Local Events.

home in North Dakota the first of the week.

The D. H. Turner property has been sold to Peter Bashaw who will make it his home.

The sale of tickets for the Jubilee singers, who appear at Duncan's hall tonight, insures a good house.

Miss Ione Townsend, of Portland, visited in town with Mrs.
F. A. Morris last Saturday and Sunday.

Thomas Warner is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Hamnett, very sick with pneumonia.

J. H. Mills has bought the Mrs.
Leavitt property, which is occupied at present by Rev Herbert T. Cash, for a home.

George Whiteis, of Heppner, who was in Portland on business, came up and spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, Will Wight.

L. B. Ferguson, Jesse Edwards, W. P. Heacock, J. J. Woods and attorney Clarence Butt went to McMinnville Monday to be in attendance at circuit court.

The report comes that J. A.
Pike, who sold his place out north of town some time ago, has invested in a chicken ranch at Arleta, a suburb of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse went to Creswell, Lane county, last week in response to a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Jane Cox, the mother of Mrs. Newhouse.

It has been reported that the Easter exercises at Chehalem Center would be held in the new church which is a mistake as the building is not yet completed.
The exercises will be held in the school house.

J. R. and W. P. Pleasant, brothers, and son-in-laws of C.
H. Eggers, with three sons of W.
P. Pleasant and Robert Lee, from Mountain City, Tennessee, arrived here last Monday. They are here with a view of locating.

Prof. J. S. Carrick will go to Salem April 10 when he will appear with Arthur Von Jessen, pianist and Le Roy Gesner, violinist. On April 7 he will sing at the Grace M. E. church in Portland, and on April 8 he will sing in a Scotch concert to be held in Portland.

G. W. Mitchell and son Jay are expecting to "take to the timber" the first of the month, in the employ of the Southern Pacific, while Mrs. Mitchell and daughter Frances will return to Washington to hold down their timber claim. Miss May will probably remain in Newberg until the close of school.

Ten months ago J. S. B. Mc-Nay bought a two year old colt of Levi Lewis for one hundred and twenty-five dollars. A few days ago he sold the colt for three hundred dollars in hard cash and he says he allowed himself to be enchered out of twenty-five to fifty dollars in the sale.
Too bad he didn't set the price higher.

The announcement that Miss Katherine Romig was to give her winning oration at Friends church on last Sunday evening, brought out a crowd that numbered close to a thousand people.
Special music was furnished by the church choir, a trio was given by Mrs. Emmer Newby and the Misses Sibyl and Bernice Woodward and a solo by Prof. Carrick. A very earnest prayer was made by President McGrew and a short talk given by the pastor, both in keeping with the subject of the oration which followed.
Miss Romig is perfectly at ease on the rostrum, and her delivery on this occasion was very pleasing to the large crowd who heard it for the first time.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Asa Morse, in Sellwood, March 24, a son.

Chester Dimond visited with friends at Forest Grove last Sunday.

Mrs. James Camp, of Snyder, Oklahoma, is in town visiting with Miss Maybelle Edwards.

C. A. Richards, who lives in the west part of town has been very sick with stomach trouble for several days.

Alex. Nichols, a logger who lived here several years ago, was killed in a saloon row over in a Washington town recently.

G. P. Skelton has bought seventy feet frontage on First street of the Bank of Newberg just west of the bank building.

W. F. Marr has traded with J. C. Beckner for some lots on Seventh street, a team and wagon being a part of the consideration.

Amos Kenworthy did not get off to California last week, owing to the railroad blockade near Sisson, which will not be raised for several days.

Miss Bertha Nicholson is down from Caldwell, Idaho, and will remain for some time. She says her parents are well pleased with their new home.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Martin, of Sellwood, son-in-law and daughter of Thomas Jones, was brought here for burial the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lugar, who recently sold their property on Fifth street to J. J. Hagmann, contemplate taking a trip to Southern Oregon, after which they will locate in Portland.

T. H. Thorne has traded his four acre tract near town on the north-west to E. R. Horton for the latter's house and lot on Second street, which he has since traded to Amos Kenworthy for his property on Third street.

Walter Estle, who returned to his former home at Noblesville, Indiana, some time ago, is back again and has taken his old place in the sawmill. Harry Rambo, a friend of his came with him and he has also taken a job in the mill.

Warren McConnell and Miss Tessie Bixby were married at an early hour last Sunday morning, Rev. C. L. Hamilton officiating. They left on the morning train for the city for a few days vacation before settling down to grapple with the stern realities of life.

Wm. Clemmens, who has been appointed by the county court as one of the road viewers for the year, went to McMinnville Monday to answer a call of the court. He was also summoned as a jurymen for attendance at the circuit court at the same time.

John Root, son of Sidney Root, who has been living in Idaho for several years, recently removed to the valley, hoping the change might benefit his wife's health.
He will probably either rent a farm or engage in teaching. He was a student in the college here in his younger days.

Wm. Clemmens desires to thank all those who aided in any way to make the G. A. R. musical, held last Friday night, a success.
The profits, which go toward swelling the fund being raised for defraying the expenses of the state encampment to be held here in June, amounted to about $28.
On April 25 a second entertainment will be given for the same purpose, when the Veteran double quartet, of Portland, will furnish the music.

Charles G. Ball, who came here a short time ago from Humbolt county, California, has bought the twenty-five foot frontage on the north side of First street, and situated between the Vincent Feed and Implement store and Held's harness shop. Mr. Ball has engaged in the manufacture of hollow cement building blocks and he says he contemplates erecting a building of this kind of material on the lot the latter part of the season.

W. E. White was in Portland the first of the week serving on the grand jury.

Dr. Thomas W. Hester writes from Jacksonville that a second son was born to them on March 22, which makes two boys and two girls in the family.

Mrs. Charley Clemenson and Mrs. J. C. Lucas went to Creswell, Lane county, today, Thursday, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of one of Mr. Cowgill's children.

James Buckley and family have returned from their visit at Puyalup, Washington, and have taken possession of the C. B. Wilson confectionery business which they recently purchased.

A company of half a dozen home-seekers who landed here a few days ago, were given special attention by three hotel runners in their endeavor to extend to them the "freedom of the city," on their way down town, while in the wake of the company followed seven real estate men, ready to pounce upon the prey at the earliest possible moment.
The strangers hit the first barber shop on the street for a shave, apparently preferring to submit themselves to the tender mercies of one "artist" at a time.

Chehalem mountain ranchers are complaining of the depredations of a chicken thief who steals the fowls away in the night by the coop full for marketing purposes. The term "as low down as a common chicken thief" don't sound good to honest people, and since this particular "fowler" is spotted by the people of the community, something is liable to drop one of these fine nights, that will cause him to "fess up" and admit that there is something in the theory of "future rewards and punishments."

Some of the basketball boys, who went to Salem last Friday to play the closing game of the season with Willamette, failed to make connection with the early morning boat down the river to connect with the train at New Era, and consequently they accepted the offer of Charley Spaulding and took passage in his gasoline launch. The day was one of the most stormy of the season, the wind was "contrary," and the boys will not soon forget the seven hours ride up the river, since their teeth have hardly ceased to chatter at this writing. The game was one of the best of the series, resulting in a score of twenty to twenty-two in favor of Willamette.

Death at Ripe Old Age.

Mrs. M. E. K. Edwards received a telegram from Mooresville, Indiana, on last Sunday morning announcing the death of her mother, Aunt Amy Edwards, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Samira Hadley in that city on Saturday, March 23. The deceased will be remembered by many Newberg people, as she was a resident here for several years, dating from the time of the founding of Newberg. Her husband, John Edwards, the father of Jesse Edwards, died here, and she afterward went to Indiana to make her home with her daughter. She was a lifelong member of the Friends church, having held the station of elder, as well as other responsible positions in the church during her long life of usefulness. In educational matters she was one of the pioneers in Indiana, having been closely connected with the management of Bloomingdale Academy during the earlier years of her life, and although she had very meager advantages herself when young, she appreciated what an education meant to the rising generation, and consequently she was ever ready to assist in every possible way to advance the interests of educational institutions. Gathered to her fathers at the ripe old age of more than eighty years, the memory of her will be a benediction to those who remain to revere her long and well spent life.
