"Do the Right."

My friends all unite to stand like a wall,
Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.
Let he that thinks he standeth
Beware lest he fall—
Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.
It biteth like a serpent, it stingeth to death.

The maker of all things assuredly he sayeth
No drunkard a Heavenly inheritance hath.

Touch not the cup—taste it not.
Strong drink is a mocker to those who it use,
Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.

They are its slaves, who with it themselves abuse.
Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.
Shun evil companions, of them do beware;

Their seemed kind intentions
Only lead to a snare.
The best may be ruined
Though ever lovely and fair,

Touch not the cup—taste it not.
But seek ye the friend ever faithful
And true,

Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.
The friend of the friendless
Will never leave you;

Touch not the cup—touch not the cup.
With Christ as your portion.
You have nothing to fear—
To you this will be a thrice happy year.

He is the chiefest of thousands
Tho ever so dear—
Touch not the cup—taste it not.
