Local Events.

Born, on Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, a girl baby.

Mrs. Seese left here for Kansas last Monday on account of the serious illness of her aged mother.

The Dorrance sawmill, located west of town a mile and a half, started up the first of the week.

Henry Gee, the McMinnville tombstone man, was in town Monday putting up some monuments.

Two cousins of Mrs. Clarence Butt, from Portland, Mrs. Gary and Mrs. Harmon visited with her last Sunday.

Enos Blair, a former resident of Newberg, was up from Portland last Sunday visiting with J. K. Blair, who is sick.

Morris Heacock and wife returned to their home in Montavilla Saturday after a sojourn of several weeks in Newberg.

The Yamhill County Fruit Growers Association will meet in McMinnville, Tuesday, June 6, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Roy Grafe, who has been laid up with rheumatism for some time, went to the hot springs on the upper Columbia for treatment the first of the week.

The ladies aid society of the Friends church, will entertain the members of the aid societies of the other churches of Newberg, on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. K. Spaulding.

Dorothy Welch, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Otis Welch, died on last Friday afternoon of diphtheria. On Sunday morning the remains were taken to Independence for burial.

Miss Agnes Hammer, who has been teaching in the public school at Lexington for the past two years, arrived home Tuesday evening. She has been offered the same position for next year at increased wages and will probably accept.

W. W. Hollingsworth, the undertaker, removed the remains of Mrs. Alfred Moore from the Dayton cemetery, the first of the week, and interred them in the cemetery here. After a lapse of twenty-one years the coffin was found to be well preserved.

Nathan White received a letter from his old friend, Dr. Erastus Test, of Purdue University, Indiana, of date of May 20, in which he stated that spring weather was the most backward known for years and that severe weather had ruined the fruit crop of Indiana.

George Lea completed the construction of his barge the first of the week, and the first trip to the gravel bar at the head of the island was made Wednesday morning. The Eldridge gasoline launch is being used to propel it and R. Pettyjohn is the man in charge. Portland parties are already offering to buy the barge as soon as Mr. Lea is through with it, but it is to be hoped that some Newberg man will buy it and prepare to supply the demand for gravel.

In speaking of the death of Mrs. McKinley, J. D. Fell remarked to the writer that he was an eye witness to the assassination of President McKinley.
He was only a few feet from the assassin and saw him approach the president with one hand wrapped in his handkerchief, feigning a sore hand, which in fact held the revolver. When the hand of McKinley was extended he saw the revolver thrust forward and fired, he saw the president stagger from the shock and also saw the negro fell the assassin with a blow from his fist. The awful scene gave Mr. Fell such a shock that his nervous system has never recovered from it. He is now past seventy years of age.

Mrs. Jo Bowman came up from Portland Tuesday morning.

Mrs. L. E. Holt went to Dayton Monday to visit with her sisters, Mrs. Goodrich and Mrs.
Todd.

Mrs. Effie Davis and children are here from Seattle, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Samuel Moffitt.

Jessie Edwards sold his sorrel driving horse to a Portland business man last Tuesday, the price being $300.

The Newberg Sash and Door Factory is turning out an order of two thousand logan berry crates for a Dayton firm.

Mrs. Z. J. Imus has been appointed postmistress at Dundee, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of her husband.

Claud V. Stater, a former New-berg lad was in town Wednesday, representing the Ruberoid and Paraffine Paint Co., of Portland.

Mrs. T. S. Townsend, of Portland, and Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Knoxville, Tennessee, spent Sunday and Monday in town visiting with Mrs. F. A. Morris.

Born, to Rev. and Mrs. Herbert T. Cash on Tuesday, May 28, a ten pound son, which has been christened Seymour, in memory of a deceased brother of Rev.
Cash.

R. W. Swink, principal, and Miss Mabel Rush assistant, who have been teaching in the Springbrook school the past year, have been engaged for next year in the same school.

Mrs. C. J. Bright and children are down from Moro, Sherman county, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larsen, at their home on the Dayton road southwest of town.

Mrs. Robert Baldwin, of Centralia, Washington, was here last week visiting with Mrs. O.
Baldwin, of Springbrook. On Sunday she visited with her niece, Mrs. C. E. Newhouse.

H. R. Morris, A. Dorn and Tom Herd left for the Carson hot springs on the upper Columbia, Monday morning, where they hope to limber up their joints by a two weeks soak in the healing waters of the springs.

John Shearer brought in some fine samples of alfalfa a few days ago with roots of great length, showing that this grass plant delves its roots deep down into the earth, even here in the valley where there is much surface water during the winter season.

Members of the class of '98 of Pacific College, who reside in Newberg, have received invitations to attend the wedding of S. T. Stanley, a member of the class, who is to be married to Miss Lesta Simpson at the home of her mother in Sterling, Colorado, June 5.

W. B. Sims and other property owners on Meridian street are making a united effort to improve the appearance of this street, by mowing the grass and making a general cleaning up of all rubbish. They will set the pace for others, and it is to be hoped that the interest thus awakened will spread until all the streets in town are put in condition for close inspection by the visiting public. It is well worth the effort.

Ask the six hundred and more school children, who took part in the exhibit day exercises on the public school grounds last Friday, and they will tell you that it was a great day. The exhibit of work done by the pupils, which was made in the different rooms was very creditable and the sports were enjoyed by young and old, while the parade beat any Fourth of July parade we have ever had in Newberg.
The winding of the May pole by the little girls was very nicely done and this closed the exercises. The proceeds realized from the sale of refreshments amounted to $75, which, with the amount already on hand, makes $100 to apply on the purchase of a piano for the school.

Bert King was up from Portland the first of the week.

Mrs. V. Skowron was up from Portland a few days last week visiting with relatives.

Jo Bixby is building a new residence near the railroad track, northeast of the public school building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mount went to Portland this Thursday, morning to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jo Bowman.

John B. Haworth, who has lived near Harrisburg, Linn county, for the past thirty-five years, spent Sunday in town visiting with the Graphic family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Kirk, who spent their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Kirk, returned to Seattle the first of the week.

W. J. Stater, the McMinnville real estate man, was in town Wednesday showing a prospective buyer from Nebraska the best town on the west side of the river.

Mr. Watts' team took a sudden hike last Saturday in front of Rich's grocery, throwing him out of the buggy and taking a spin up First street, doing some slight damage to the rig.

C. E. Clemenson, who has just closed his third year in public school work in Oregon, with the close of the Dundee school, will return to his home at Conde, South Dakota, where he owns a large wheat farm.

W. T. Andrews, who is in the government forestry service, removed from Bremerton, Washington, recently and has rented the Duncan property on Third street. Mrs. Andrews is a sister of Mrs. W. W. Baker.

Dr. Snapp made a trip into the big timber belt south of Bridal Veil the first of the week and spotted three Southern Pacific timber claims. One for himself, one for J. C. Colcord and the other for J. W. Forsyth.

L. W. Charles, who learned to stick type in the Graphic office, and who has been working in some of the best job offices in Portland during the past three years, has taken a position as foreman in the office of the Dayton Optimist.

Robert Firth, a son of Mrs. A.
J. Bishop, who is telegraph operator at Duluth, Minnesota, arrived here with his family last Monday for a visit. Another son of Mrs. Bishop, Frank Evans, also came in the company, expecting to remain.

Marvin Blair was up from Portland Sunday visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair, north of town.
He has resigned his position at the Y. M. C. A. as teacher and has accepted a position with better pay in the office of the city engineer as computer.

People will talk, and since Lin Ferguson and Mrs. Bogard concluded to make a trip to Condon last week, some of their friends intercepted them at Portland where they showered them with rice, while others wired congratulations, but the report that they were married lacks confirmation.

C. F. and A. E. Moore received a message at an early hour this Thursday, morning, announcing the death of their father, Alfred Moore, which occurred at the home of his son, Dr. J. B. Moore, at Lents. The remains will be brought to Newberg for burial, but the time for the funeral has not been announced.

J. C. Lucas has sold his home in town, which is located on the Dayton road, to A. S. Carter, of Jonesville, Virginia, which is located in the famous Shenandoah valley. Mr. Carter says he owns a thousand acres of bluegrass land in that valley, which has been held in the family for several generations and he is outlooking for locations for two of his sons. He bought a farm for one of them in Missouri, but the other preferred Oregon and consequently he will probably buy a farm near Newberg for this one.

More Value Than Ever

The fame this store has made in the SHOE line has multiplied, and now every thoughtful buyer comes here to buy. This year, in spite of heavy advances, we are enabled to still save you more money and give better goods than most dealers.

PARKER MERC. CO.

Merit Always Wins

That is why our business has increased every month to the present time.

Especially is our shoe trade improving every day for the reason that we do not misrepresent, and make good our word for every pair of shoes sold.

We endeavor to make satisfied customers SIX days in the week but don't hang around our place of business for the dollars from the man who does not know or care when Sunday comes.
Six days for business and one for rest is our motto.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Missouri, had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a simson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent.
I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at F. H. Caldwell &

Growing Aches and Pains.

Miss Josie Summer, Bremond, Texas, writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used."
