at LaGrande this week visiting with A. T. Hills.

S. J. Lashier was up from Portland Sunday visiting with former Newberg friends.

Luman Rich was up from Portland the first of the week visiting with his parents.

Miss Ione Hill went to Eugene Wednesday where she will spend a couple of weeks visiting with her brother Lon S. Hill.

Mrs. W. C. Chase, of Coquille, Coos county, was here the first of the week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoskins have returned from their extended trip to California and are visiting with relatives about Newberg.

Will Crater is investing in gasoline power for his wood saw which will help some, since every stick of wood consumed by a steam engine at present prices of wood counts up.

Dr. Edgar Poppleton, one of the old time residents of LaFayette, died at his home in Portland last Wednesday. He was well known to all the older residents of this part of the county.

Mrs. Lizzie Hoskins, of Lenta, in company with two ladies from Kokomo, Indiana, Mrs. Trueblood and Mrs. Thompson, visited in town last Sunday at Jesse Cooks.

While in McMinnville last Saturday, Postmaster Eckman informed us that the stork had made a very recent visit to their home, bringing the best looking boy that has ever appeared in the family.

Mrs. M. McDonald and Miss Florence Coffin are in LaGrande this week as delegates in attendance at the Rebekah Assembly, which, with the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge, meets in that city this year.

Wilfred Crozer went to Rosedale last week to look after some business interests. Mrs. Crozer and the children who had been visiting with her parents at Salem came home with him on Monday.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pinney on Wednesday morning and a revised census report of the family will show that the number has been increased by two, one of each sex to make a good average.

N. C. Christenson has made a trade with Will Christenson which puts him in possession of the new and up to date residence that Will recently erected in the northwest part of town opposite the Pettyjohn property. The latter, who is a first class carpenter, builds houses to sell and N. C. is always ready to meet a man half way in a trade when a piece of property looks good to him, hence the exchange.

Elwood S. Minchin, who has been a student in Whittier College for the past three years is still doing oratorical stunts and his latest victory is the winning of the prize in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest, when four of the colleges of Southern California were represented. He is an Oregon boy who learned to orate while a student in Pacific College and he just could not keep from winning. The newspaper mention of the contest has him down as "Stanley," which we can only account for by the supposition that by parting his hair in the middle all these years he is taking on the ways of the girls to such an extent that he has changed his name to accord with some fairy story. Anyway his Newberg friends will rejoice over his recent victory.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles left on their eastern trip, as noted last week, on Monday.

Williams and Timberlake have purchased a spring truck for the handling of pianos.

took place on the college campus Friday afternoon between the High School and Academy, the former winning by a margin of seven or eight points.

M. P. Elliott will leave here in a few days for Caldwell, Idaho, to look after his claim. Mrs.
Elliott and the children will remain here for the present as she is not in xery good health.

It has been decided by the teachers of the public school to use the money that will be realized from the exhibit day exercises to be held Friday, to purchase a piano for the school.
Lunch will be served in the basement in the evening.

Miss Emerette Harger spent the past two weeks visiting friends at Gaston and Forest Grove. While there she attended the concert given by Madame Norelli and William Wallace Graham under the auspices of the ladies club.

The subject of the sermon next Sunday evening at the Baptist church, will be "The Covenant of Blood." There will be no preaching service in the morning on account of the union memorial services at the M. E. church.
Junior meeting Sunday at 3 p. m.

The friends of Prof. Thomas Newlin, who knew him as president of Pacific College from 1891 to 1900, are pleased to hear that he and Mrs. Newlin are expected to be here in July to attend the sessions of Oregon Yearly Meeting of the Friends church. The outlook is favorable for the attendance of several other ministers of prominence in the church
this year.

Cyrus Baldwin and family left for their home in Whittier, California last Monday morning, after having spent a week here visiting. After looking the country over Mr. Baldwin said an interurban road from Portland would do more for Newberg than almost anything else that could be named, and he spoke advised-ly for he knows what an interurban road has done for his home town.

Allen Smith and son Herman have the contract for building a new residence for J. C. Hodson and also one for Mrs. Mary White. Both are to be modern cottages and will add to the list of handsome residences that are being built in Newberg. Mrs.
White will build on Meridian street opposite the college grounds and Mr. Hodson will build on his acreage property over beyond the canyon.

The Kenorpa Trio, of Portland "made good" before a New-berg audience last Friday night —which is not the easiest thing to do as Newberg, through its Lyceum Course, has become used to the best and has set its standard accordingly. An especially hearty reception awaited Miss Lytle, the popular soprano whom Newberg people have learned in the past to admire greatly and who can have an audience in this town on demand. Neither was it Mr. Monteith's first appearance here as a baritone soloist and all who heard him will be pleased to know that it will not be his last, of which more later. As a reader Mrs. McGuire proved herself at home in Negro dialect, in which direction she does her best work.
She does not attempt a wide range of readings. A good audience and an appreciative one greeted the entertainers.

Mrs. A. Cooke has been very sick for the past few days.

from Salem the first of the week.

to Tom Cummings for property on River street.

returned from St. Johns and are occupying their property on Meridian street.

F. H. Green and C. F. Moore arrived home from their fishing trip in the Coast mountains last Friday evening reporting a very good catch.

The West Willamette Baptist Association will hold the sixth anniversary meeting in Newberg June 3, 4 and 5.

A surgical operation performed on Mrs. S. Hitchen last week has left her quite weak and she is not improving as had been hoped for.

Miss Gertrude Brewer came down from Chemawa Monday and spent a couple of days visiting with the Misses Sibyl and Bernice Woodward.

Mrs. J. H. Mills, in company with Mr. Mills' mother, Mrs.
Mary E. Nesbit, have gone to the St. Martin hot springs on the upper Columbia, the latter for treatment for rheumatism.

Walter Whitten, who removed here with his family from Newport recently, has rented the Andrews property, next door to Dr. Snapp. He contemplates setting up a lapidary shop as soon as he can get his fixtures from Chicago.

Mrs. Wesley Hollingsworth with her son Jo and two daughters left here on Wednesday for Nebraska where they will remain some time, hoping the change will benefit the health of Mrs. Hollingsworth which has been poor for several years.

W. B. Sims received word from Portland, the first of the week, that his son Fay had been taken to a hospital for treatment for a serious case of blood poison in one foot, occasioned by a bruise received in walking. Later reports are that he is improving.

Thomas Scattergood, a wealthy merchant of Philadelphia, who was one of the first men to make a donation to Pacific College, died a short time ago while on a trip to Italy. He was held in high esteem in his home city by those who were associated with him in various ways, and he was known as a liberal giver for benevolent purposes.

Zimri Mills and other shippers of strawberries, from Springbrook, are receiving much favorable comment from the Portland papers for the quality of their berries. The statement is freely made that their berries are the finest that are reaching the Portland market, and that they could easily be disposed of in car load lots at fancy prices.

G. W. James, the Southern Pacific station agent will leave here in a few days to take the office at Dallas, where the pay will be about $40 per month better, owing to the office being combined with that of the Falls City railroad. Mr. James has made a host of friends here who will be sorry to see him leave.
The vacancy will probably be filled by G. W. Cutts whose home is here and who is well and favorably known by a large number of our people.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Miss Josie Summer, Bremond, Texas, writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used."
