. Hoskins and wife were down from McMinnville the first of the week visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mabel Foster, of Portland has been in town during the week visiting with her cousin, Miss Katherine Dimond.

Since selling his residence to J. S. B. McNay, G. P. Skelton has removed to the Johnson property out north of the railroad depot.

Next Sunday evening at the Baptist church, Pastor A. J. Huguelet will speak on the subject, "Modern Miracles." Everybody cordially invited.

David Boyes, from McMinnville has entered into partnership with his brother, Wesley Boyes, of Newberg, who for some time has been engaged in buying stock for the markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Addison went to Salem Tuesday to spend a few days visiting with relatives. He received a severe bruise in one arm at the sawmill last week and is laying off on that account.

Will Comer, of Seattle, who was on his return from a short trip to California where he went to take a needed rest from over work resulting in illness, stopped off here last Thursday for a visit with his father, Silas Comer.

On last Saturday night the Royal Neighbors gave a farewell party in honor of Mrs. J. F. Durst. On account of the esteem in which she is held by the members she was presented with an emblem of the Order.

Paul Maris and W. C. Woodward visited in Portland last Sunday and attended the services at the Taylor street M. E. church in the evening, where they found many former Newberg people gathered to hear Miss Romig speak her oration.

Many Newberg people have expressed a desire to hear Miss Katherine Romig deliver her oration, "The Goblin Army," and consequently she has consented to deliver it at the Friends church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A general invitation is extended to all who desire to hear the oration to attend. There will be special music.

Timothy Brownhill, editor of the Beaver State Herald, published at Gresham, spent Tuesday night in town, visiting at this office, and talking shop. In his field he covers a wide territory, taking in a number of small villages, soliciting advertising and job work. He is a hard worker and the tone of his paper shows that he is made of the right kind of stuff. He has convictions and he don't hesitate to express them.

The Dundee W. C. T. U. held an interesting literature meeting March 14, at the home of Mrs. Minchin. The subject "What is Worth While in Literature," was discussed by different members, taking up "The Newspaper," "Fiction," "Poetry," "Our Temperance Papers," and "The Bible." Many good thoughts were given on the subject. The Union decided to give a subscription to the China famine fund. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Hon. J. W. Hobbs, of Eugene, was in town Tuesday when he spent considerable time in the Graphic office exchanging yarns with the editor dating back to our school district days in Indiana along in the sixties, when one "gallus" served to support our ragged trousers, while we "cooned" it up the same trees in the fall of the year for beech nuts. Those were the days when we wrote on the fly leaves of old McGuffey's spelling book such touching couplets as "The rose is red, the violet's blue, etc." without quotation marks, for we were then close to nature and we meant every word of it.

The basketball team goes to Salem Friday to play the last game of the season with Willamette.

Ray Parker, son of A. S. Parker, arrived here from Indiana last week, expecting to remain.

Rev. James P. Price in company with his wife, went to Salem Tuesday to perform a marriage ceremony.

Nels Johnson, who has been living in Colorado for the past few years is expected to return to Newberg with his family this week.

Herman Moede, Chas. Mitchell and a Mr. Maybe, recent arrivals from Villard, Minnesota, visited with Wm. Perkins the first of the week.

The body of Albert J. McPoland, aged twenty-seven years, who was accidentally killed at Cottage Grove by a falling tree, was brought here for burial last Saturday.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. J. F. Taylor and Mrs. Ella Wilson entertained in honor of the seventy-eighth anniversary of the birth of their mother, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, who is here on a visit from her home in Indianapolis. Those present were Mesdames Lizzie White, Mary Morris, Maria Bowerman, Mary White, Mary Osborn, Mary Edwards, Elizabeth B. Miles, Mabel Douglas, Amanda M. Woodward, Miss Elizabeth Wilson.

Amos Kenworthy went to Salem today, Thursday, where he will join his son, Oliver Kenworthy in a trip to a point a hundred miles north of San Francisco to take a look at a land proposition.

Cards have reached Newberg announcing the approaching marriage of Prof. George Tolson, of the Berkeley Divinity school, to Miss Edith Russell, of Berkeley, which is to be solemnized April 19. Hearty congratulations, with more to follow when he shows the goods in June, while on his annual summer pilgrimage to his old home in Newberg.

W. H. Mears received a letter from his son Allen in Kansas a few days ago, in which he stated that he found Fred Vinton at the railroad depot with tickets already bought for himself and family for their immediate return to Newberg, without having gone outside the town. He finally persuaded him to return the tickets to the agent and go out with him to look at the country, although at first he had the appearance of a man who had lost all his friends and refused to be comforted. To add to his troubles the family dog on the way out got shifted to another train and he was given up for lost. He arrived first however and was at the station to greet them with a bark on their arrival. The fare is cheap from Kansas points to Newberg just now, and a number of real estate men are anxiously waiting for the arrival of the Vinton family with good bargains to offer.

Last Friday evening's game of basket-ball with the Portland Y. M. C. A. and the last of the season to be played here, was the best exhibit of the sport Newberg has seen this year. Both teams were full of ginger and there was enough basket throwing done by both to make things interesting. For a good part of the game it was either team's contest, but at the end of the second half the visitors had the long end of a 30 to 24 score. Foster Mills made his debut as forward on the first team and certainly made good. The Y. M. C. A.'s brought the crack veteran Chas. Mackie to play with them, realizing they had no easy game before them. Mackie is one of the referees of the league and it seemed a little odd to find so strict an official giving the whole outfit practical pointers on the fine art of fouling. Even at that however he was much more acceptable than a brother of his who pretended to referee the game played here between Dallas and Newberg. "Come again Charlie."
