Local Events.

J. D. Gordon and Dave Irelan made a business trip to Albany the fore part of the week.

Homer Maris came up from Portland Friday evening to attend the Albany-Pacific debate.

B. F. Hevland, of Dallas, came down last week and spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs.
Frank Deach and family.

Lewis and Milton Saunders, who have been working here at the mill for several months, returned home to Troutdale Saturday.

Noah Heater, who is building a cottage for Dr. H. J. Minthorn out at Nye Creek beach, made a short visit at home the latter part of last week.

J. L. Hoskins has sold his half block on North Meridian street, opposite the college campus, to Mrs. Anna Alsop, of La Fayette, who intends to improve it for a home, though probably not in the immediate future.

Mrs. G. U. Snapp arrived home Saturday evening from her visit with Ohio relatives, and her friends are pleased to find her very greatly improved in health.
She was met in Portland by Mrs. J. B. Parker.

A complaint has been entered against some boys who apparently take delight in throwing gravel and dirt against windows of residences after dark. The little Vandals are good candidates for a night's lodging in the city bastille.

Messrs. Specht and Mostert, who recently sold their home on West First street left Tuesday on a trip to California for an extended visit with friends. The latch string's out when they get through with California and here's hoping they will pull it.

Sunday was a day to make glad the hearts of all who have been looking forward to spring with its sunshine, green grass, blossoming trees, etc. Every available rig in town was pressed into service and was put to good use on the hillside drives and valley roads about Newberg.
Incidentally, the cloudless sky punctured the ancient fable to the effect that seven rainy Sundays follow a rainy Easter.

The basket social given Saturday evening at Dundee was well attended and proved a success.
The program given, including a vocal solo by Miss Maybelle Edwards, assisted by Miss Maybelle Gardner at the piano, and a talk by Supt. Alderman, was highly complimented by everybody present. Mr. W. S. Allan very ably auctioneered the baskets and brought in nearly forty dollars. The proceeds will go toward securing books for the public school library.

Wm. Douglas, of Portland, came up to Newberg Sunday with no other thought in mind than that ere the sun went down Mrs. Laura Banta, of this place, would be Mrs. Douglas. When the time for the ceremony drew near great was his consternation to find that the license, which he had procured in Multnomah county, was nowhere to be found upon his person or elsewhere.
The necessary paper could not be produced and the wedding bells were temporarily muffled.
Investigation brought out the fact that when in a clothing store purchasing a wedding garment the license had slipped out of his pocket unnoticed. It was forwarded to the would-be benedict and the postponed ceremony took place here Monday evening.
Rev. C. L. Hamilton officiating.
It's a case of "per aspera ad astra" and doubtless Mr. and Mrs. Douglas are just as happy now as if they could have written it "Mr. and Mrs." a day earlier. May they live happily ever after.

Mrs. Nora Laughlin, of Forest Grove, spent Sunday with Miss Emerette Harger.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, of Portland, spent Sunday in New-berg with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Sykes.

Miss May Hall came up from Portland Friday evening and attended the inter-collegiate debate.

Hervey Hoskins is down from the county seat assisting his father on the home place for a few days.

Orange Elliott is opening up a plumbing shop in what is known as the old bakery building next door to Bales' shoe shop.

To-morrow night occurs the concert given by Prof. Carrick and his pupils in Duncan's Opera House. Eight o'clock sharp!

Mr. H. Flett drove over from Gaston Saturday evening to attend a social function given by some of his young lady friends.

C. B. Newhouse and C. B. Wilson have entered into partnership in the real estate business under the firm name of Newhouse & Wilson.

Mrs. J. T. Osborne and daughter Miss Bertha Cox left Friday for Salt Lake, Utah, where they are visiting with their son and brother, O. L. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Bowman have moved to Portland, he having gone into business with the A. D. Christianson Company, wholesale produce dealers.

Rev. Wm. Bowerman, a Free Methodist minister of Estacada, accompanied by his daughter, visited here the first of the week with relatives in the family of W. B. Cory.

J. H. Mills, the jeweler, has moved to his own home known as the Leavitt property, the Turner house which he vacated now being occupied by its present owner, Peter Bashaw.

Chas. Hamilton, who has been engaged in cruising timber in the Cascades for a Seattle lumber concern, visited in town the first of the week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Hamilton.

C. H. Frye, son-in-law of Rhodes Gardner, who moved here some time ago from the Imperial country of Southern California, left with his family the first of the week for Twin Falls, Idaho.

The Newberg W. C. T. U. meets every second and fourth Wednesday of each month. The regular meeting will convene at Mrs.
Bowerman's home, Wednesday, the 24th; subject, "Health and Hereditry." All are cordially invited.

The Misses Lena Spangle, Beulah Spaulding and Ola and Lucy Mills represented Pacific College at the state Y. W. C. A. convention held at Corvallis from Friday, to Sunday. Leola Glass and May Mitchell attended as delegates from the High School and were accompanied by Nadine Bryan, Hazel Littlefield and Ella Nelson. President McGrew delivered an address before the convention.

The baseball season was opened in Newberg Saturday afternoon with a rattling good game played on the college campus between the Dundee school and the Eighth grade team of the Newberg school. For the greater part of the time the visitors maintained a slight lead, but in the last half of the ninth inning the Newberg lads made enough timely hits to put them one to the good on the score board. The result was New-berg 11, Dundee 10. Chas.
Parrett officiated satisfactorily as umpire. Some good plays were pulled off by the youngsters of both teams and with more practice they should put up a pretty good exhibition of the great American game. The teams were made up as follows:

Newberg	Dundee
V. Motschenbacher	J. Washburne
C. Neal	L. Ryan
C. Riggs	P. Groth
H. Woodward	F. Haskins
R. Otis	B. Ramsey
O. Gause	B. Craven
G. Spaulding	M. Elliott
Hill	V. Conlee
W. Loune	D. Haskins

Mayor's Proclamation!

Tuesday, April 23rd, is hereby designated as a special day for cleaning up the streets, alleys and yards of Newberg. All debris which cannot be burned may be put in barrels or boxes on street corners or some convenient place and it will be hauled off free of charge. We hope to have the co-operation of all citizens in thoroughly cleaning our town.

JESSE EDWARDS, Mayor.

B. F. Huston, of McMinnville came down Wednesday to make a visit with the family of C. H.
Christenson.

G. H. Baldwin, a Forest Grove contractor, was in Newberg yesterday making estimates on the new brick building.

Prof. F. K. Jones is expecting his father to arrive from Kansas the last of the week to make him an extended visit.

J. H. Mills is expecting his mother to arrive this week for a visit from Pasadena, California, where she has been spending the winter.

Tickets may be had at the drugstores for to-morrow night's concert given by the music department of the college under the leadership of Prof. Carrick.

Hugh Heacock drove down from Dayton Sunday to attend the dedication services of the Chehalem Center church and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs.
W. R. Carter.

An enjoyable family reunion was held in West Chehalem Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
C. H. Christenson. Two birthday anniversaries in the family were the occasion of the gathering.

J. M. Atkinson, who had been ill for some days with pneumonia, died at his home on Spring Hill Farm about one o'clock yesterday afternoon. At the time of going to press the time for the funeral had not been decided upon.

The five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Merritt died early Tuesday morning.
The funeral services took place Wednesday morning at ten o'clock and were conducted by Rev. W. S. Lowry. The Merritt family are recent arrivals from Pueblo, Colorado.

Jason Kellum and wife stopped off here on their way from Idaho to Southern California, a few days ago to visit Martin Cook's and liked the town so well they concluded to remain though some of their effects had already been shipped south. They have purchased property on lower Wynookski street.

President H. E. McGrew and family told Newberg friends farewell Wednesday morning, a large number of friends and college students being at the depot to see them off and sing the college song as the train bore them away. They expect to spend two or three weeks at Boise, Idaho, after which it is their intention to accept an urgent invitation from an uncle of President's to come and make their home with him near Paonia, Colorado, indefinitely for rest and recuperation.

Very successful dedication services were held before a large audience at the new Friends church of Chehalem Center Sunday morning. The sermon was preached by Rev. Marion George, evangelistic superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting, appropriate music being furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Newby.
Rev. H. T. Cash made the appeal for subscriptions to cover the the amount back on the building with the result that four hundred and fifty dollars was soon subscribed which was one hundred more than the amount required.
The new church is neat in appearance, is furnished with basement and heated by furnace, and stands as a monument to the interest and enterprise of the community which erected it.
