Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McNay entertained at their home Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter Mabel's fourteenth birthday. The company was delightfully entertained with games and music. A two course luncheon was served at 9:30. The guests departed wishing Mabel many more happy returns of the day. Many pretty and dainty gifts were received.

Some delay has been occasioned in letting the contract for the work on the new brick building on First street, owing to time being taken for the arranging of some of the minor details of the interior plans and the bids will not be opened until April 10. In the meantime the common brick are being hauled when the weather will permit. The pressed brick, which were ordered some time ago, are now ready for delivery.

The members of The Newberg Commercial Club will hold a special meeting in Dr. Harrold's office Wednesday evening of next week and a cordial invitation is extended the business men of our city to attend. Some subjects of interest will be talked over and a pleasant time socially is promised. After the regular session a conflagration of Nicotiana Tobacum de Yucatan will occur, free to all desiring to participate. Be prompt at eight o'clock.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Georgia, did. I am now practically twenty years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at F. H. Caldwell & Co's drug store. Price 50c.
